

THE 1921 BRECKY

Charles Sumner School
Museum and Archives

ARCHIVES OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS
OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

The Brecky

Year Book of the Classes of 1921
Pilgrim Tercentenary Number

Central High School
Washington, District of Columbia

THE MAYFLOWER

The Mayflower

(1620-1920)

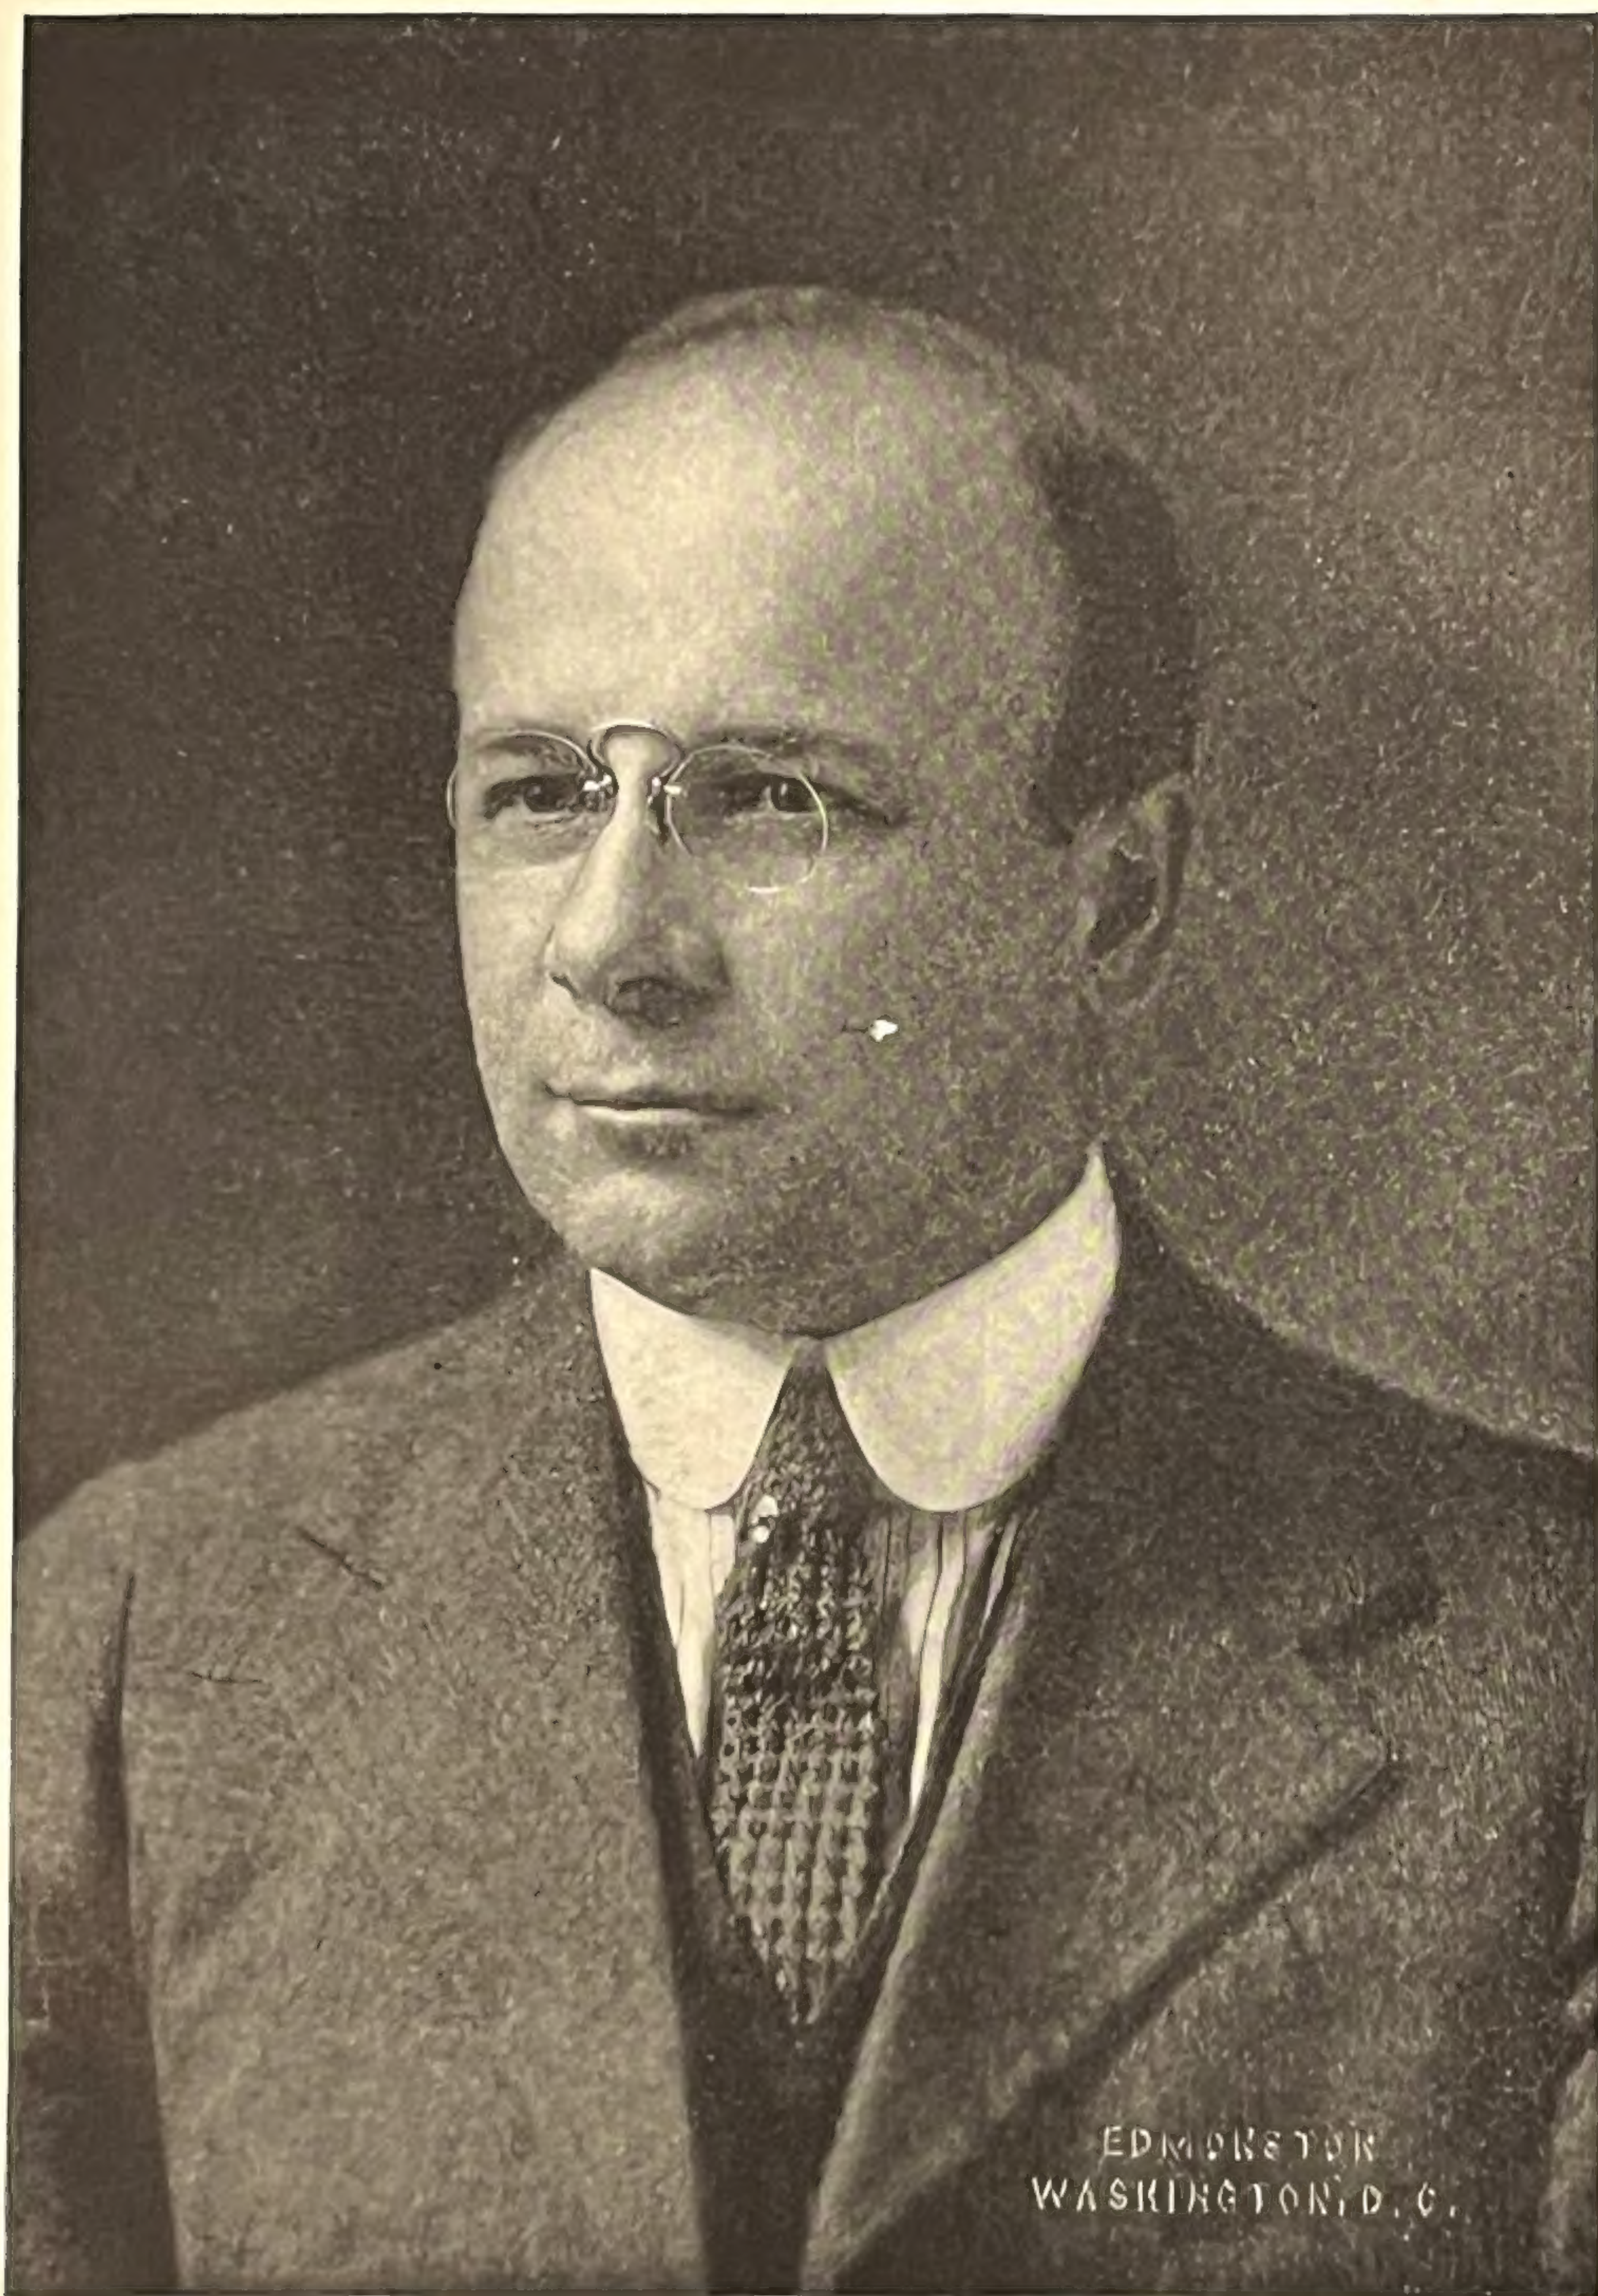

I think some angel christened her,
Touched her black bows with dew and flame,
And watched her through the sunset bear
The light of England's loveliest name:
But O, the Mayflower's not a ship,
Though Heaven, in one great hour, let slip
Its bloom on one great ship's renown
That sailed three hundred years ago,
From Plymouth Town to Plymouth Town.

ALFRED NOYES.

BY PERMISSION OF THE PUBLISHERS
FREDERICK A. STOKES COMPANY

The Mayflower Compact

We whose names are underwritten, the loyall subjects of our dread Soveraigne Lord, King James, by ye grace of God, of Great Britaine, France, & Ireland King, defender of ye faith, &c., having undertaken, for ye glorie of God, and advancement of ye Christian faith and honour of our King & Countrie, a voyage to plant ye first colonie in ye Northerne parts of Virginia, doe by these presents solemnly and mutually in ye presence of God, and of one another, covenant & combine our selves together into a civill body politik; for our better ordering, and preservation & furtherance of ye ends aforesaid; and by vertue hearof to enacte, constitute, and frame such just & equall lawes, ordinances, acts, constitutions, & offices, from time to time, as shall be thought most meete & convenient for ye general good of ye Colonies: unto which we promise all due submission and obedience. In witnes whereof, we have hereunder subscribed our names at Cap-Codd ye 11 of November, in ye year of ye raigne of our Soveraigne Lord King James of England, France, & Ireland ye eighteenth, and of Scotland ye fiftie fourth. Anno. Dom. 1620.

MR. ROBERT A. MAURER, Principal

MISS HELEN M. COOLIDGE, Assistant Principal

Helen M. Coolidge

MR. ALVIN W. MILLER, Assistant Principal

The Faculty

PRINCIPAL

ROBERT A. MAURER

ASSISTANT PRINCIPALS

HELEN M. COOLIDGE

ALVIN S. MILLER

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

SARAH E. SIMONS, Head of Department

Sibyl Baker	Edna A. Clark	Sarah P. Lynch	Alice K. Pryor (Mrs.)
Isabel Baldwin	Ruth Denham	Anne McColm	Lillian K. Sabine
Frances M. Banta	Frances T. Doggett (Mrs.)	Bertha S. Metzler (Mrs.)	Dorothea Sherman
Alice Botkin	Alice J. DuBreuil	M. Ella Morgan	Emily F. Sleman
Alma Boyd	Marian V. Hummer	Florence J. Murray	Grace Vale
Ruth B. Branham (Mrs.)	Lola M. Hutchins (Mrs.)	Clem Irwin Orr	Mabel H. Willett (Mrs.)
Alice M. Clark	Florence M. Jayne	Marjorie Paul	Christina Wright

MODERN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

RENE JEAN-MARIE SAMSON, Head of Department

Elizabeth Carhart, French	Melle G. Oudin, French	Marie H. Siebert, Spanish
Mary Crans, Spanish	Alexandra Parrot, French	A. S. Trappey, French
Mark F. Finley, Jr., French	Alice Piguët, French	Susanne C. Ulrich, French
Evangeline BenOliel, French	Bertha G. Romero (Mrs.), French, Spanish	Martha E. Wimer, French
	Arnold W. Spanhoofd, Spanish, French

LATIN DEPARTMENT

DR. WILBUR R. DALES, Head of Department

Marian S. Baker (Mrs.)	Mildred Dean	Helen N. Gary	Alida Smith
Alice M. Clark	W. A. Eckels	Mary L. Robbins	Emilie M. White

HISTORY DEPARTMENT

GEORGE J. JONES, Head of Department

Ruth B. Branham (Mrs.)	Janet Ditto	Lucretia Hemington	Edmund S. Noyes
Margaret H. Brewer	W. A. Eckles	Edith Lowe	Rosalie A. Robinette
Edith J. Corser			Ottillie Young

The Faculty

(CONTINUED)

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

HARRY ENGLISH, Head of Department

Pauline Ballard (Mrs.)	Ellen Golden	Emma A. Jensen	John J. Thomas
Martha E. Clarke	Edith Grosvenor	S. T. Kimble	William J. Wallis
Charlotte R. Farrington	Olna Hudler	Harriet Lasier	Mary Weddell
Sarah M. Farr (Mrs.)	I. W. Huntzberger	George A. Ross	Elizabeth Wilson
Estelle Fenno

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

Eda Burlack, Physiography	Edith J. Corser, Physiography	Lillian Pace, Physics
Henry H. Burroughs, Physics	Mark F. Finley, Jr., Chemistry	Laura D. Shackelford, Physiography
Guy Clinton, Chemistry	Elizabeth I. Gatch, Chemistry	W. A. Smith, Chemistry
Alfred Doolittle, Physiography, Biology	Edith C. Paul, (Mrs.) Physiography, Biology

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

E. O. Harned	Harriet Lasier	Emily Miladofsky	C. M. Ray
Louise G. Hart	Mary D. Merrill (Mrs.)	Hester E. McNelly	Majorie H. Steele (Mrs.)

MANUAL TRAINING DEPARTMENT

J. C. Claghorn	Lillian Doherty (Mrs.)	Mildred H. Merrill	Florence H. Schuh (Mrs.)
Burt Coggin	Clarence Hecox	S. H. Rathbun	Marian White
E. M. Cornell	Page Kirk (Mrs.)	Hazel C. Schertz (Mrs.)	Joseph H. Wilson
S. Amelia Dalton

DRAWING DEPARTMENT

Jessie E. Baker	Ethel E. Foster	Martha Griggs	Katharine Summy
-----------------	-----------------	---------------	-----------------

PHYSICAL TRAINING DEPARTMENT

F. J. Brunner	Edith Grosvenor	Ada C. Moody	Elizabeth R. Walton (Mrs.)
William Foley	Cuvier A. Metzler	Elsie Sanders
	Bessie M. Lewis (Mrs.), Girls' Welfare

MUSIC DEPARTMENT—Halstead P. Hoover, Samuel Wood

LIBRARY—Laura E. Mann, Librarian; Edna Veley, Assistant Librarian

PRINTING—Carl S. Fenton

CLERICAL FORCE—Sara E. Stephens, Mary Young, Alice Craig

MANAGER OF LUNCH ROOM—Josephine Crawford

Hail to thee, poor little ship Mayflower— of Delft Haven—poor, common-looking ship, hired by common charter-party for coined dollars,—caulked with mere oakum and tar,— provisioned with vulgarest biscuit and bacon,— yet what ship Argo or miraculous epic ship, built by the sea-gods, was other than a foolish bumbarge in comparison.

THOMAS CARLYLE.

SCHOOL INTERESTS

Let's make it

THE BRECKY STAFF

The Brecky Staff

Editor-in-Chief

JOSEPH WILLIAM LUDEWIG

Associate Editors

MARGERY CARRUTHERS

ALICE VIRGINIA KELIHER

HARRISON GILL KILDARE

MILDRED MOORMAN MURRAY

VIRGINIA PARTON, Art Editor

AGNES GREEN, Assistant Art Editor

CLYDE BRUNELL MELVILLE Business Manager

COOPER BURNETT RHODES Circulation Manager

WILLIAM EDWARD CAREY }
ALBERT MUSHER } Advertising Managers

JOHN CULLEN }
JAMES BRADLEY WHITMAN } Photographic Managers

MARGARET RUSSELL Bookkeeper and Cashier

Faculty Committee

CLEM IRWIN ORR

ETHEL E. FOSTER

JOSEPH H. WILSON

The Brecky

THE 1921 BRECKY is presented to the school with the hope that it will worthily uphold the Brecky standard of previous years. There are a few new features in this year's book, but for the most part the contents are the same as in the 1920 Brecky, as any radical changes would increase the cost of publication which has already reached a maximum.

For the benefit of those who may not be familiar with the practice, which has prevailed for the past three years, of making scholarship the first school honor noted in the biographies, it may be well to explain that this word at the head of a biography means that three-fourths of that student's marks for seven semesters are E's. It is, of course, manifestly impossible to include the eighth semester in the scholarship rating. Special mention of the fact is made in the biographies of those who have an all-E record.

The page devoted to the Wearers of the "C" contains only the names of those who were actual wearers of the school letter in early March.

We have two new interests to recognize in the 1921 Brecky. The Girls' Rifle Team has shot so steadily and accurately, winning matches both here at school and outside, that the Athletic Association has decided to present the high scorers with the coveted "C." A rowing crew was also organized this year, with Mr. Hecox as faculty director, to furnish diversion to boys who were unable to enter other sports. These boys have forged ahead steadily, so that Central may now boast an officially recognized Crew, the pioneer crew of the Washington high schools. It will probably pull against outside college crews as well as local boat clubs. Because of the late recognition of this new interest it was necessary to place the page devoted to it near the end of the book.

For the past three years it has been the custom to connect the life of the school with the larger life outside of our little world, by devoting space to some theme of general interest. The World War and the Armistice furnished such suggestions for the 1918 and 1919 year-books. Last year the death of Mr. Wilson in February, just as the plans for the Brecky were beginning to materialize, created the sad necessity for a memorial number of the Brecky. One page only was devoted to the visit of the royal family of Belgium to Washington. This year the whole country has been actively engaged or interested in the celebration of the tercentenary of the landing of the Pilgrims on the shores of New England. The 1921 Brecky will be the contribution of the February and June classes to this celebration. All of the drawings are suggestive of the Puritan period. The frontispiece is based upon the beautiful poem of the English poet, Alfred Noyes, The Mayflower, the first stanza of which is reproduced on the opposite page by special permission of the publishers. The quotations that run through the book have been chosen from the earlier and more recent literature on the Pilgrim theme.

American beginnings are thus emphasized at a time when American ideals are everywhere being held up to the youth of our country as "the hope of the world."

The Review

THE REVIEW of 1920-1921 is the gift of the staff and of Centralites to the school. We have tried to make it ring true to Central standards. If we have succeeded in making it an expression of real Central spirit, we are satisfied.

This year the distinction between the Review and the Bulletin has been emphasized by the devotion of more space to stories, poems, and sketches, and by limiting school news as far as possible to a summary of important events.

In the middle of the school year it was decided that it would be a better policy and fairer to the students to lay aside the old method of filling positions, in favor of a competition for positions. In the short time that we have tried out this plan, it has proved a simple and effectual way of giving honors to the deserving and capable people.

Before this brief history is completed, there are several persons guilty of hard work and interest in the Review who should be exposed. First there are the members of the staff, who have been found guilty of contributing generously and being ready at short notice to give extra help. The sentence imposed is all credit and praise. The next one on trial is Miss Murray. She has been proved guilty of unselfish interest and sympathy; her advice has made molehills out of insurmountable mountains of trouble. Her sentence must be heavy in proportion to the crime, many thanks, and greater support. Mr. Fenton is also declared guilty of having a great interest in the success of the Review, of working overtime, and of careful planning and hard work on the magazine. His sentence is many thanks.

Success to the staff of 1921-1922!

JOSEPHINE F. PECKHAM.

The Central Bulletin

IN ITS first number this year the Bulletin stated its policy. It was to have the school "keep in touch" by reading all the real news. In this connection the importance of cooperation on the part of the students and faculty was emphasized. Whether or not we have followed out this policy with success depends upon the opinion of the readers, but whatever that opinion may be, the staff has the satisfaction of knowing that it has exerted itself to the utmost in behalf of the school.

At times disheartening situations have arisen from apparently unsurmountable difficulties. But however dark the outlook, however hopeless the prospect, a way out has always been found. In many cases a solution of the problems could never have been found except for the indispensable advice of Miss Murray, without whom no issue could have been successful.

The whole-hearted support which the members of the staff have given the Editors has been the chief reason for the Bulletin's literary and financial success. They have the reward which comes to those who work for an ideal.

To Mr. Fenton and the boys of the Print Shop the staff sends many thanks for the skillful way in which the Bulletin was published.

The last and most important factor in our accomplishment has been the support and encouragement of the student body and the faculty. The paper has been what the school has made it and always will be what the school makes it.

May next year's Bulletin continue the great work of enlarging Central Spirit. With this wish we close the fourth volume of the Central Bulletin.

ROBERT CARY LATIMER.

Martha Edmonston

The Review Staff

JOSEPHINE F. PECKHAM, Editor-in-Chief

Associate Editors

MARTHA EDMONSTON

HARRISON G. KILDARE

Literary Editors

HELEN COTTER

THELMA HUNT

PAUL KIEL

FRANCES ROACH

FRANK SMITH

EDWIN YATES

ELIZABETH SABIN, Art Editor

J. BLISS AUSTIN	Debate Editor
MARY BARR	Dramatics
JOHN J. MURPHY	Cadets
EDWARD DUNLAP, WILLIS KERN, BERNARD LOCRAFT	Boys' Athletics
CATHERINE HOUGH	Girls' Athletics
ELIZABETH BICKFORD, KATHERINE DAY, CATHERINE ENGLAND, REGINA MALONE, JOSEPH LUDEWIG	School Notes
FRANCIS BANVILLE, JAMES MARSHALL, RICHARD WICK	Wit and Humor
LOUISE POINDEXTER	Exchanges
DOROTHY CRANDALL	Photographer
J. FLORENCE MURRAY, ETHEL E. FOSTER, E. O. HARNED	Faculty Advisers
CARL S. FENTON	Printing
CHANNING WALKER	Business Manager
WILLIAM CAREY	Advertising Manager
ROBERT RUDOLPH	Assistant Advertising Manager
CLYDE MELVILLE	Circulation Manager
EDWARD PROCTOR, EDWARD JONES, JOHN CULLEN, JESSE MORGAN	Floor Managers
MARGARET SMITH, SYDNEY PRESSLER	Files Managers
CHARLOTTE CASTELLI	Bookkeeper

The Bulletin Staff

ROBERT C. LATIMER, Editor-in-Chief

Associate Editors

ELIZABETH H. BRADFORD

HERBERT C. SANFORD

JAMES NEWMAN	Sports Editor
ELDON EDGERTON	Art Editor
ALICE KELIHER	See and Say
DONALD COTTRELL	Exchanges
KATHERINE WRIGHT	Girls' Athletics
ROBERT BYERLY	Miniature Newspaper
GEORGE WILSON	Wise and Otherwise
ELEANOR DOBSON	School Notes
DOROTHY HADDOX	Society Notes
JOSEPH BYRNS	News Editor

Reporters

ROSS FINK	RANDALL BUCKINGHAM	GEORGE WENTZEL	MARGARET SMITH
VIVIAN RAGAN	EMILY STROTHER	DOROTHY COX	JACK DEGOLIA

COOPER B. RHODES Business Manager

Floor Managers

RICHARD SCHULZE

ALFRED CLARK

WILLIAM WINSTEAD

CHARLOTTE CASTELLI Bookkeeper

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or name, written vertically on the left margin.

Dramatics

JUNE, 1921, will bring to a close one of the most successful dramatic years Central has ever had Every Tuesday, during the fall, winter, and spring, the Dramatic Association has met in the west corner of the Auditorium to learn to "Speak the speech" and to answer the call of the footlights. Notwithstanding Mrs. Walton's illness during the first four months of the year, wonderful progress has been made by every member, inspired and encouraged by that loving friend and teacher who even in hours of pain was ever willing to lend a helping hand.

For over a month after organizing, King Mimus ruled supreme, but when several ambitious members endeavored to pantomime Shakespeare, it was soon evident that sometimes silence is silver and speech is golden; thus the spoken word replaced the silent drama. Throughout the winter the association devoted much of its time to objective and subjective reading. Hamlet's address to the players being the model for the former, and the soliloquy "To be or not to be" for the latter.

Towards the middle of November Central was especially honored in having the great Shakespearian interpreter, Walter Hampden, address the student body. Mr. Hampden spoke on the great spiritual side of life and the reality of Shakespeare. Inflamed, by his words, with a renewed love of Shakespeare, the Association spent many winter mornings and afternoons in preparing and presenting scenes from King John, Macbeth, Twelfth Night, Hamlet, Julius Caesar, Romeo and Juliet and As You Like It.

At the football supper a humorous little sketch entitled Courtship Under Difficulties was presented by three members of the Association, much to the amusement of the Athletes.

The February class presented at class night exercises, a charming little one-act comedy, The Flower Shop. The story was so sweet and simple that it touched the hearts of all, and it can be truthfully said that none of Central's class night performances could have met with better success.

The Rose o' Plymouth Town, by Beulah Marie Dix, was Central's first dramatic production of the season. The play was given at Thanksgiving time in honor of the tercentenary commemoration of the landing of the Pilgrim fathers. Never before in the history of Central had the Dramatic Association produced so successful and difficult a play so early in the season, but then it must be remembered that the principals were veterans from The Gallopers.

In December the time-honored custom of the old school was revived when a Christmas play was presented for the first time in New Central. The Steadfast Princess, under the capable direction of Miss Sybil Baker, met with wonderful success, being judged by many, one of the most picturesque of Central's productions.

Central's third big dramatic success was The Cricket on the Hearth by Charles Dickens. The play was presented on March 22, in honor of the freshman class, by a cast which had worked all winter for the sake of art alone. These players started as "rookies" behind the footlights and ended as "grown-ups." There is much promising material in the Cricket cast for some more difficult dramatizations from our much neglected Dickens. We have an ambition to produce A Tale of Two Cities next year.

Pomander Walk, a comedy in three acts, by Lewis Parker, has been selected for the Spring Play. An excellent cast has been chosen and a full attendance is expected at all four performances.

The Association takes this opportunity to thank Miss Baldwin, Miss Baker, and others who helped the Dramatic Association during the trying times last fall when Mrs. Walton was ill.

Here's to the good health of our leader and the success of the Dramatic Association next year.

MARY FRANCES BARR

Debate

DANIEL WHITE President
 BLISS AUSTIN Secretary

THIS year sees Central again with two societies, the Sophomore Society, composed exclusively of Sophomores, and a regular school Debating Society open to all students.

At the outset of this year we possessed only one organization, the regular society, owing to the difficulty of obtaining a faculty adviser for more than one. Later, however, conditions became such that the organization of a Sophomore Society was possible.

The meetings of the two societies were planned so that they would not conflict, thereby allowing many members of the Sophomore Society to attend the meetings of both bodies.

The Sophomore Society turns out many experienced debaters for the regular society so that they are on nearly the same footing as the upper classmen.

The school society expects to live up to tradition in the annual chapel debate again this year. This contest between the Juniors and Seniors has become the goal for which the members of the organization are working.

The efforts to have an interscholastic debate with an outside school seem doomed to failure. The Central High School of Philadelphia has no debating society; John Marshall High School of Richmond replied to our challenge that its program was filled; Harrisburg Tech had only one date left open, and we found ourselves unable to accept this because of the Spring Play and other conflicting school activities. At the time this article is written, the University of Pennsylvania Freshman Society has not been heard from. We felt that it would be a hopeless task to debate the George Washington Freshmen because their team is composed mainly of members of last year's society at Central.

We are planning, however, for an inter-city debating league next year. The most desirable would be Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Washington. These plans are still in the making but Mr. Noyes hopes that by next year the league will be a reality. This should be a great stimulus to debating in the future.

BLISS AUSTIN, Secretary.

The Girls' Glee Club

THE Girls' Glee Club was organized in 1918 by Miss Helen Healy, who was President of the Club for the year 1918-19. With the cooperation of Miss Coolidge and the work of Mr. Hoover, the Glee Club has become a permanent organization of the school and has steadily improved.

Since its organization, the Glee Club has made many appearances in chapel and has assisted in the Class Night exercises from year to year. At the Class Night exercises of last June, the girls sang With the Stream by Tours, and Snowflakes by Cohen.

Many of the girls who sang last year were left to form the basis of this year's club, which with its many newly enrolled members began work the second week of school.

The object this year has not been to prepare a repertoire for public singing, but to get the excellent training which faithful chorus work gives. There has been a decided improvement this year and, although the school has not heard much from the Glee Club, the girls have worked just as faithfully, giving up, voluntarily, their time every Thursday afternoon for practice.

In the fall, many of the girls assisted at the pageant given for Dr. Ballou, by the D. C. school children, when they sang a part in the symphony with the orchestra.

Mr. Hoover has patiently given his time and labor, and to him we owe a great deal. His training and criticism have been most valuable to the club, and it is through his efforts that the Glee Club is kept in existence from year to year.

The work this year has been systematically done, beginning with singing only one-part, then two-part and three-part songs. We have tried and successfully sung such operatic songs as selections from Carmen and Samson and Delilah while the simplest lullabies are charmingly done.

And so, after a successful and pleasant year, the graduating members wish the greatest of success for the Girls' Glee Club of 1921-22.

ALICE V. KELIHER, Manager.

John Williams

The Central High School Bank

URBAN S. LAMBERT, JR., President
 CLYDE B. MELVILLE Vice-President.
 JOHN T. WILLIAMS Cashier.

FOR the past five years the Central High School Bank has been steadily growing and has now become a prime factor in school activities from the financial standpoint. It was organized in 1916 under the supervision of Mr. A. W. Miller, with nine people on the staff. Its growth is shown by these figures which represent the total deposits for each year as follows:

1916-1917.....	$6,000
1917-1918.....	9,000
1918-1919.....	13,000
1919-1920.....	17,000

This year a staff of thirteen people is kept busy and the total deposits will reach nearly twenty thousand dollars.

At the end of last year's school term Mr. Miller was promoted to fill the office of Assistant Principal of the school and was ably succeeded by Mr. E. O. Harned, who is at present the General Manager and Faculty Supervisor.

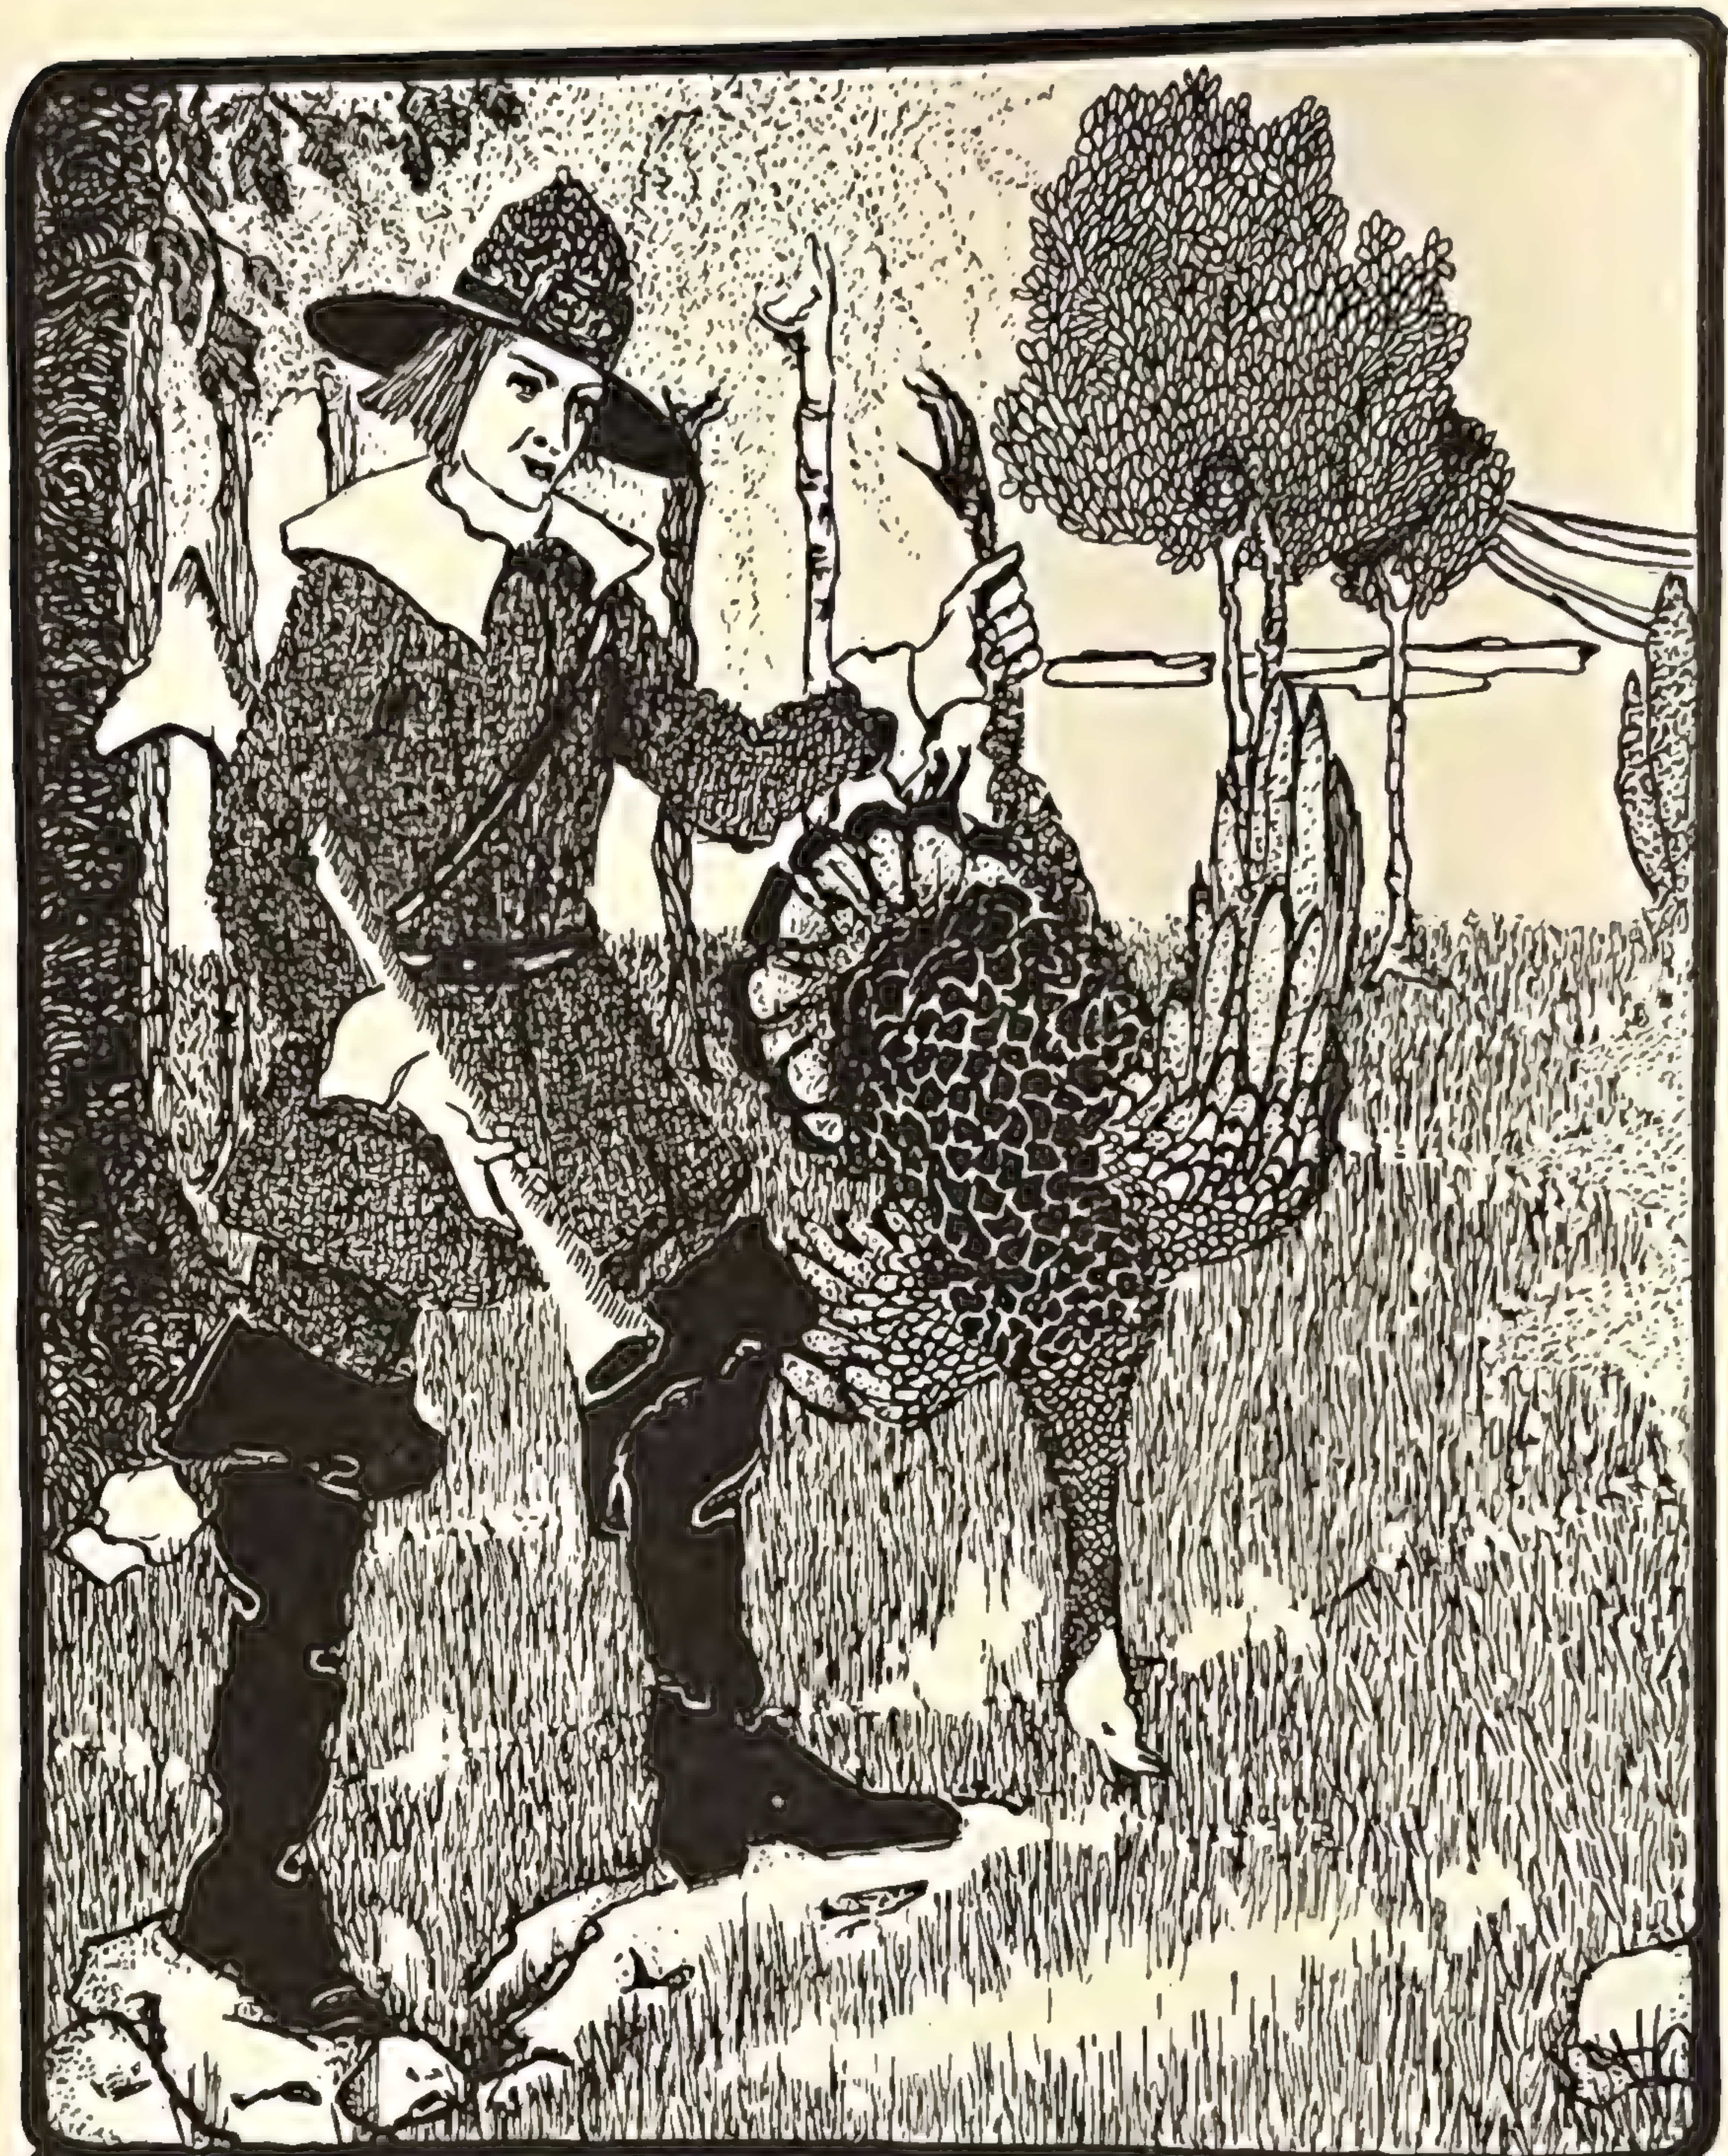

The Bank carries on a General Savings Bank business. Several hundred students find it a handy depository for their savings. The Lunch Room, Athletic Association, Publications, Drawing Department, Laboratories and Laundry carry accounts here. Loans are made to school interests. Checks are cashed, and War Saving and Thrift Stamps are sold. The Bank also acts as an agent for different activities, for instance, as collector of Gymnasium fees and distributor of Spring Play tickets.

The Bank holds a high place as an institution in the school system, and also a high place in the school building. The officials of the Bank really believe that if it were on the first floor instead of on the third, many more people would take advantage of its facilities.

URBAN S. LAMBERT, President.

Out of the sea rose the sun, and the billows rejoiced at his coming;
Beautiful were his feet on the purple top of the mountains;
Beautiful on the sails of the Mayflower riding at anchor, Battered and blackened and worn by all the storms of the winter.

HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW.

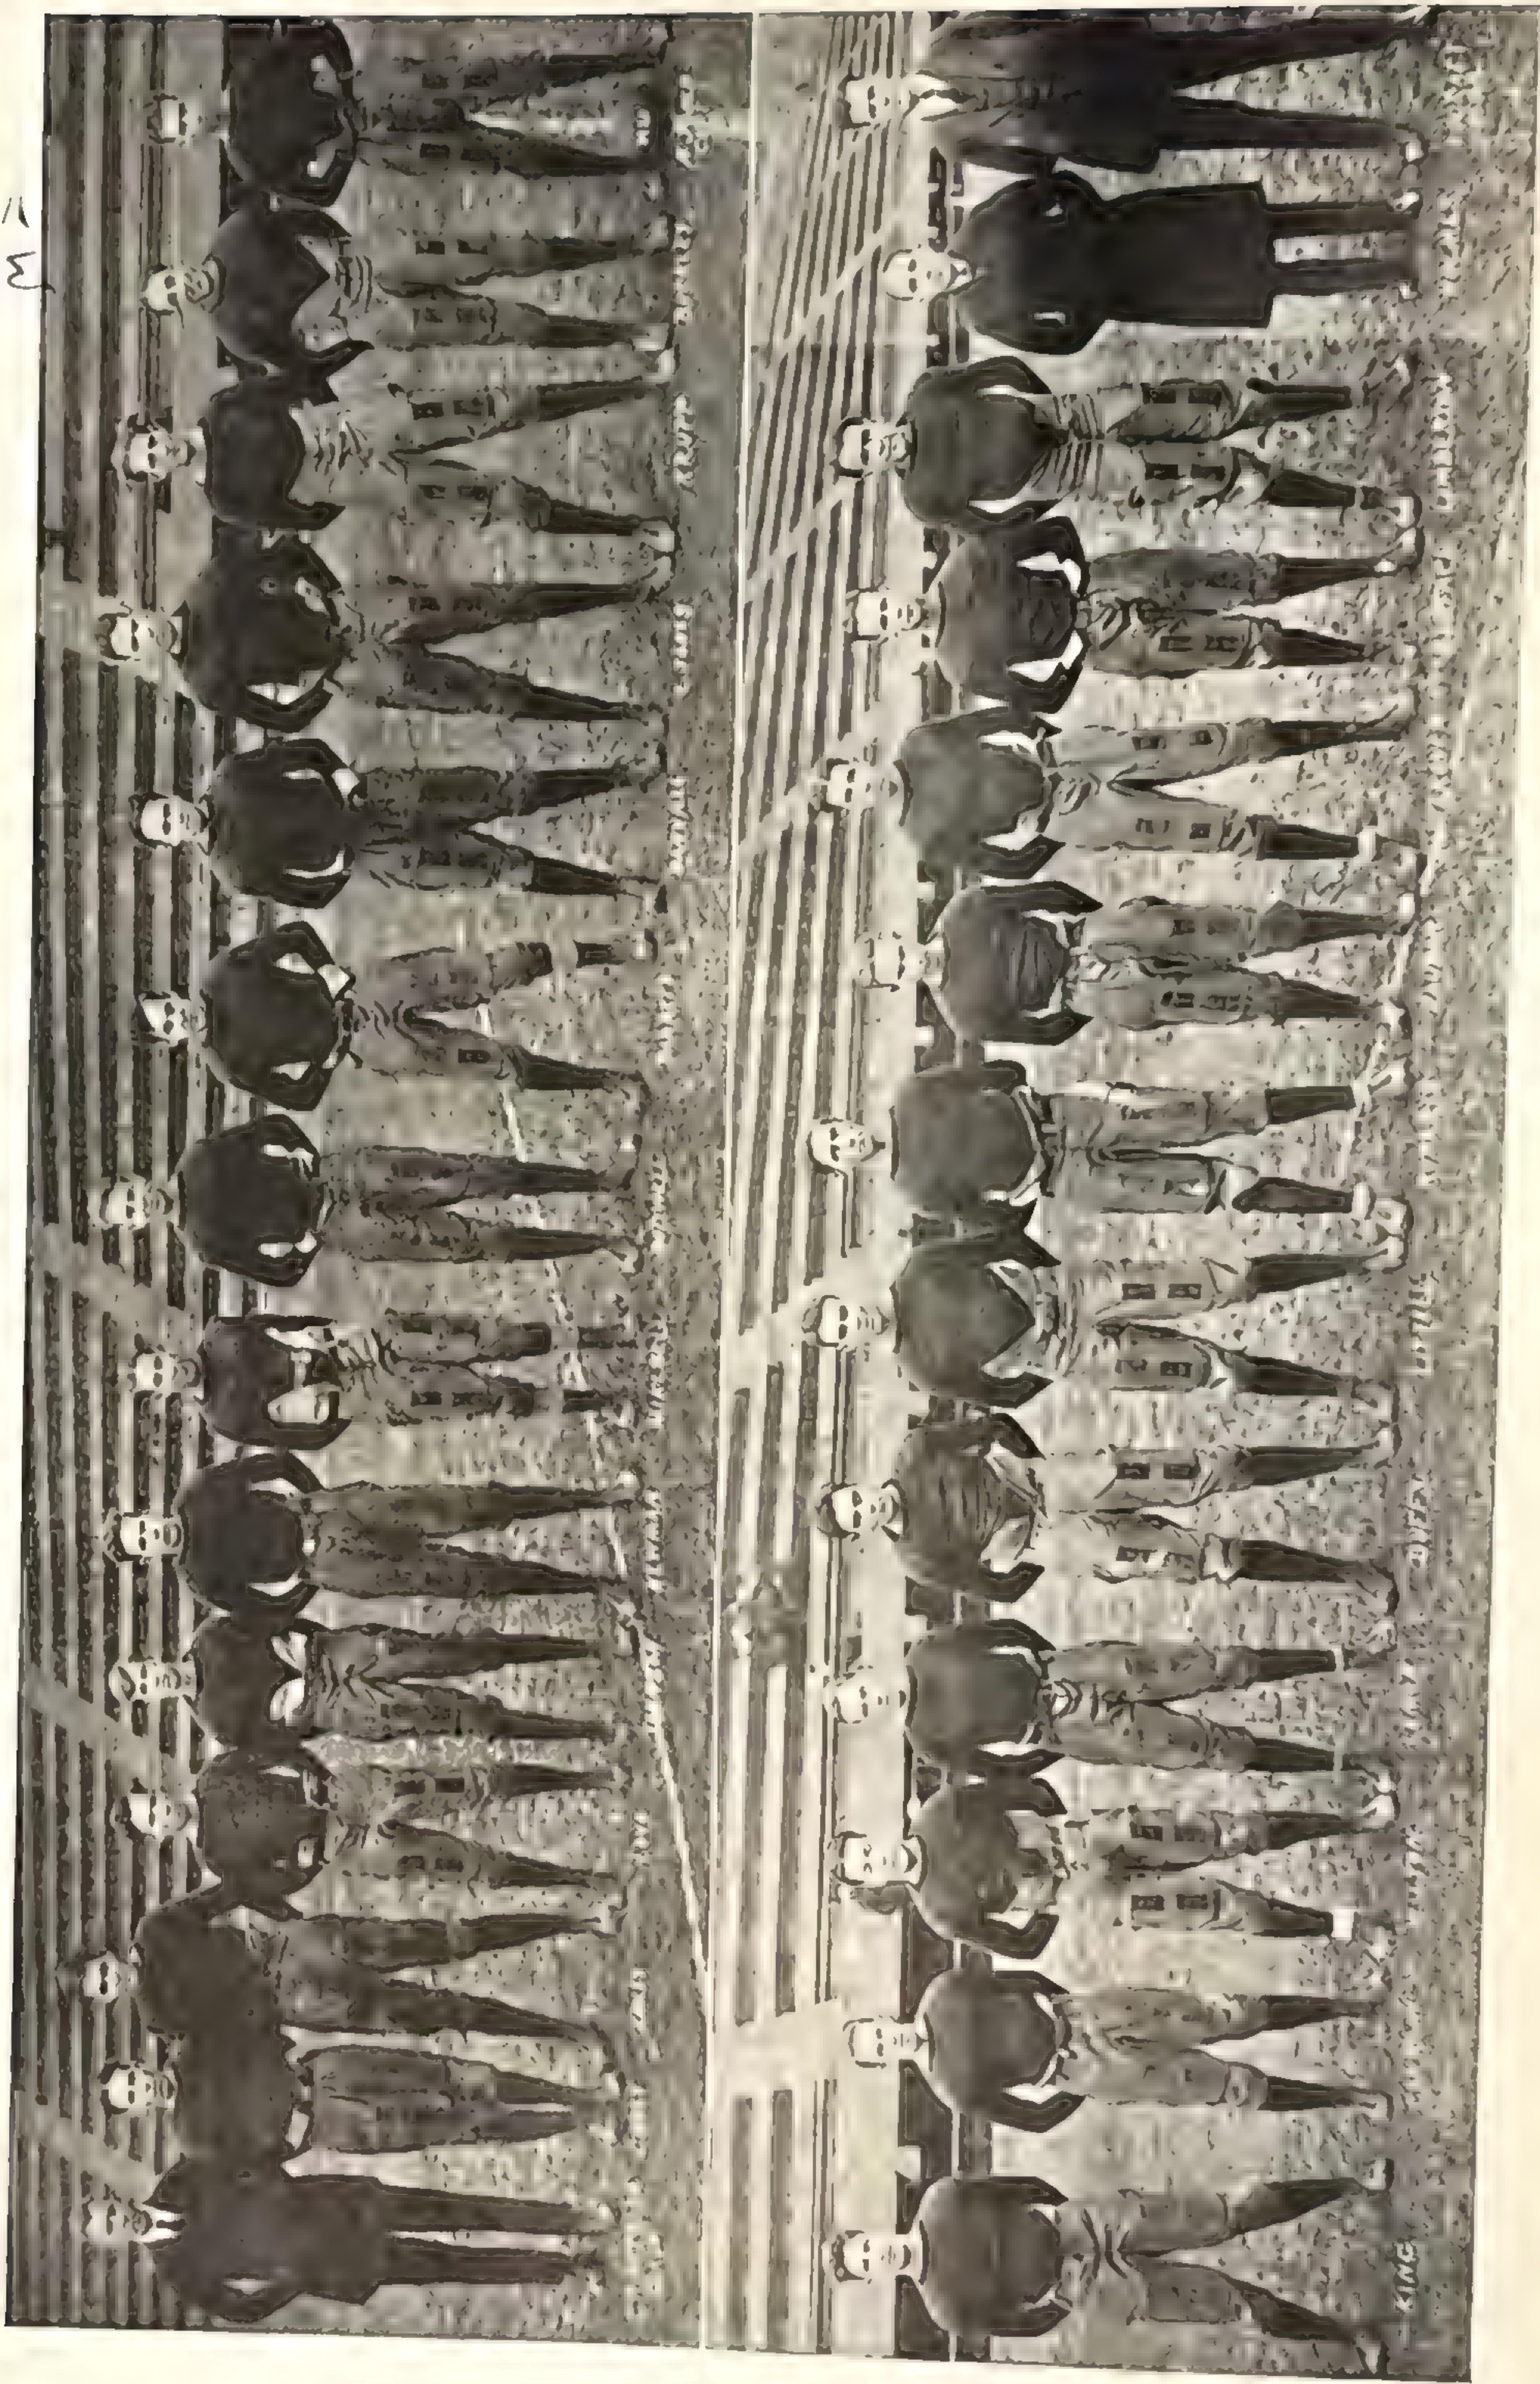

AGNLETAS

J. French.

BOYS AND GIRLS

W. Buckley's

Football

JAMES LEMON
WILLIAM CARTER

Captain.
Manager.

NEVER before has the old Central fighting spirit been better exemplified than by the football eleven of 1920. Although by a few inches it failed, for the first time in four years, to bring home the championship, it brought honor and glory enough to fill the cup, and therein was successful.

With "Neil" Jones as Captain, five other letter-men back, and Mr. Metzler coaching, prospects were bright at the beginning of the season, and every one was looking for Central to capture her fifth successive football championship. But the fateful jinx of injuries soon overtook the team. Blow after blow was struck against the hopes and chances of the eleven, and the men were forced to fight through a hard schedule of ten games in but one of which was Mr. Metzler able to present his best line-up. The fact that only three men were able to play every game shows the great handicap that the coach and team were compelled to labor under. Besides reducing the power of the line-up, in the games, this had the effect of greatly lowering the chance for efficient team work, and all during the season the absence of the machine-like work of the teams of Mr. Metzler's supremacy was very noticeable.

However, the gloomy days after the discouraging scoreless tie with Western, and before the Tech game, found the boys undaunted and determined, and with the prospects of the strongest line-up for the game, their spirits rose to a high pitch. Meanwhile Tech had developed an unusually strong team, and, when November 24 rolled around, the Manual Trainers were heavy favorites to beat Central and thereby capture the championship of the Washington Scholastic League.

After one of Mr. Metzler's great "before the game" talks, our strongest possible combination went on the field filled with Central fight and Central spirit that made it almost unbeatable, and not only played our old foes to a standstill, but outplayed them, to their great surprise. When the final whistle blew, Central had the ball on Tech's one-foot line with two downs to go, and the highly lauded Seventh Streeters were lucky to get a 7-7 tie. Tech was voted the championship because of its better record in the other games.

During the season the team played ten games, winning five of them, tying three, and losing two. The first football game ever lost on our stadium was played with Baltimore City College and later on another Baltimore team defeated us in Baltimore. The Western game resulted in a big surprise. The score for the entire season was: Central, 250, opponents, 41:

Central	0,	Charlotte Hall	0
Central	26,	Woodberry Forest	0
Central	6,	Baltimore City College	21
Central	38,	Shenandoah Valley	0
Central	12,	Baltimore Poly	14
Central	48,	Business	0
Central	6,	Eastern	0
Central	0,	Western	0
Central	109,	Walter Reed Hospital	0
Central	7,	Tech	7

The backfield men comprising the team were: Captain Jones, who also played end, Wilton, Buckley, Krupp, and Conklin; the linesmen were: King, Littell, Roberts, Lamber-ton, Duffy, E. Jones, Bodewell, Imlay, Barrett, Banville, and Love; the ends were: Captain Jones, Lemon, Surface, and Mikesell. Prominent substitutes were: Holmes, Newman, Nettekoven, and Rauber. "Bernie" Locraft was a fine manager.

Central was represented for the first time by a lightweight or 135-pound team, which, led by Captain Howard Johnson, brought more honor to Central.

Ed Buckley, halfback, was elected captain for next year, and with a good nucleus of veterans, Coach Metzler should bring the championship back where it belongs.

Track

HUGH L. JOHNSTON Captain.
KARL JARRELL Manager.

FOR twenty-three years "our school beloved" has held the supremacy of the local high schools on the track, and during that time our teams have been in the van of those representing the leading schools of the South. Whenever a Central track team has entered in meets beyond this section, creditable showing has been made, until now the Central High School is famous to followers of track athletics throughout the East. To what is this phenomenal success attributable? There is but one answer to this query—our coach, Bill Foley.

The 1920 season was a splendid success for the Central Track Team. The candidates were called early for fall training. Much was accomplished during the early months in the way of developing novices, Mr. Foley bringing out many good points in the green men. Gradually the squad rounded into form, and, at the Johns Hopkins and Catholic University indoor meets, Central men were prominent contestants for scholastic honors.

In the Johns Hopkins meet, Johnston scored the only points for Central, taking third in the century and third in the quarter. Captain Montgomery ran a fine race, finishing fourth in the 880. Two weeks later, "Monty" avenged his defeat by winning the mile at the Catholic University Meet. It was the prettiest race of Captain Montgomery's career. Johnston took second in the fifty-yard dash, and Shipley gathered in third, in the mile.

On May 7 our team was runner-up in the "C" meet given in the Central Stadium, being defeated by Stanton. Hugh Johnston won the individual point trophy, a silver loving cup. He garnered "wins" in the 100 and 220. Bob Montgomery won the mile, establishing a track record. Kern trailed Johnston in the 220 for a silver medal. Others who showed their worth were Russell, Wilton, Newby, Dunlop, S. Johnson, Newman, H. Johnson, Long, Meyers, Tyree, Jeffery, Littlepage, Corbett, and Wessels.

A week later, Montgomery, Johnston, Kern, Russell, and Jeffrey made a trip to Princeton but failed to shine in glory, largely due to the rigors of the trip.

The season was brought to a close on May 28, when Central for the twenty-third consecutive time won the Annual Inter-High School Championship Meet. Captain Johnston won the century and 220, with Kern right on his heels in both races. Hugh also won the discus and took third in the broad jump. McFadden broke two records in winning the pole vault and javelin. "Mac" also won the high jump. "Monty" took second in the mile, a duel between himself and Captain Gross of Tech. Tyree and Willett captured medals in the half-mile and mile respectively. Littlepage and Dunlap placed in the hurdles and Wilton, Jeffrey, Young, and Newby found points in the field events, Newby winning the shot-put.

The 1921 season is not well under way at this writing, but the meets which have occurred have showed the Blue-and-White's supremacy. On February 28 a large squad went to Baltimore to open the indoor season at the Johns Hopkins Meet. Melton won the century, with the limit handicap, Captain Johnston, who shows up better on the cinders than on the boards, taking third in this event, running from nearly scratch. Shipley garnered a silver medal in the 880, giving us a total of nine points, thereby winning the meet. Five days later, at the Catholic University, Central walked away in the scholastic points. Melton and Johnston took first and second respectively in the fifty-yard dash. Central had three places in the mile when Shipley, Lutz, and Buckman finished in the order named. Wessels received second in the half-mile and Meyers third in the quarter. Littlepage and Thurber took second and third respectively in the fifty-yard low hurdles.

"Bill" is now pointing the team for the Penn Relays, the Mecca of every track man. H. Johnston, Kern, Melton, Tyree, S. Johnson, Shipley, Meyers, Littlepage, Wilton, and Nettikoven are all trying for the team. Mr. Foley, in addition to the one-mile team, which will race for the championship of America, may send a two-mile team.

With the meets held by the "C" club, Pennsylvania and Lafayette on the program, together with the inter-high school spring meet, a successful season is hoped for. Three of our letter men, Kern, Tyree, and Dunlap, were out of the indoor meets on account of injuries or sickness. With these men back in addition to the stars who showed their worth in the winter meets, Central should clean up in track this year.

Boys' Basket-ball

JAMES LEMON Captain.
 EUGENE CASEY Manager.

LOSING four regulars from the 1919-1920 basket-ball team, in the persons of the Newby brothers, Wood, and Hillman, Coach Metzler was confronted with an unusually difficult problem to solve at the beginning of the basket ball season. From last year's squad there remained Lemon, forward, Dey substitute center, and Walker substitute guard. To offset the worries of Coach Metzler, McFadden began to show his worth in the court game.

Following the footsteps of the football team, the basket-ball outfit suffered for lack of luck during the high school contests, finishing next to last, the lowest position ever accepted. But disregarding the psychology of the game it must be admitted that the team was very inconsistent, performing spectacularly on one occasion and later playing in a very mediocre fashion.

Four games were lost in the High School Series by one point, a miscue on either side deciding all the contests. It was against outside teams that Mr. Metzler's proteges performed so admirably, whipping the University of Virginia Freshmen, Shenandoah, and Tome Preps.

Accidents also had some bearing on the roster of the team. Buckley, who promised to be a star basketballer, was seriously injured in the first game and forced out of further participation for the rest of the season. Morgan, another regular guard, was able to play but half the season because of illness. In order to put forth his best energy on the baseball team, Walker was forced to leave at the beginning of the season and Childress took his place and filled it in an admirable manner.

But with all the bright prospects for next year in our midst, it is almost absurd to waste time commenting on the past season's playing. Some of these prospects are McFadden, Dey, Childress, Buckley, Duffy, Morgan, Fellers, and Birthright, who will compose the Championship team of 1922.

EUGENE CASEY, Manager.

*Alice Bell
122*

Joe

Tot Carruthers.

Girls' Basket-ball

MARGERY CARRUTHERS Captain.
ELIZABETH PARAVANO Manager.

AT THE beginning of the season, section teams were formed. The various section teams played inter-section games and so determined the champion team of each year. At the close of the inter-section games the class teams were picked, and intensive practice began preparatory to the inter-class games.

The inter-class games resulted in the winning of the championship by the Senior team. The scores of the inter-class games were as follows:

Juniors 38	Sophomores 17
Seniors 68	Sophomores 11
Seniors 62	Juniors 20

These games marked the close of one of the most successful years of girl's basket-ball. The girls have shown more interest in this sport than ever before, and because of this the standard of playing has been very high. The most enthusiastic girls gained extra practice by playing as substitutes for absentees. The girls have learned, as in all other things, that practice makes perfect.

There were thirty-eight section teams in all: five Senior teams, ten Junior teams, nine Sophomore teams and fifteen Freshman teams.

A word to the wise is sufficient. To all the girls who are coming back to Central next year and to all the girls who are entering Central for the first time, we want to say, "Come out for basket-ball and put everything you have in you into it." In this manner you can show others what being a true Centralite means and also get a great deal of good and enjoyment out of it. We who are leaving this year will always look back with pleasure on our four years of basket-ball and only regret that we can not come back to play again.

Boys' Tennis

HOWELL FOWLER Captain.
 GEORGE WRIGHT Manager.

CENTRAL starts the season of 1921 with the largest Tennis Squad in its history, and if a prediction may be risked, should romp home with the championship.

The tennis team seems to have struck the "Land of Plenty," for, first there are seventy-four candidates out for the tournament; second, six letter-men are back; and third, there were thirteen candidates for assistant manager. This number was greatly reduced, however, when work started in preparing the courts for the coming season, and now only two remain, Roberts and Iglehart.

Aside from the wealth of material Central has the most pretentious schedule in the history of the high school, fourteen matches being already listed.

The schedule is as follows:

April 16	Argyle
April 20	Tome
April 23	St. Johns
April 27	Emerson
April 30	Baltimore Polytechnic
May 7	Eastern
May 11	Baltimore City College
May 13	Baltimore Polytechnic
May 17	Maryland State
May 20	Baltimore City College
May 21	Tech
May 28	Philadelphia Central
" "	Pennsylvania University Freshmen
June 4	Western

The men who seem to have the best chance of making up the team this year are Fowler, Cap.; Dudley, Phillips, Sickler, Thurtell, Shoemaker, McGuire, Goff, Campbell, and Cullen.

Besides all this we have the best of managers, George Wright, who is responsible for the unusual number of matches.

Girls' Tennis

HELEN SOMMERS Manager.

ALTHOUGH the girls do not have interscholastic contests, the individual and inter-class competition among them is strong. In tennis, especially, is this noteworthy, for the fall and spring tournaments are well supported, and there has been a great increase in the number of participants within the last year.

Girls' tennis here at Central may then be called a "live wire" interest, and so it should be. The spirit of the girls is fine. The equipment is complete. We have three courts just outside our doors and a generous supply of racquets and balls. We have two splendid leaders in our faculty advisers, Miss Alice J. DuBreuil, and our athletic coach, Miss Elsie Sanders. "C" is given to the winner and runner-up of the singles tournament and to the winners of the doubles tournament.

In the Spring of 1920 the doubles tournament was won by the sophomores, Katherine Franks and Winifred Faunce, who played a fine hard game against the juniors, Edith Claude and "Jackie" French. The under-classmen distinguished themselves by putting up a good fight against the older girls. It may be said here that the doubles tournament is run off entirely by classes until the semi-finals. Winners of class matches receive numerals, but only the final winners of all years win their "C."

Last fall many new girls came out, and in the tournament the freshmen triumphed. Virginia Morgan won, Jacqueline French, a senior, following as runner-up.

Time has slipped by, and we are now on the eve of our spring matches. Girls are already signed up, and, as we have plenty of excellent material, there will be close competition and keen interest.

For the past three seasons all tournament matches have been played on the Euclid Tennis Courts loaned to us through the courtesy of the Euclid Club and through the influence of Mrs. Newby.

Tennis is supported by true-blue Central girls who have the Central spirit of good sportsmanship and her motto, "Steadfast of Purpose," at heart.

HELEN SOMMERS, Manager.

Boys' Swimming

EVERETT RICHARD Captain.
 HARVEY MANSFIELD Acting Manager.

THE swimming team enjoyed a remarkably successful season this year. It won the dual meets with Augusta Military Academy, at Staunton, Va., at Friends School, in Baltimore, Baltimore City College, here, and also won the South Atlantic Inter-scholastic Championships at Baltimore, for the third consecutive time, which gives us permanent possession of the cup offered by the Baltimore Athletic Club. In the National Championships at the University of Pennsylvania we were in too fast company, and did not score a point. In a meet with the Navy plebes at Annapolis we were again out-classed; Baltimore City College, in a return meet, turned the tables and defeated us.

At the beginning of the year, in the class meets, the sophomores won the series of meets, with the juniors second, freshmen third, and seniors bringing up the rear.

Captain Richard, star breast stroker, and Lyman, our best fancy diver, were both entered in the South Atlantic Senior Championships at Baltimore, March 19, and both placed, Richard third and Lyman fourth.

There were only three seniors on the team, Captain Richard, Fisher and Rosenfeld. Richard, who is the best breast-stroker in this section, swam well all the season, and lowered the scholastic record by $\frac{2}{3}$ of a second at the South Atlantic Championships in Baltimore.

Of the other fellows, among the best in the dashes were Noyes, Stolley, Coles, Darnall, Arrington, and Satterfield. In the fancy diving were Lyman and Fisher; in the 220 yards, Yung Kwai, Kreuger, and Chester; in the breast stroke, Richard, Fay, Cohen, and Moulton; in the plunge for distance, Fisher, Rosenfeld, and Jones; and in the back stroke, Stolley, Howenstein, and Lenovitz.

Noyes, besides being a member of the relay which got second place in the scholastic championships, won the 100 yard dash within 1 second of the scholastic record. Stolley, anchor man on the fastest relay Central ever had, is also the fastest 50-yard man ever on a Central team.

HARVEY C. MANSFIELD, Acting Manager.

Lillian ...
 Dorothy Kemball.
 Gertrude Sanders.

Gertrude
 Kemball.

Peggy Hunt

Girls' Swimming

CATHERINE HOUGH Captain.
 VESTA GOODWIN Manager.

ONE look at this year's team should be enough to convince the most skeptical of the fact that it is the best that has ever been produced here. Our achievements are varied, and our efforts have often been crowned with success.

To begin with, there is the excellent support that the leaders have given Miss Moody in teaching non-swimmers. By giving individual attention to the girls, a great many more can learn to swim. It is sometimes convenient to know how to swim, and swimming is always a pleasurable pastime; so it is a great advantage to have the opportunity which the girls at Central have to acquire this accomplishment.

World Life-Saving Alliance examinations were held again this year, and now there are very few leaders who can not display these badges for proficiency in the various tests of life-saving. The campaign to make swimming safer by teaching more generally the rescue of the drowning is highly commendable, and we should feel proud that our school is taking so prominent a part in this enterprise.

Our three leaders' meets reached a higher standard than ever before, in all branches of swimming and in diving, but especially in the number of girls who could swim the Australian crawl stroke well.

The girls who have won their "C's" in this sport, of course deserve a great deal of credit for their ability and for their services to the school, in the practical aid in teaching as well as for the glory reflected on Central by them. But to quote Miss Moody, the whole group of leaders merits the highest possible praise for the good work it has done. We wish to add that it is Miss Moody to whom the real honors should be awarded, for she has made the team what it is by her constant efforts on our behalf.

We who are graduating leave behind us our heartiest wishes for the success of the long line of future swimming teams.

CATHERINE HOUGH, Captain.

Baseball

JAMES LEMON Captain.
 HOWARD JOHNSON Manager.

FROM the showing made up to date, Central should have a championship nine. Although the team is not composed of individual stars, it works like a well-oiled machine. The school is well fortified this year with pitchers. Krupp, Walker, and Brinkman are left over from last year's nine, while Germaine, Edelin, and Kitchen give promise of developing into stellar hurlers. The team is captained by Jimmie Lemon, who holds down first base in wonderful style. Buckley is working behind the bat with Love as his understudy. The rest of the team is composed of Davis, second base; Rauber, short stop; Dye, third base; Dunlap, left field; Roberts, right field, and Cummings, center field. There are also many second string men who give promise of breaking into this line-up; for Mooney, Cook, Beck, Childress, and Forte are performing well on the second team. Coach Menefee, formerly a Central High School athlete, puts his chargers through their daily grind, and is whipping the team into shape for the coming games. Much credit should also be given to Dr. White, formerly a pitcher for the Chicago White Sox, who has sacrificed a great deal of his time in order to keep our pitching staff in shape. Both of these men know all the fine points of baseball from A to Z, and it will not be their fault if we do not have a championship team. Dr. White and Mr. Menefee have won their way into all of the boys' hearts by their sincere willingness to sacrifice anything for the team. This team has one of the hardest schedules ever made up, and some of the strongest nines that the team plays this year are: Staunton, Navy Plebes, Georgetown Reserves, Baltimore City College, Johns Hopkins Freshmen, Baltimore Poly, Tome, and Shenandoah Valley Academy. The other high schools have exceptionally strong nines this year, but Central is doing her best to bring the disbands.

HOWARD R. JOHNSON, Manager.

Margery Carruthers

Geo. J. Jones

OFFICERS OF THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

GEORGE J. JONES	President.
MARGERY CARRUTHERS	Vice President.
JOHN B. CULLEN	Secretary.
S. T. KIMBLE	Treasurer.

Boys' Rifle

MARCELLUS STOW Captain.
MR. HARRY BURROUGHS Manager.

WITH one or two exceptions rifle shooting is probably the least known sport at Central, but for those who do not seek the "limelight" it is the most interesting. While there is not the customary spectacular playing before an audience, there is ample opportunity for many interesting times. There are many matches throughout the winter and spring. The first match begins in February and is continued for ten weeks, one target being shot each week by each of ten members of the team. This is not a local affair but is shot in competition with all the high schools of the United States. Following this match are the Indoor Interscholastic Match, the match for the Individual Championship of the District, and the Stokes' Cup Match. At the close of these events the outdoor shooting, which includes the following matches, is begun: the Outdoor Interscholastic Match, the Outdoor Individual Championship and the outdoor stage of the Stokes' Cup Match. At the conclusion of these matches, members of the team are eligible to unlimited outdoor practice in preparation for the try-outs for the D. C. Civilian Team, which is sent to Camp Perry, Ohio, at Government expense to compete against teams representing all the States of the Union. In 1919 there were five Central boys on the team, and in 1920 there were three. This year several new members have good prospects of obtaining places on this team.

By a special act of Congress the high schools of Washington are allowed an unlimited supply of ammunition, and the War Department issues a number of rifles so there is little expense connected with this sport.

At the time this article was written no matches had been completed so no results are announced, but the prospects looked very good for the majority of the matches. We have six members of last year's team shooting this year; they are: Artois, Everett, Greeley, Rider, Stow, and Veitch. The new men are showing up remarkably well: McDill, Crockett, Ninas, Brinkman, and Hartshorn.

MARCELLUS H. STOW, Captain.

Edith Claude

K. V. Edmonston '21

Claude

Sibyl Shawmaker

Girls' Rifle

EDITH CLAUDE Captain.
 KATHERINE EDMONSTON Manager.

THIS year has witnessed the successful launching of Girls' Rifle at Central. In a remarkably short time, what seemed only a doubtful experiment has become a permanently established interest in the school. The Girls' Rifle Corps has endeavored to instruct as many girls as possible in the use of firearms, to develop a team of expert marksmen; to encourage fair play and better scholarship; and to stimulate a greater interest in rifle shooting. Up to the present time one hundred seventy-two girls have been taught how to shoot. This has been largely due to their own efforts, as perseverance and regular attendance on their part have made possible the handling of so large a group. As practically all of the girls were beginners, the members of the Boys' Rifle Team acted as instructors.

Central is now represented by a team of which she can be proud. It proved its merit in the first match—that with the Girls' Team of Eastern High School—by winning with a perfect score of two hundred fifty points. Other matches have been planned during the spring and there is every indication that the last performance will be repeated. A series of inter-class matches is going to be held among the upperclassmen, for which numerals will be awarded. A number of the girls who have made high scores have organized themselves into a Winchester Junior Corps Unit and are competing for the individual medals which are offered. The "C" awards were very difficult this year as more than fifteen girls have made perfect scores and eleven of them have done such consistently good work that it was extremely hard to eliminate five. A high standard was set for this first team as it in a large measure governs all of Central's future Girls' Rifle Teams.

Much of the success of the Girls' Rifle Corps is due to three junior assistant managers: Sallie Burklin, Edna Kilpatrick, Sophia Waldman. The interest shown and the work done by these girls have been untiring.

KATHERINE V. EDMONSTON, Manager.

Frederic Artois
Alfred Elliot
Hugh Everett

John Barrett
Augustus Bodwell
Edward Buckley
Paul Conklin
Edward Duffy
Miles Imlay

Harrison Dey

Margery Carruthers
Lillian Duff

Paul Conklin

Winifred Faunce

Perrin Mangan

Margaret Bowie
Katherine Edmonston
Jacqueline French

Edward Buckley
John Davis

Norris Chipman
Edward Dunlap
Hugh Johnston

RIFLE (BOYS)

John Greeley
Claude Hudspeth

FOOTBALL

Edward Jones
Neilson Jones
Henry King
Frank Krupp
Ben Lamberton
James Lemon
William Littell

BASKETBALL (BOYS)

James Lemon

BASKETBALL (GIRLS)

Alice Ewers

TENNIS (BOYS)

Donald Dudley
Howell Fowler

TENNIS (GIRLS)

Katherine Franks
Jacqueline French

SWIMMING (BOYS)

SWIMMING (GIRLS)

Cora Gaskins
Katherine Hawley
Catherine Hough

BASEBALL

Harrison Dey
James Lemon

TRACK

Willis Kern
John Littlepage

Harold Rider
Marcellus Stow
Albert Veitch

Bernard Locraft
Philip Love
Walter Mikesell
Earl Roberts
Frank Surface
Craig Wilton

Channing Walker

Jacqueline French
Alice Speiden

Donald Sickler

Virginia Morgan

Everett Richard

Wilma Jerman
Helena Smith
Louisa Whelpley

Earl Roberts
Channing Walker

Leslie McFadden
David Tyree
Craig Wilton

NOTE: Actual wearers of the "C" to April first, 1921.

EE

MILITARY

BRIGADE AND REGIMENTAL STAFFS

ROBERT C. LUDLUM, Colonel

WILLIAM CAREY, Major

HAROLD WHEELER, Captain

HUGH EVERETT, Captain

JOHN J. MURPHY, Captain

DONALD COTTRELL, Major

GUSTAVE RING, Major

COOPER RHODES, Lieutenant

BRUCE GANNAWAY, Lieutenant

RICHARD WICK, Lieutenant

The Regiment

THREE cheers for Central's work this year in the Cadet Corps! We feel that a body of cadets has never before derived more good from the organization than they have this year. Every major, captain, lieutenant, sergeant, corporal, and private has worked shoulder to shoulder to bring the flag back to Central. While they have been doing this, the corps as a whole have benefited by their efforts and have been adding to their reputation as the best body of High School Cadets in the United States.

The cadet organization was started early and efficiently. Uniforms were obtained several months before the usual time, which, besides satisfying the cadets, gave the corps a better appearance while drilling. As the Corps had a capable man in charge of the quartermaster department, the equipment was issued earlier and was in better condition than it has been for many years.

A board of military advisers was formed on account of the increased amount of work, to assist the officers in disciplining the men and keeping the many and growing records.

This is really the first year that Lieutenant Day has had a chance to show his ability as a military instructor. The Cadet Corps has already shown its advancement towards greater efficiency and will do so as long as Lieutenant Day remains in charge. Military hikes were inaugurated, and sham battles will once more take an important part in the training of the cadets. Many other plans have been made to better the Corps in the years to come, and we hope they may be carried out successfully. A summer camp was formed for the training of future cadet officers in the rudiments of regular camp life. Cadets are expected to obtain much practical good from this camp. On account of the increase in the size of the Corps in the last few years, arrangements were made so that a military adviser selected from the army would be placed at each high school.

The two-shift system kept the companies from filling their blank files in February. Through the generous support of Mr. Maurer and the faculty an entirely new company was formed which has drilled in the morning while the rest of us were in school.

The interest that some of Central's girls have taken in the Cadet Corps this year must at least be mentioned. An immense silk, hand-embroidered flag was designed and constructed to be used as the First Regiment's regimental colors. The construction of the flag involved a very large amount of hard, tedious work. The girls were somewhat compensated for their labors on the occasion when they presented the flag to the regiment. After a very impressive parade "to the Colors," the Brigade was called to attention on the White Lot and the flag was presented to the First Regiment. Many people were present from the foreign legations at the spectacular presentation.

Several very high honors have been paid to the Corps this year. At the inauguration of the President the Cadet Corps was the guard of honor to the President. This honor has been shared by only one other organization in the United States, and that organization is West Point. The officers of the Corps this year had the unusual honor of having their commissions presented by the second in command of the United States armies, General John J. Pershing.

The result of the tremendous increase in the cost of the uniform was a decrease in the number of companies at Central from ten to nine. However, nothing has stopped or ever will stop the traditional Central spirit from showing itself proudly as it always has done on the competitive drill field.

COLONEL ROBERT C. LUDLUM,
Commander, High School Cadets.

SENIOR OFFICERS OF COMPANIES A AND B

SENIOR OFFICERS OF COMPANIES C AND D

Senior Officers of Companies

COMPANY A

Paul Kiel, Captain
Colton Montague, First Lieutenant
Warren Sanders, Second Lieutenant

COMPANY B

Edwin Yates, Captain
Victor Long, First Lieutenant
Howard Cross, Second Lieutenant
Nelson Meeds, First Sergeant
Albert Veitch, Second Sergeant

COMPANY C

Charles Mitchell Bliss, Captain
Richard Wick, First Lieutenant
Alfred Clarke, Second Lieutenant
Alan Coe, First Sergeant

COMPANY D

George Wilson, Captain
Bliss Austin, First Lieutenant
Edward Proctor, Second Lieutenant
Donald Bliss, First Sergeant

Company Briefs

COMPANY A

Company A is now on its last lap. Its goal is first place in the Competitive Drill, and the fine set of men in the company cause me to hope and almost expect that A will bring first honors back to Central in June.

PAUL J. KIEL, Captain.

COMPANY B

Every man in Company B has done his best to uphold the traditions of the Corps and the honor of his school and his company; and of this fact may justly be proud. Hard work and faithful endeavor have been their goal, and they have reached it, too.

EDWIN L. YATES, Captain.

COMPANY C

Company C has been a source of pride to the officers and the school all the year. Whatever the outcome of the drill we will have the satisfaction of knowing that the company has been a success. It has had pep and has shown an unusual amount of cooperation among the officers and men.

CHARLES MITCHELL BLISS, Captain.

COMPANY D

Company D throughout the entire year has shown every element essential to a genuine Central company. Its never-failing spirit has been apparent on all occasions and has been exceedingly gratifying.

GEORGE HILTON WILSON, Captain.

SENIOR OFFICERS OF COMPANIES E, F AND G

SENIOR OFFICERS OF COMPANIES K AND M

Senior Officers of Companies

COMPANY E

David Tyree, Captain
Harry Johnson, First Lieutenant
William Ryon, Second Lieutenant
Willis Fiske, First Sergeant

COMPANY F

Clarence Porter, Captain
Frederick Artois, First Lieutenant
Linden Deuterman, Second Lieutenant
Raymond Pruitt, First Sergeant

COMPANY G

Harrison Kildare, Captain
Philip Edwards, First Lieutenant
Carlton Schenken, Second Lieutenant
Harold Fowler, First Sergeant
William Montgomery, Second Sergeant

COMPANY K

Joseph Ludewig, Captain
Lyle Ohlander, First Lieutenant
John Cullen, Second Lieutenant
Dale Fisher, First Sergeant
Kendall Hoyt, Second Sergeant
Ernest Robbins, Third Sergeant

COMPANY M

Frank Severance, Captain
Cooper Rhodes, First Lieutenant
Bruce Gannaway, Second Lieutenant
Lloyd Hyatt, First Sergeant

Company Briefs

COMPANY E

Throughout the year the officers of Company E have felt that the men were right behind them. When all is said and done, I believe every member of the company will have that satisfied feeling of having been an essential part of a company of which to be proud.

DAVID MERRILL TYREE, Captain.

COMPANY F

Every cadet of Company F may feel proud that he has been associated with the fifty men of this company. They have been true High School Cadets. Such a group of men can not have failed to benefit by their year of earnest endeavor.

CLARENCE HENRY PORTER, Captain.

COMPANY G

Win or lose, the fight that the men of Company G have put up for school and company will make them better Centralites and better citizens. This has been a year of splendid effort with worthy competitors.

HARRISON G. KILDARE, Captain.

COMPANY K

The steady, hard work of every man in Company K has been indicative of real Central spirit. The men have stuck behind their officers from the "Fall In" to the "Dismissal," and have shown that their training has been to advantage.

JOSEPH WILLIAM LUDEWIG, Captain.

COMPANY M

Our late start has been a great handicap to us, but the men have shown spirit which has not been equaled by the other companies this year. They have made many sacrifices for the company and have worked hard every drill day. The officers are highly gratified with the work and have big hopes for "Central's Rookie Company."

FRANK ALGERNON SEVERANCE, Captain.

Till where the sun, with softer fires,
Looks on the vast Pacific's sleep
The children of the pilgrim sires
This hallowed day like us shall keep.

FROM THE TWENTY-SECOND OF DECEMBER (1620)
WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT.

THE CLASSES

The February Class Poem

We who are soon to leave these halls
Are dreaming of our future fate,
Yet it is fitting, ere we go,
Our Central's past to contemplate.

With reverence roll back the years,
And reach her humble place of birth;
To-day a lordly crown she wears,
The fit reward of royal worth.

Though not without misgivings keen—
For rough the road that lay before—
The lives of those first Centralites
Assured the victory in store:

Assured it by their earnest work,
Assured it by their sportsmanship,
Till far and wide their fame was spread
With songs of praise on every lip.

The force of life has made us grow;
Our building here is unsurpassed:
We owe it to those Central men
Who planned and labored in the past.

And on us may the mantle fall
Of those brave spirits that are gone,
Who won the fight for higher things
As all such fights are fought and won.

We pay our tribute to the past,
Then turn we to our opening way;
The torch that lightens up our path;
They lit, and beautified our day.

ADA COE.

February Class History, 1921

NOW that we are about to complete our high school career, we pause to look back at the principal events of the four happy years we have spent in Central. In February, 1917, when we entered this great school, we were the first February class in the new building. At that time we had eight sections, but we have been sorted and sifted until now two sections represent the survival of the fittest. This fact in itself lends distinction to this class as other mid-year classes never had more than one section at commencement time.

In our Freshman year this remarkable institution, the new Central High School building was dedicated. We are the last class that witnessed the memorable occasion when the realization that we were connected with the New Central caused our hearts to swell with pride. We have enjoyed to the utmost all its up-to-date equipment, including the stadium, swimming pool, gymnasiums, and, dare I say, above all, the lunch-room.

In our second year we shared in the great and glorious joy of Central's capturing all scholastic honors. In our third year the class began to feel its importance, and took a more active part in school life. The opening of our last year was marred by the sad loss of Mr. Wilson, whom every Centralite will honor and revere as long as Central stands, a monument to his memory. Under the capable guidance of Mr. Maurer and his assistants, we have at last reached our goal.

We have the honor of graduating in the winter of 1920-1921, a season rich in memories of the past. Our last semester coincides with the tercentenary celebration of the landing of the Pilgrims in 1620. Our class contributed its share in the commemoration of that event by helping produce a most appropriate play, The Rose of Plymouth Town, Central's tribute to the Pilgrims.

The individual members of the class who have taken part in athletics and in other school interests have done their work well. Our social activities have been confined to a very successful Senior dance given last Thanksgiving. In all our work, we have tried hard to keep the spirit of Central alive. We leave behind us the hope that our efforts have not been in vain, and I suppose that in company with other classes of the past we carry forth the feeling that we are now about to set the world on fire.

BERNARD L. LOCRAFT.

FEBRUARY CLASS OFFICERS

FRANCIS TRAPP, President
 ETHEL RIDINGS, Vice-President
 HAZEL BAYNE, Secretary
 WILLIAM JAMES BERRY, Treasurer

GORDON KLINE, Valdictorian
 ADA COE, Poet
 BERNARD LOCRAFT, Historian
 EVELYN RITCHIE, Prophet

IRVING WALL, Prophet

The nerve that never relaxes, the eye that never blanches, the thought that never wanders—these are the masters of victory.

EDMUND BURKE.

HERBERT ABRAMSON

Here is a friend of all. Besides his studies in school, "Herb" has found time for the cadets and music. He is a promising young violinist. His ambition is to receive a Yale degree. We are sure that he will succeed.

WILLIAM FRANCES BANVILLE

Football "C," 1920
Second Lieutenant Co. B, 1920
Review Staff, 1920
Associate Editor, Brecky, 1920
Brecky Staff, 1921

"Roscoe," like all slightly stout people, is inclined to mirth and humor. His jovial countenance may account for the fact that he is continually in favor with the fairer sex. But he can be serious. If you don't believe it, watch him play foot ball.

JOHN LANGLEY BARRETT

"C" Football, 1920

Johnny is one of the best-natured fellows in Central. His curly hair, winning ways, and dancing ability have won him many friends here. His hobby is "Ladies"! After he gets an M. D. we assure him barrels of success.

HAZEL MAE BAYNE

*Scholarship
Class Secretary*

To know Hazel is to love her. She is one of the truest, sweetest girls here, and her willingness to do anything for anybody has endeared her to all. In short, Hazel is the best friend any one could possibly have.

BERNICE AMELIA BECK

Many of us will be frequent visitors to the Corcoran Art Gallery when Bernice, the great artist, gives an exhibition of her beautiful paintings. She will be sure to have some wonderful views of the navy. Ask her why!

CATHERINE CECELIA BELT

Catherine is one of our quiet seniors. She has passed four happy and successful years at Central, and she intends to make the world more lively when she goes out into it. Her ambition is to become an expert stenographer.

WILLIAM JAMES BERRY

Class Treasurer

Our history star came to Central two years ago from Michigan. His curly hair and jolly smile have won for him many friends among both sexes. His greatest ambition is to go to Iowa State University to study law.

DANIEL THOMAS BIRTWELL, JR.

Tommy is a regular fellow,
And he's very nice 'tis true;
He never skips his lessons;
That's why he's here with you.

LORENE SHEPHERD BROWN

Bookkeeper of Lunch Room

Unlike her name, Lorene Brown is very fair—fair not only in complexion, but in disposition and deportment. Perhaps this is one of the many reasons why her teachers view her with favor and why she claims so many friends.

HERBERT SCOTT BYERLY
Review Staff, 1920
Bulletin Staff, 1921

Here's "Bob," "le petit diable," who roams the halls with a smile and a word for every one. "Bob" is going to Penn., where we feel sure that his bow ties will be greatly appreciated and that he will grow more "collegiate" each day.

ELIZABETH HELEN CHALMERS

To be called "Dr. Elizabeth Helen Chalmers" is the ambition of our friend, Elizabeth. However, we simply can't call her anything so dignified, and so we call her "Tibbie." Tibbie is much more suitable anyway. Don't you believe me?

ELSIE ESTELLE CHAMBERLIN

Elsie, known to many as "Its," came to Central as a "rookie." During her four years here she has played basketball and tennis. She has two great ambitions—first, to be an interior decorator; and second, to be a tennis shark.

ADA BALL COE

Class Poet

If you ever feel blue, ask to be introduced to Ada. You will be cured instantly, because Ada is that kind of a girl. According to her marks, the teachers seem to like Ada almost as much as we do.

MARJORIE RODMAN COLCORD

Swimming "C," 1919
Life-Saving Emblem, 1920

This New England maiden alias Jerry, upon first acquaintance appears quiet and demure as her Puritan ancestors, but when you know her better, you'd be surprised! Her greatest ambition is to be a private secretary to some celebrity.

JULIA COOKE

Lindquist
 Julia is one of the prettiest and most attractive girls of our class. She left us for a while to attend Miss Madeira's school, but came back to graduate from Central. She intends to continue her studies next year at Goucher College.
Waterford Va

Marjorie Colcord

Mrs. Gardner
KATHERINE SUSANNE DAY

*Scholarship
Review Staff*

The most winsome "Day" of the year blew in when Katherine arrived. Katherine's jollity, wit, imagination, and good nature outside the classroom, and her alertness inside have captured for her the love of her classmates and the admiration of her teachers.

MARY LOUISE DERMODY

Although she blushes like a June bride, she is not a bit bashful. Having all the charming qualities of a chic made-moiselle, she has no trouble in winning all her arguments, but who wouldn't want to lose to Mary Louise?

OSCAR IRVING DODEK

*Review Staff, 1919-1920
Bulletin Staff, 1919-1920*

Our old friend "Ozark," whose motto is "On with the dance"! Oscar's plan, other than attending George Washington, is to become principal of a charm school. We wonder if a certain some one at Normal School will enroll? Oh Oscar!

CONSTANCE GLADYS DONOHUE

Here's to Connie, the quiet little, black-haired girl with the laughing blue eyes! Her favorite sports are dancing and eating. We often wonder why Connie has so diligently studied the science of cookery, and declares she likes it!

WANDA MIRIAM DURKEE

"Duck," as she is known by the six of us, has only been at Central two and a half years, but her winsome smile and sunny nature have won her many friends. Her greatest ambition is to become a domestic science expert.

ANNE CLAIRE FLANAGAN

Although Ann was late in seeing Central's advantages, she has won many friends during the short time she has been with us. Her chief ambition is to become a second Mrs. Vernon Castle, for in that direction her talent lies.

ANNIE EVELYN FOSTER

Anne, like all of us, is loath to leave Central, and especially her "playmates." Her favorite study has been "long chapels." Anne is very musical, and we will not be surprised to see her blossom forth as a second Padrewski.

ROBERT LESLIE GIBSON

Everybody knows Leslie, even though he is the youngest and smallest in the senior class. Leslie insists that it is quality, not quantity, that counts. He was a first sergeant in the cadets. His aim is to be a famous lawyer.

JOHN ALBERT GLICK

Though "Al" aspires to go to Annapolis, his friends all agree that he should follow the footlights. Immaculately dressed, plus a winning smile, Al has no difficulty in finding a companion to enjoy the fleeting moments of his lunch hour.

JOSEPH EDWARD GRAY

"Joe," who has not been influenced by the fair sex, is a quiet, studious fellow. He has had a terrible struggle with Latin, which he finally won. That is "Joe," overcoming obstacles. His ambition is "to be something worth while."

RICHARD LUCILE HAWKINS

This demure maiden came to Washington from Tennessee two years ago. Since then she has become well known at Central, and made many friends. She is a typical blue-eyed Southern girl, and you know what that means without further explanation.

ELIZABETH KEMP HAYNES

Cute and petite, Betsy has occupied a large place in the hearts of her friends at Central. Her work at the piano has won admiration, and her talent in this direction may lead to a career as an artist.

EARL EDWARD HOLMES

Earl is a dancing shark;
He knows the latest step;
He never digs at lessons,
Lest he should lose his "pep."

To judge by Earl's good dancing
He surely has the stuff
To win his way through college,
Unless they call his bluff.

MARJORIE ALICE JOHNS

Marjorie, the rookiest of
"rookies," has developed into one of the most competent authorities on Central affairs.
Wilson Normal has its lures, for she is sure that she will attend the next Teachers' Institute.
And they say that Caesar was ambitious!

NEVIN BENJAMIN JOHNSON

Ben is the fellow who put the "fan" in movie fan. He operates the projecting machine at the Savoy Theater, and finds things just one turn after another. We all know him for his pleasing personality, which even seems to influence the teachers and their marks.

JOSEPH WELLS JONES

The chairman of our senior play committee came from Ohio.
While he has done nothing spectacular, he has, through his studious methods and quiet way of upholding the best principles of Central, left the school better for his having been there.

CHARLOTTE MARIAN KEEFER

This brown-eyed maid came to us from the arid plains of New Mexico. She intends becoming a Spanish teacher, but being also such an accomplished artist and musician, it is hard to tell at which she will be the most proficient.

MARY REBECCA KINTZ

Mary is very well known around the school as is proved by a regiment of friends. She is always ready to help, so we have all come to rely on her.
Mary's ambition is to be a nurse. We wish her every success.

FREDA KIRSTEIN

Who hasn't noticed "Fritzie's" eyes? "Fritzie" entered Central with the determination to graduate some day. Although she never allowed lessons to interfere with her pleasures, she has easily reached her goal. Her fascinating personality has won her many friends at Central.

ERNEST HOMER KLEIN

Ernest has made a name for himself by the quality of his work in mechanical drawing. He has also gained a reputation by his assistance in the staging of several plays that have been produced lately.

GORDON MACEY KLINE

*Scholarship
Valedictorian*

During his three years at Central, Kline's ability to carry heavy studies and to receive excellent grades has made him the most envied fellow in the class. He intends to study medicine at George Washington University.

BERNARD FRANCIS LOCRAFT

*Scholarship
Secretary of Athletic Association,
1919-20
"C," Manager of Football, '20
Review Staff, 1919-20, 1920-21
Class Historian*

DOROTHY HELENA LEWIS

Scholarship

Who doesn't know Dorothy? She might better be known as "Lady Mystery" because no one has been able to find out when she studies. Dot says she is willing to spend only three years at college. I wonder why!

"Bernie's" popularity has not turned his head. Nevertheless, his hair causes intense jealousy among the girls. He has won ready recognition at Central as a booster. Success will be his, if putting one's shoulder to the wheel counts.

MARIAN AGNES MCBETH

If there had been many Marian McBeths at Central, there wouldn't have been any E's left for the rest of us. Her bright eyes and sunny disposition have endeared her to the hearts of all. We wish her hearty success.

ELLA ESTELLE MCCHESNEY

Brecky Staff

Ella is mild in appearance, but further acquaintance proves her to be jolly and a good sport. Her chief ambition is to become a well-known singer. If you have ever heard her sing, you will agree that her dream will be realized.

WYNEMA JANE MCKINLEY

If you happened to see a circle of laughing girls in the corridor clustered about a small object, you could be reasonably certain that that small object was Wynema, for she certainly has been gifted with the power of making lasting friends.

GENEVIEVE MANNAKER

Genevieve is remarkably vivacious for such a quiet girl, and has a smile and witty greeting for every one. We have great expectations for her future as she is already acting the part of private secretary for one of her teachers.

HELEN DE BERRI MEADE

A little bundle of fads and fancies, sentiment and sweetness, a dance fiend and an ardent hero-worshipper—in spite of all of them, or perhaps it is because of them, Helen is a real girl and a loyal friend.

ALICE GARRETT MORRISON

Alice is one of the quiet little girls of A-8 who is working for the highest marks at both Central and the University of Maryland. She's making them, too! We are wondering what will happen when she goes to Goucher next fall.

ALBERT MUSHIER

*Brecky Staff
Bank Staff*

This wizard of finance has taken the regular four-year course in three and a half years. His winning personality has made him very popular at Central. Immediately after graduation he will enter the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

HELEN VIRGINIA NASH

Peaches and cream! That's what her complexion reminds us of. Helen's unaffected, clever, jolly personality makes us love her. She is an accomplished pianist, and is going to pursue her study of music at Oberlin. We wish you success, Helen.

WILLIAM COLEMAN O'BRIEN

"Bill" is a boy full of fine Central spirit. He has to his credit a fine scholastic record, a first sergeantcy in the cadets, and two years' service on the track squad. We predict a brilliant future for him.

AARON HARRY OSTROW

Although a late acquisition to our class, Harry's winning personality has made him one of our most popular fellows. After taking his degree at the University of Pennsylvania he expects to enter the chemical manufacturing and export business, where we surely will be proud of him. Good luck, Harry!

MILLARD FREDERICK OTTMANN

Millard is an ambitious and persevering fellow. He has many friends, although he has only been at Central three semesters. He came to us from Ohio, and we hope that he may attain honors as high as those recently awarded two Ohio citizens.

ELIZABETH ANITA PARAVANO

Elizabeth is manager
Of Basketball this year;
All the girls will guarantee
That "Libby" is a dear.

In three years and a half she did

What others do in four,
And we predict that she will win
Successes by the score.

JOHN THOMAS PATTERSON

This ambitious son of Tennessee first came to Central in the fall of 1919. Since his entry into our portals he has modified his drawl somewhat and acquired the true classic enunciation. His many friends at Central will not forget him soon.

Elizabeth Paravano

SIDNEY EIRLICH PRESSLER

Review Staff

We all know "Sid," that clever, ambitious, friendly and scholarly Centralite. His presence in the cadets was known by all who competed against him for those much-coveted medals. The letters signifying "doctor" after his name are his ambition.

JAMES ROBERT PURCELL

If you want to see a picture of virtuous industry, gaze upon his countenance. He has a fine disposition which we all envy. Jimmie's desire is to become a lawyer. We all wish him success in achieving his one ambition.

VERNA PUTNAM

Verna's ambition is to make some fellow a good wife. She has pretty light hair and deep blue eyes which make her very attractive. She is liked by every one, and I am sure that she will be missed by us all.

ETHEL MARION RIDINGS

Class Vice-President

Ethel is a rare person, being very accomplished in every art, especially in the gentle art of studying Latin at lunch time. Her ambition is to succeed at the University of Wisconsin. Knowing Ethel and her goal, we haven't any doubts

MARY COOK RIDINGS

Brecky Staff

Mary's future will be only sunshine. She is a true-blue Centralite with "ye old-time pep." Mary never quakes at "exams" or on the advisory meets—well, you know. At Wisconsin she will study hard (?) to make Central proud of her.

EVELYN MAE RITCHIE

Class Prophet

Evelyn is one of our distinguished seniors. Although the youngest member of the class, she has an excellent scholarship record, and has been a swimming leader three years. Central, however, will remember her as the dramatic star, Rose of Plymouth-town.

HELEN REGINA ROSS

Our class is proud of Helen, as a very sedate and intellectual-looking senior. She drives a car—no, she never speeds.(?) Helen has steered through four years of Latin, and we hope that she will safely steer through all other difficulties.

PAULINE SCHWALB

"Paulie's" everlasting cry at School has been, "Why worry"? She has won her way into the hearts of many Centralites with her captivating smile for all. Pauline's ambition?—oh, well, time will tell. However, we all wish you bushels of luck, "Paulie."

SARAH ELIZABETH SHERR

Sarah has found a place in the hearts of many Centralites, who know her to be a real friend and one well worth having. All will miss her at Central, especially Mr. Miller, to whom she has been acting as secretary.

HAROLD ORDELL THOMEN

Harold is a quiet sort of chap. He came from the great and prosperous State of Illinois. He has produced a large number of excellent sheets in Mechanical Drawing and achieved fame as a stage-hand in producing our spring plays.

ERDINE ROSALIND TIMBERLAKE

Erdine, whose brown eyes and beautiful hair excite no little comment, wishes to teach in the kindergarden. Her talent, however, points to a brilliant future in the field of art, but in any work we sincerely wish her unlimited success.

FRANCIS WILLIAM TRAPP

*Scholarship
Class President*

The most consistent member of the class; never ruffled, never baffled, good-natured at all times! Francis' character is naturally studious and serious, but not without a full sense of humor, essential qualities for success in his chosen field of medicine.

HAZEL ROBERTA TRUSCOTT

Tenax Propositi! In Hazel is our school motto personified. She has graduated in three and one-half years, making enviable marks throughout. Her chief ambition is to graduate from George Washington University. After this she will become an expert modiste.

MILDRED NEILL TRUSSELL

A jolly good fellow is "Min," interested in dancing, particularly; boys, somewhat; books, and lots of other things. However, she has her serious side, too, and she gets somewhere by brain-work instead of bluff—a novel method these days.

HELEN WARD TUPPER

Pretty, brunette, and sport loving! One does not need a second glance to say that. Her ambition is a secret, but we have a suspicion that it may lead to the "Little Church around the corner." We wish her great success.

IRVING ISRAEL WALL

Class Prophet

Irving hails from Buffalo, N. Y. He entered Central four years ago as a little unsophisticated "rookie." But in the course of time he has grown up and has acquired the true Central Spirit. He intends to obtain the I. L. M. Degree at college. Here's to his success.

DOROTHY WARREN

"Dot" heard the call of Central and came all the way from England to answer it. She is a star in English, and Central is assured of a dandy English teacher when "Dot" comes back, a graduate of George Washington.

JAMES BRADLEY WHITMAN

Brecky Staff

In "Brad" we have a true Centralite. He always makes "F" or near it in his subjects, has served in the cadets, and has gone out for track and basketball. He expects to take up engineering in college. Best of luck to you, Bradley, old boy!

DECEASED

JOHN SUMNER WOOD

A good all-around sport is Summer, popular, and passing as a studious fellow. He has personality plus, but persists that an L.L. D. from Harvard, is going to be the most essential stepping-stone to success.

GEORGE CHARLES WRIGHT

Manager Tennis, '21

George has the mysterious gift of always being able to obtain that for which the most of us are striving. Smiles and hearty greetings were invented, especially for him. Hail, Commander George! Annapolis is fortunate.

February Class Directory

- Abramson, Herbert, 801 Fern St.
 Banville, William Francis, 2803 Jocelyn St.
 Barrett, John Langley, 1014 B St., S. W.
 Bayne, Hazel Mae, 624 Quebec Place
 Beck, Bernice Amelia,
 The Naples, 713 Nineteenth St.
 Belt, Catherine Cecelia, 151 S St.
 Berry, William James, 1406 Eleventh St.
 Birtwell, Daniel James, Jr.,
 1325 Columbia Rd.
 Brown, Lorene Sheperd,
 3721 New Hampshire Ave.
 Byerly, Herbert Scott, 1950 Calvert St.
 Chalmers, Elizabeth Helen, 3918 Fifth St.
 Chamberlin, Elsie Estelle, 1315 Harvard St.
 Coe, Ada Ball, Beltsville, Maryland
 Colcord, Marjorie Rodman,
 2622 Thirteenth St.
 Cooke, Julia Thompson, 1249 Irving St.
 Day, Katherine Susanne, 3652 Park Place
 Dermody, Mary Louise, 4424 Ninth St.
 Dodek, Oscar Irving, 1319 Emerson St.
 Donohue, Constance Gladys, 1441 R St.
 Durkee, Wanda Miriam,
 Howard University, Washington, D. C.
 Flanagan, Anne Claire, 1700 Lanier Place
 Foster, Annie Evelyn,
 Apt. 352, The Chastleton, Sixteenth and R Sts.
 Gibson, Robert Leslie,
 2002 Franklin St., N. E.
 Glick, John Albert, 2005 First St.
 Gray, Joseph Edward,
 462 Maryland Ave., S. W.
 Hawkins, Richard Lucile, 1346 Kenyon St.
 Holmes, Earl Edward, 910 Webster St.
 Johns, Marjorie Alice, 1421 Columbia Rd.
 Johnson, Nevin Benjamin, 1109 Clifton St.
 Jones, Joseph Wells, 160 Todd Place, N. E.
 Keefer, Charlotte Miriam,
 2725 Thirteenth St., N. E.
 Kintz, Mary Rebecca,
 320 Thirteenth St., S. W.
 Kirstein, Freda, 1820 Seventh St.
 Klein, Ernest Homer, 1219 Girard St.
 Kline, Gordon Mabey, 160 Bryant St.
 Lewis, Dorothy Helena, 3828 Livingston St.
 Locraft, Bernard Francis,
 45 Rhode Island Ave., N. E.
 McBeth, Marian Agnes,
 2912 Sixteenth St., N. E.
 McChesney, Ella Estella,
 Brookland, D. C., Route No. 7, Box 145
 McKinley, Wynema Jane, Hyattsville, Md.
 Manakee, Genevieve, 119 C St., N. E.
 Meade, Helen de Berri, 1139 Twelfth St.
 Musher, Albert, 1849 Connecticut Ave.
 Nash, Helen Virginia, 122 M St.
 O'Brien, William Coleman, 1113 Tenth St.
 Ostrow, Aaron Harry, 1414 Twelfth St.
 Ottman, Millard Frederick,
 2117 Third St., N. E.
 Paravano, Elizabeth Anita,
 637 Dahlia St., Takoma Park, D. C.
 Patterson, John Thomas, 1333 Park Rd.
 Pressler, Sidney Ehrlich, 1215 Girard St.
 Purcell, James Robert, 2701 Woodley Rd.
 Putnam, Verne, Clarendon, Va.
 Ridings, Ethel Marion, 2815 Thirteenth St.
 Ridings, Mary Cook, 2815 Thirteenth St.
 Ritchie, Evelyn Mae, 1345 Monroe St.
 Ross, Helen Regina, 3520 Park Place
 Schwalb, Pauline, 1800 Seventh St.
 Sherr, Sarah Elizabeth,
 734 Third St., S. W.
 Thomen, Harold Ordell,
 1118 Staples St., N. E.
 Timberlake, Erdine Rosalind, 3122 Eighteenth St.
 Trapp, Francis William, 3510 Tenth St.
 Truscott, Hazel Roberta,
 3130 Walnut St., N. E.,
 Woodridge, D. C.
 Trussell, Mildred Neill, 1621 First St.
 Tupper, Helen Ward, 1356 Shepherd St.
 Wall, Irving Israel, 1034 Twentieth St.
 Warren, Dorothy, Silver Springs, Md.
 Whitman, James Bradley,
 2810 Twenty-seventh St.
 Wood, John Sumner, 4915 Thirteenth St.
 Wright, George Charles, 1032 Lamont St.

February Valedictory

WE HAVE come at last to the parting of the ways. The evening is drawing to a close, and it is time to say good-bye; it is time for the valedictory. This is perhaps the most serious moment of our high school career, second only to that moment when we will receive our diplomas. The steps we take in the next few months will determine what we will do with ourselves; what part we will take in the world's affairs.

Surely there is no excuse for any one's permitting himself to remain idle. We have just passed through a period which has opened countless opportunities for every wide-awake American. As one of our poets has so fitly expressed it:

"Ours is the age and land of gold,
And ours the hallowed time."

And certainly ours is a golden age for the one who wishes to advance himself. We have to-day a far greater number of opportunities than we would have had at any other period. Again ours is most assuredly a golden land. It is being sought to-day by vast throngs of immigrants who see in America a land of promise and a place for relief from the oppression of their rulers. We are indeed fortunate in having America as our native land.

The Great War which ended only two years ago has not only opened a great number of opportunities but it has also thrown no small number of very important duties upon us. Such questions as the future relations with European nations, the promotion of brotherly feeling between races, and the status of the conquered nations will not be solved in five years or ten years, but will still be open questions when our generation takes over the reins of government and business.

Opportunities come to all. But the trouble with too many of us is that we do not make anything out of them while we have them. The next moment they are gone. One man goes through life sighing for opportunities. If only he had this or that gift, or place, or position, he would do great things, he says. But with his means, his poor chances, his meager privileges, his uncongenial circumstances, his limitations, he can do nothing worthy of himself. Then another fellow comes along with like means, chances, privileges, circumstances, and he achieves noble results, does heroic things, wins for himself honor and renown. The secret is in the man, not in his environment. With the blunt sword, broken by the craven who had flung it away as unfit for use, the prince of old won his great victory. Men, alert and eager, are wanted to see and use the opportunities that lie everywhere in the most commonplace life.

It is to be remembered that success depends not upon luck but upon pluck. Difficulties will be met with, but the best way out of a difficulty is through it. The greater the difficulty the more glory in surmounting it; skilful pilots gain their reputations from storms and tempests.

This valedictory would not be complete without a few words of parting thanks and praise for our faithful teachers. The short four years which we have spent here have been fraught with many difficulties for our teaching staff. We entered this school at a time when the United States became a participant in the Great War, and we consequently experienced the bad effects of war. Great epidemics swept the country, and the schools were closed for weeks at a time. A shortage of teaching personnel, overcrowding of the schools, and numerous other obstacles were caused by the war. But despite all these hindrances our teachers have succeeded in equipping us with an education with which we are well prepared to enter upon another stage of life. To them all credit is due. To them we owe a lasting debt. Let us then in all that we do hereafter to advance ourselves, strive not only for our own sakes, but also that we may through this effort reward our teachers in a small measure for the work which they have expended upon us.

GORDON M. KLINE.

June Class History

AS OUR class stands to-night on the brink of graduation, we pause before it is too late for one backward glance of the four years that we have spent at Central. The events of four, three, and two years ago are swiftly marshaled before us, and in these memories we find the cause of our joy, or it may be, sorrow, to-night. As a class, however, we certainly have nothing to regret, except that we are leaving a place we have grown to love, for we have the satisfaction of knowing that we have helped to make history, and history of which we may be proud, for Central.

Our freshman year was one that we will never forget. Of course we had our share of freshman timidity and of awe of the big school and the upper-classmen, but all these freshman attributes were soon forgotten or overcome in the general rejoicing that pervaded the school year. We had the satisfaction that year of seeing Central sweep everything before it in football, basketball, drill, and baseball. These victories made us wish to be some day in the thick of the fight ourselves, and inspired in us a love of the school, its traditions, and its leaders that is largely accountable for our presence here to-night. It was in this year, our first, that the Central Bulletin came into existence. Now, on the eve of graduation, we leave it a well-established, interesting school paper.

Our sophomore year was just as eventful if not so happy. First there was an epidemic of influenza, which, while it gave us an ever-welcome vacation, caused gaps in our ranks never to be filled. Next, Mr. Wilson, whom we had known just long enough to respect and admire, was taken seriously ill. Last, but not least, the sight of the service flag that hung from the library window as a tribute to over five hundred Central boys who had fought on the battlefields of France, taught us to realize that there are victories greater than those which are gained on the drill and athletic fields. If the year before a spirit of victory and confidence was imbedded in us, this year the spirit of sacrifice and service was no less so, and our class, along with others, liberally supported the Liberty Bond and Red Cross drives.

In our junior year the death of Mr. Wilson turned our school world into mourning. His inspiring words, "Count me present," uttered just previous to his death, filled us with a determination to carry on, to attain the goal that was now so near, and under the capable leadership of Mr. Maurer we have at last reached that goal. It was in this year that our class really began to feel the importance of its place in the school. Our representatives in football, cadets, track, and baseball, though backing the leaders in these activities to the utmost in endeavoring to make a successful year, were eagerly looking forward to the next year when they should be leaders themselves.

In our last year at Central we have been the leaders, and as such have tried to set an example to the undergraduates. In athletics and in drill we have done our best, and no one can do any more. Sometimes that best has proved to be the best there is; at other times it has not, but always we have upheld Central's standard of fair play and sportsmanship. Not content with confining our efforts to established activities, our class has led the way toward organizing the first rowing crew that Central has had since 1898, a crew that has brought laurels to the school. The class has also been instrumental in promoting another new sport—girls' rifle practice.

It is for these and similar reasons that the June class of 1921 feels that it has done its part in making a bigger, better school of Central than it was when the class first entered. We feel that we have in every sense of the word carried forward Central's banner of achievement.

EDWIN L. YATES.

June Class Poem

O Central dear, on this new height
Triumphantly we stand to-night.
And gazing on our past we see
Bright tokens of thy ministry.

We know that 't was thy guiding hand
That led us on to where we stand;
That thy beloved inspiring name
Has been the lodestar of our aim—

That, day by day, through fleeting years,
"Steadfast of Purpose" quelled our fears.
And now, this goal attained, shall we Forget the love we owe to thee?

And must we leave our dreams behind,
And cut in twain the ties that bind?
Dear as they are, and closely-wrought,
Shall they be henceforth counted naught?

No, Central, dear, we answer, No.
Though forth into the world we go
To try our wings in longer flights,
We shall be always Centralites!

How oft our hearts shall burn to hear
Thy name pronounced, O Central, dear;
And how our eyes in fond delight
Shall dance to see thy Blue and White.

For deep within our hearts shall be
The shrine of thy dear memory;
And our eternal altar fire
Shall be the love thou didst inspire.

So, still thy children may we be,
However far away from thee—
O Central, school benign, we know
That thou wilt bless us as we go!

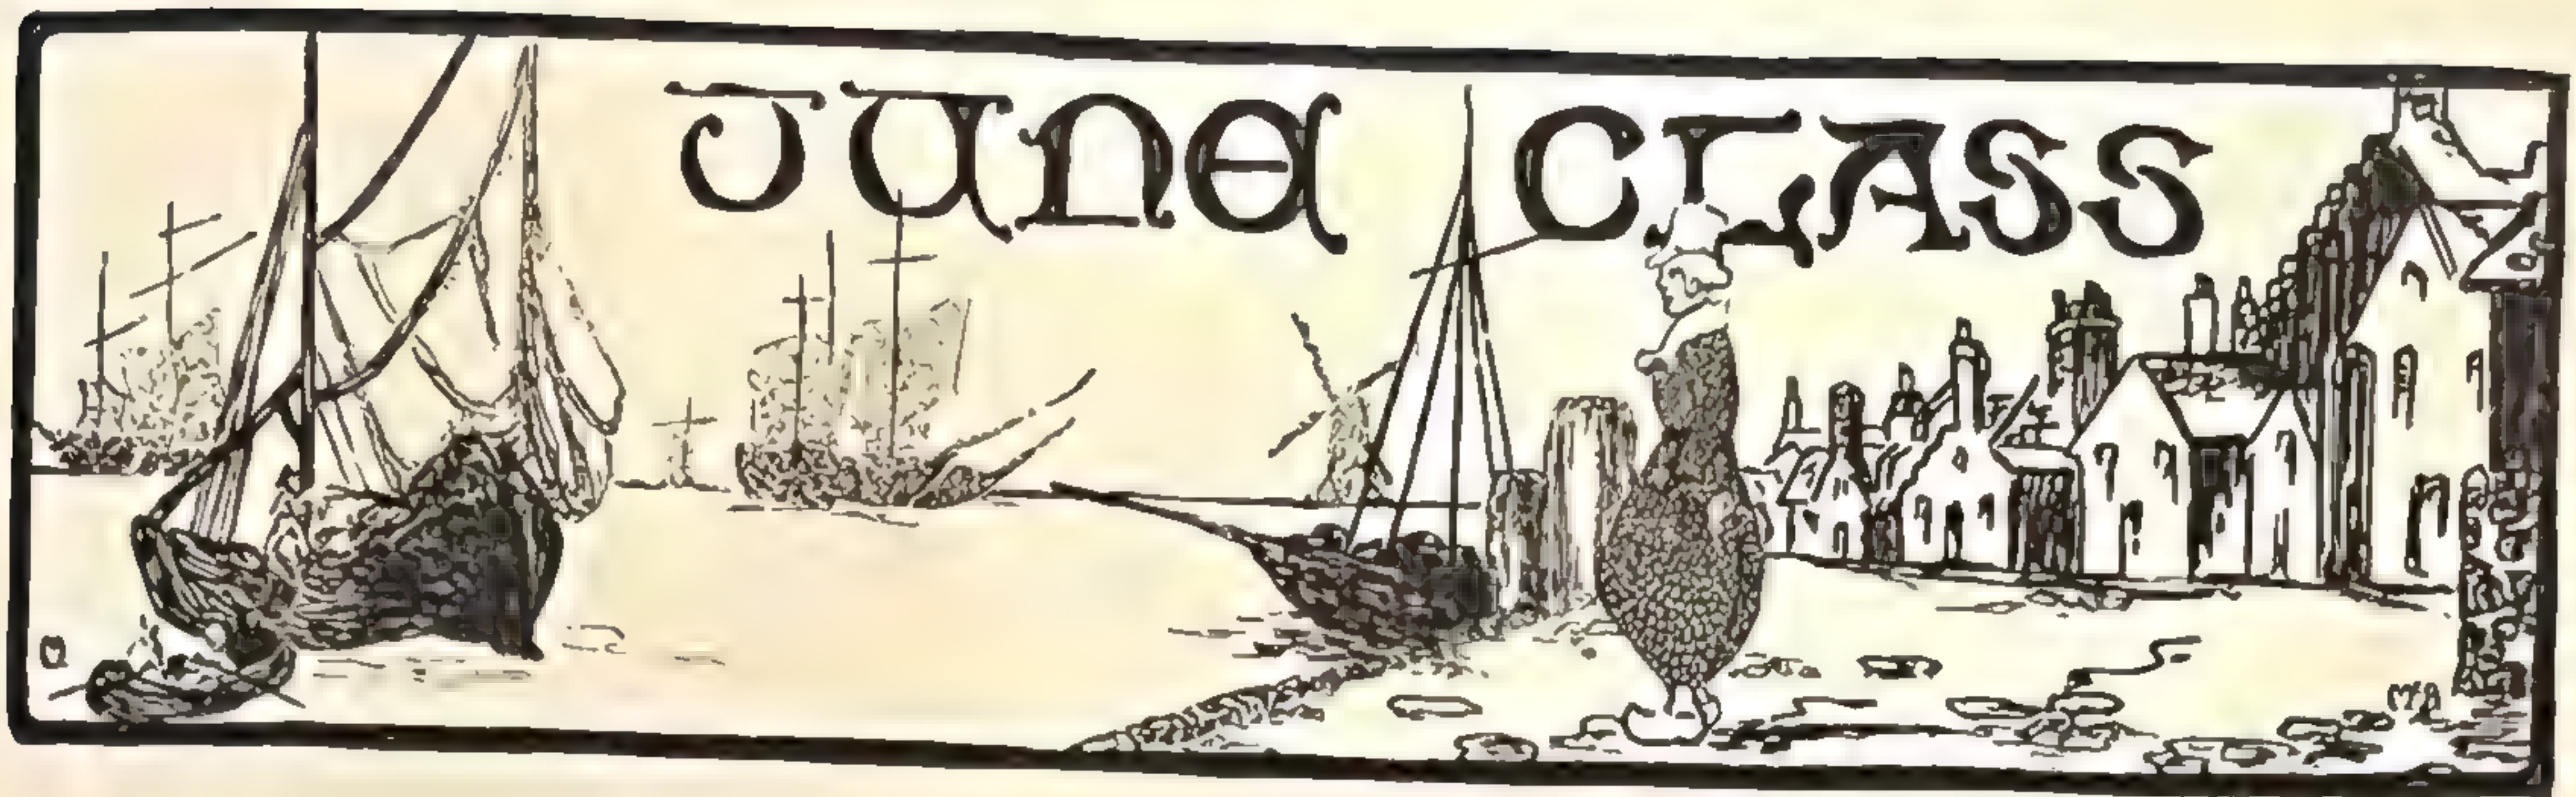

MARTHA EDMONSTON.

JUNE CLASS OFFICERS

Martha Edmonston

- | | | |
|------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|
| HELEN ELIZABETH SOMMERS, Vice-President | JAMES HANSON LEMON, President | EDWIN LANGHORNE YATES, Historian |
| MARGARET LOWNDES BOWIE, Secretary | | MARTHA LUCILLE EDMONSTON, Poet |
| NEILSON JONES, Treasurer | | THEODORE ROSS FINK, Prophet |
| HARRISON GILL KILDARE, Valedictorian | | MILDRED MOORMAN MURRAY, Prophet |

There is no road too long to the man who advances deliberately and without undue haste ;
there are no honors too distant to the man who prepares himself for them with patience.

JEAN DE LA BRUYÈRE.

BERTHA ANNE ABRAMSON

Wish we were as ambitious as Bertha! She's studying violin and piano, and is exceptionally proficient in both. And then she intends to be a lawyer. Judging from her past record and her way of winning friends, we know that she will succeed.

JESSICA CHAMBERS ADAMS

When we came to write quelque chose about Jess (the full appellation is too lengthy for one so diminutive) sans l'art, math., and swimming our thoughts would have been in vain. Jess has consistently remembered why she came to Central.

LELAND MILTON ALDEN

Lee is well known to all—especially the young ladies. A splendid record at Central leads us to expect that he will soon revolutionize the chemical world with his discoveries as Lehigh's crack chemical engineer. Good luck to you, Lee!

*Marshall Lowell (Mrs. M)
4205 Watkins Trail
Annandale Va*

*5313 Broad Rd
Wash 15*

Lee Alden 04

Isabel Allen
New York

3467 Raymond St
15

MARGARET ISABEL ALLEN

Isabel is one of "Central's charming children." She has shown unusual brilliancy by completing her course in three years. Her chief delight is the study of law. We all know that she will make a wonderful success of it. That's Isabel!

dr ISADORE MEYER ALPHER
Scholarship

Alpher is a student of whom Central may justly feel proud. His scholastic record is an enviable one. He has finished his course in three and a half years. His greatest interest is in music and his ambition—well, just watch our Fritz Kreisler.

AUDREY JOANNA ANDERSON

Audrey, one of our future Portias, has begun her law course here at Central, and hopes to continue it at George Washington. She is comparable to Shakespeare's heroine, not only in her intellect, but also in her grace and charm.

LILLIAN MARIE ANDERSON

Everybody knows and loves Lillian, the girl with the sunny smiles. Her ambition is to become a business woman, and, as she always accomplishes what she starts out to do and then some, her aim will be realized. Ask anybody.

1663 Harvard
MARY SALOME APPLE

Our "Highland Mary" has indeed been a conscientious student these four years. Her sweet and loyal disposition has won her many dear friends. When she makes a name in the musical world, we will be even prouder of Mary.

*Mrs Henry Wilson
77 Concord Ave*
ELIZABETH KATHERINE ARCHIBALD

"Sug" possesses the gentle art of making every one happy, as is shown by her cheery letters to a certain place of Uncle Sam's in Maryland. Her highest ambition is to drive down the Avenue at fifty-five miles, without being arrested.

MARY AMELIA ARGENT

Mary was persuaded to grace Central with her presence, and ever since, she has been flirting with Caesar. Can you imagine it! In years to come she will probably be trying to teach some poor unfortunate—a truly worthy ambition.

FREDERICK WILLIAM ARTOIS

*Rifle Team "C," 1920-1921
First Lieutenant, Co. F.*

A good student, a good friend and a fine shot! Freddy has distinguished himself at Central in more ways than one. Since his freshman year he has been the same good-natured Freddy. In the future, more will be heard from him.

EDITH LAVINIA AUSTERMUHL

Edith is one of our "ivory-tickling" celebrities. She can delight us with either Chopin's classics, or the latest Jazz. Edith's favorites, however, are hymns, and she seems to favor young ministers.

JAMES BLISS AUSTIN

*Scholarship
First Lieutenant, Co. D.
Review Staff, 1920-'21
Secretary Debating Society*

Bliss is one of those rare persons who can boast of having lived up to Roosevelt's "When you work, work hard—when you play, play hard"! His honors speak for themselves, but above all these is his quality of making and keeping friends.

SUSANNE BAGBY

She was born without the herald of trumpets. She has always been the embodiment of sunshine and happiness, has no desire to have her picture in the Hall of Fame, and is an ardent worshiper at the shrine of Terpsichore.

Accord

GEORGE FRANKLIN BALTZELL, JR.

"All the good die young, but I'm going to be an old, old man," is George's favorite saying. He hails from the land of "Old Black Joe." This accounts for his S'u'the'n drawl and his rare sense of humor.

*Beckingham ham Rd
Pitts burg 13 Pa*

Mrs. F. L. and W. Bush
 5171 37th St. N. 1st 7
 Culver, Ind.

LIFE MEMBER
 200 Conway Ave. 2nd Angles
 Fall

Heard

MARY FRANCES BARR
 Scholarship

Review Staff, 1920-'21
 Mary, a real live-wire Central-ite, won her Golden Eaglet from the Girl Scouts in 1920. She has worked well in school activities, and her ability as well as her amiability has won for her the scores of friends she leaves behind.

ROBERT STEIN BASSLER.

Bob is going to George Washington until he decides whether he will be a doctor, a geologist, or a movie director. He says, "Well, G. W. and Central are in the same city, anyway." His many friends wish him much luck.

DAVID FERDINAND HENRY BAUER

If you ever want a plan for a future home, be sure to call on David, our foremost draftsman. We might say that he has "designs" upon a position as architect. Not satisfied with one accomplishment, David also plays the violin.

Mrs. Kenneth Williamson
 LUCILLE UNDERWOOD BEAN

"Beanie" is a good sport. Does she like ball games? We can't imagine her a quiet keeper; yet she says she is going to be one. Notice she doesn't specify the kind; We do know that she will be missed at Central.

1656 Harvard St.
 ALBERT EUGENE BECK

Football "C," 1920

"Gene" Beck has not done much of anything except study. He expects to enter Georgetown next fall to pursue the arduous study of Law. He has a head full of dreamy ambitions, but there is one that holds first place.

Mrs. Ward Harrela
 2826 N. 44th
 Frances Eleanor BEGG
 44th
 2826 N. 44th
 44th
 2826 N. 44th

Eleanor, our representative from the state of the Presidents, Ohio, has graced our halls for only two years. During that time she has shown us the meaning of noise, pep, and go. Her life ambition? Well—a Georgetown student should know.

2136 LeRoy Pl. 2nd fl. 21

Mrs Cake

HAZEL MATILDA BERGSTROM

Our "Birdie" flew to us from Minnesota in the beginning of her Junior year. Since then she has made many friends among her fellow-students. Her highest ambition is to sing in Keith's circuit. We'll all be there when she starts.

SARAH EDITH BERNSTEN

Good looking!—that's Sarah. We suppose she'll study law and specialize in divorce cases so that she can vamp the judge. As for her dancing ability, ask one of her numerous conquests. Next winter will see her in Florida or college.

HELEN DOROTHEA BERRY

This industrious young lady has spent all her high school days here. She has not yet decided upon her future work—there are so many things to do now. We know, however, that she will make good in whatever she undertakes.

Mrs W P Sigler

ELIZABETH BICKFORD

Review Staff, 1919-1920

Charm, intellect, modesty, and dignity are her crowning virtues. A real Central girl is Betty. After serving our school socially and on The Review Staff, she leaves a great vacancy behind her, but Central's loss is to be Wellesley's gain.

FLORENCE WRIGHT BIRCH

"Giggles" sense of humor is equalled only by her charm and friendliness. She dances so well that she will have no difficulty whatever in foxtrotting her way into the hearts of all at Cornell, where she will be registered next year.

Cap T.

JOSEPH LENOIR BIRD

Lenoir has made a host of friends during the past year. He came from Marion, North Carolina, in 1920, and is graduating at the age of 16 years and one month. His ambition is to be President of the United States.

450 Lahser Rd
Birmingham Mich

128 Brandt Ave Dr
Lana, Ill 33540

LIFE MEMBER

CAROLYN MURIEL BLANZ

Here's a worker! Carolyn has done in three years what it takes most of us four to do. She is ambitious; there is no doubt! Candy and cake are her favorite dishes, and her aim is social service. Good luck, Carolyn.

CHARLES MITCHELL BLISS

Captain, Co. C

Mitchell's ready smile and good nature are well-known to every one, especially to the great many permanent friends he has made while at Central. We know that his years of music study will be as successful as was his career at Central.

535 Park Ave N.Y.

DONALD STICKNEY BLISS

A thorough-going, honest-to-goodness Centralite. Though not a star of the first magnitude, reliability is his middle name. As sergeant of Cadets he proved a faithful drill-master. He was a plugger at math. and a good musician.

1917 S. 2329 345

ZELDA HINDA BLOOM

According to latest reports, it appears that Zelda's love for music is getting beyond her control. Some day she will wake up to find her name in electric lights on Broadway, and it wouldn't surprise any of us one bit.

MARGARET EARLE BOARDMAN

Every one knows "Peggy," the brown-haired maiden from Alabama. She brought sunshine with her when she came to us four years ago. Although her hobby is Annapolis hops, we expect to hear from Peggy as an exclusive Southern modiste.

Mrs. Harry Shapiro
Ruth Bock 4060 Mass Ave
16

The many friends Ruth has made during her four years at Central prove that she is indeed a sweet and lovable girl. She is going to college, and we know that she will make a great success of it.

ALLEN MCFARLAND BOETTCHER

Scholarship

Allen has made a good impression since he came to Central. Besides graduating in three years, he has made a record of "E's" in all his studies. After he leaves Central, he will make his debut at George Washington. Good luck, Allen.

CORINNE MOREHEAD BOGER

Corinne, a typical North Carolina girl, entered Central as a Junior. Her soft accents and Southern ways have won for her many friends. Although pronounced "just right," her ambitions are to get thin and get married. We have no fear for the latter.

ELEANOR BONNER

"Ronnie" proves the well-known saying—"Good things come in small packages." She has smiled her way into the hearts of all who know her. In her ambition—to be useful, she will also find her niche at Swarthmore.

520 h SW

Coder ARTHUR EDWARD BONNET

Arthur is commonly known as "Fats." He likes nothing better than to be one of a bunch of fellows engaged in an athletic game, unless it be to fool around machinery. His love of this work has led him to choose it as his life work.

USHP JAMES HARFIELD BOWEN

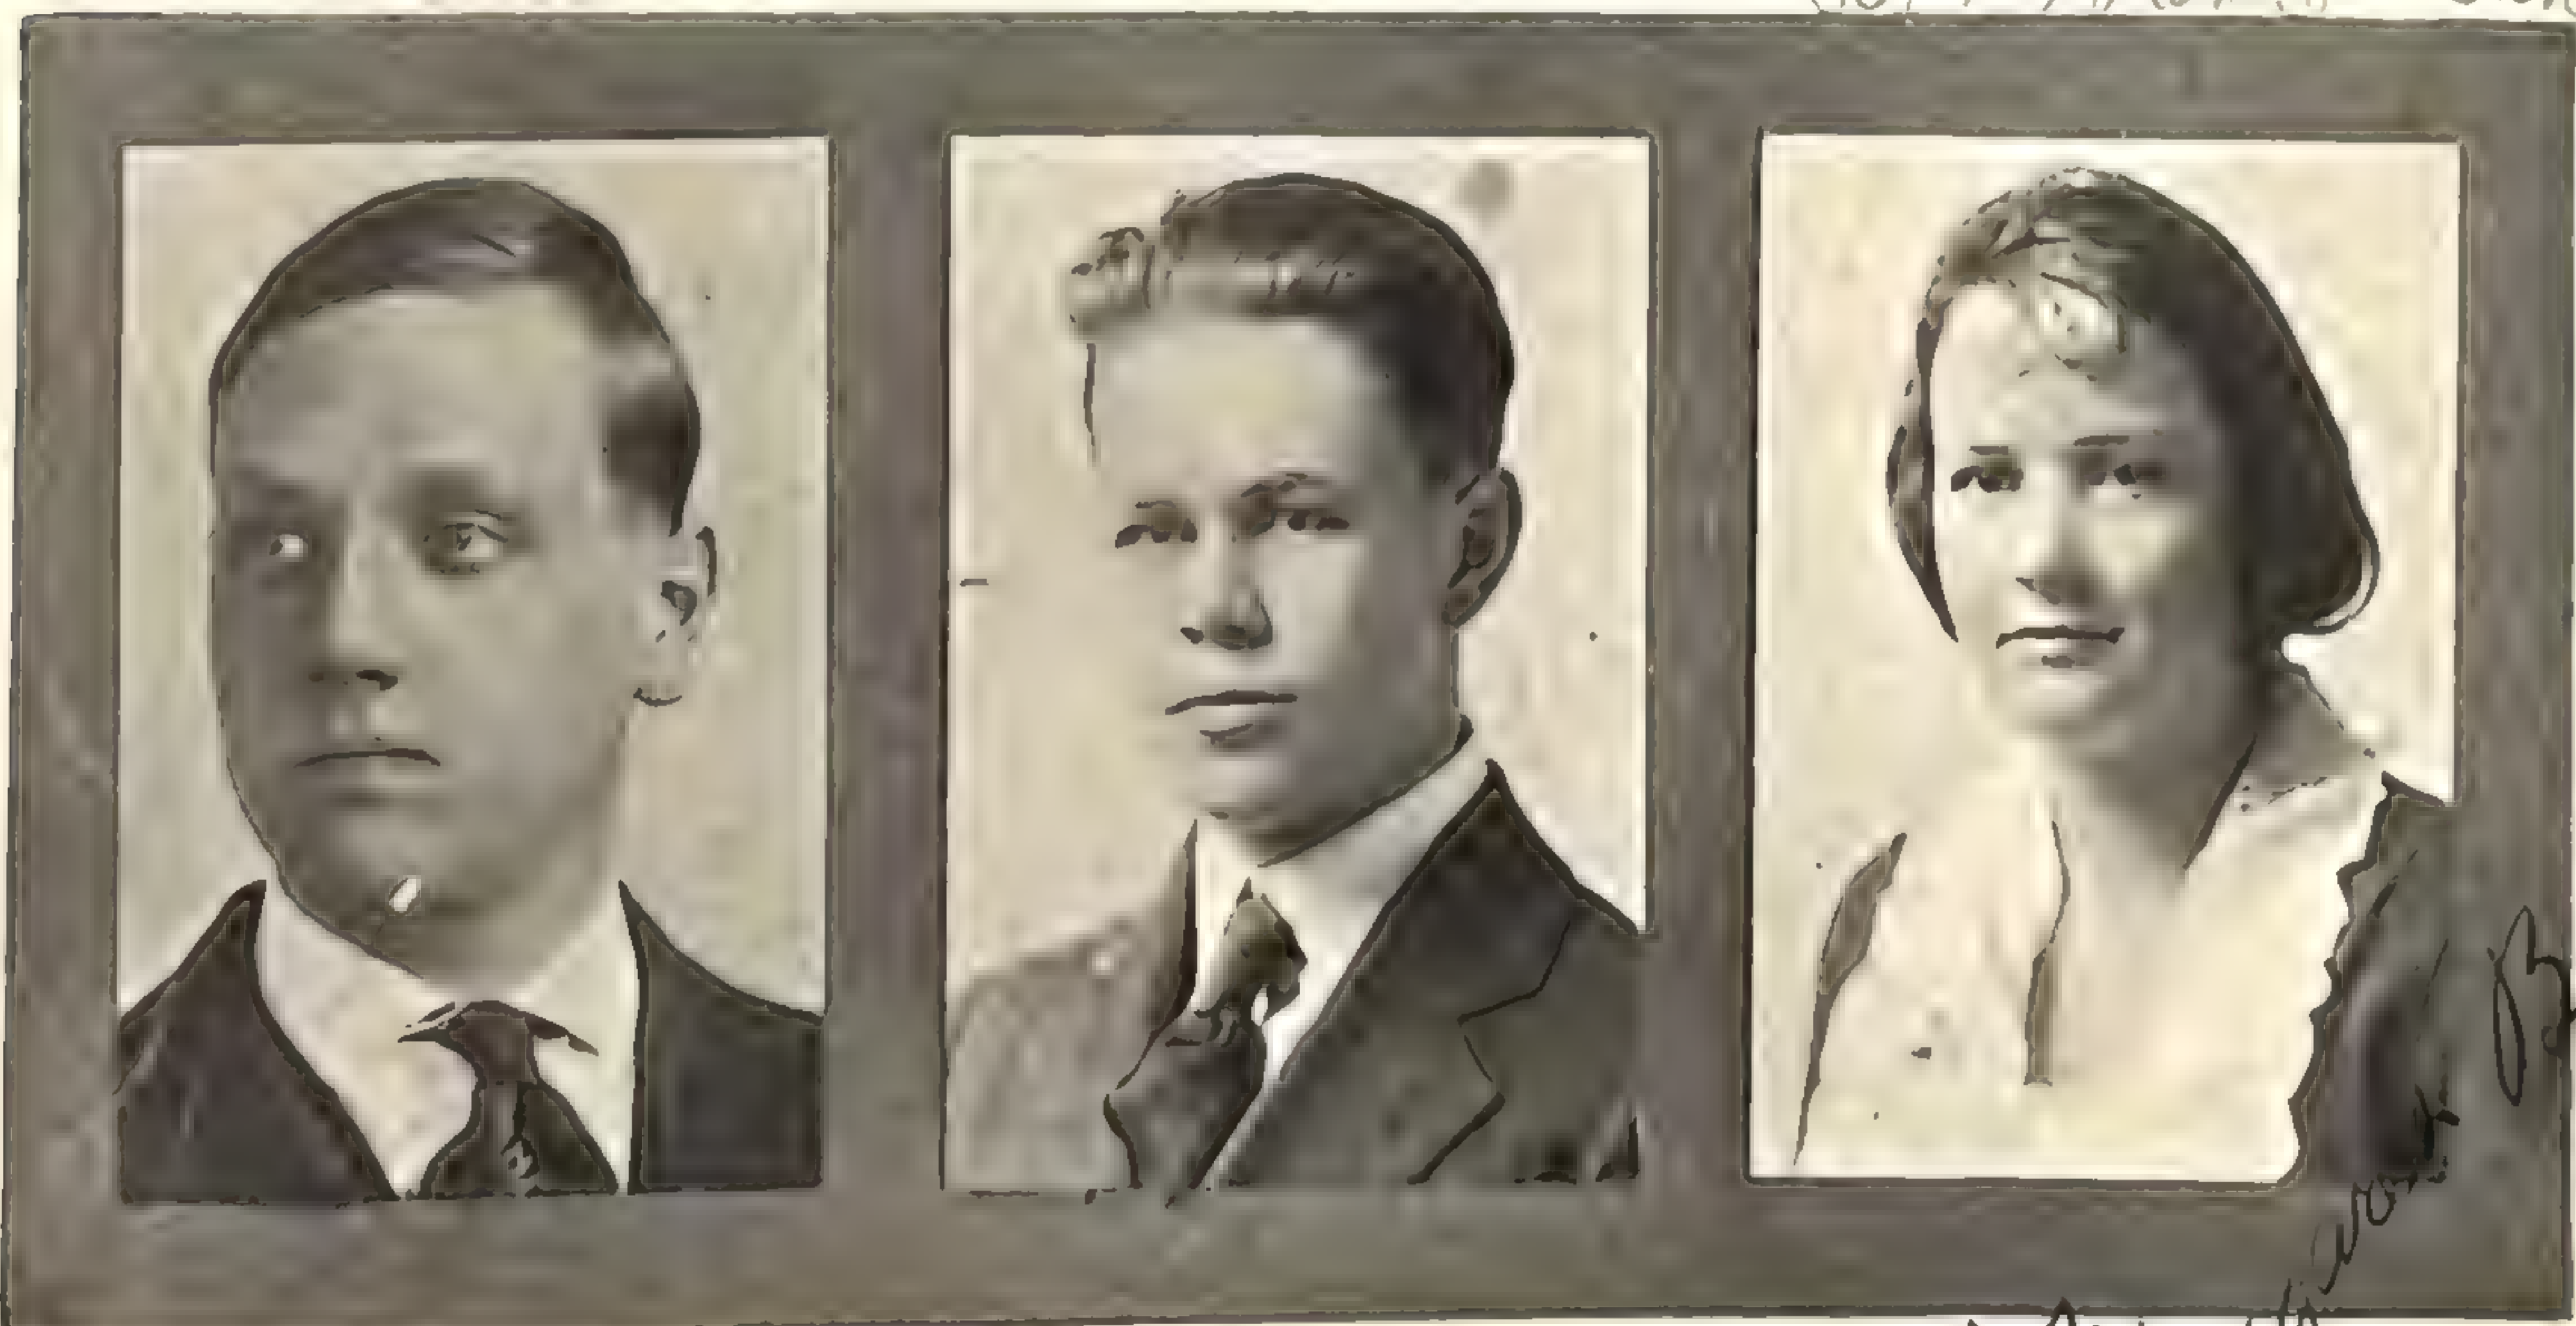

Jimmie has been a loyal Centralite for the past four years. He is very much interested in athletics; especially tennis, in which he has engaged enthusiastically for two years. He is widely known as "Slew-foot Slim" and also "Hair-breadth Harry."

Mrs R W Wallace
MARGARET LOWNDES BOWIE

Class Secretary
Swimming "C," 1920

Speaking of charm and personality! We feel them both when Margaret is around. She has won a host of friends and admirers while at Central, and here's hoping that she may make even greater success while at college next year.

8619 Green St San Diego Cal

Margaret Bowie

LIFE MEMBER

Mr. Thomas Samuel Ralph Brinkman

ELIZABETH HUGHES BRADFORD

*Scholarship
Bulletin Staff*

Betty, a mixture of beauty, brains, and personality blends into an altogether popular girl. Her smile is known throughout the school, and her tireless, successful work on The Bulletin shows that Betty is "right there" with the brains. Watch her literary career.

9119 Alexander

RALPH BRINKMAN

This husky lad was so enthusiastic about hunting and fishing that he did not have time for school athletics. Ralph is a typical ladies' man and has many girl friends at Central. His greatest ambition, at present, is a perfect Marcelle wave.

HARRY BRODSKY

Harry's chief ambition is to be a civil engineer. During his four years at Central he has left a record of "G's" and "E's" behind him. Let good luck and prosperity go with him throughout his college career and later life.

CAROLYN ELIZABETH BROOKS

Though she comes from West Texas, she is neither wild nor woolly; in fact, we find her mild. Central seems to agree with her, for very few frowns are observed. She even lifts her voice in song—in the music room.

MILTON BUCHLER

In the words of a great classic, "You never can tell how far a toad will jump, by his looks." But all indications point to a far leap in the realm of real achievement. When Milton lands, his name will shine.

9565 Alexander

HORACE DILWORTH BUCKMAN

Horace is one of our commuters from Virginia. He likes farming, and, after a course at Maryland State, we expect him to become one of Virginia's most progressive farmers. He is out for track, hoping to place in the long runs.

8117 Brinkman Rd Alexander

Miss Kenneth Dole LIFE MEMBER Mrs. Under dec

EVELYN BUMSTEAD

Evelyn Bumstead honored the state of Massachusetts by choosing it as her birthplace. She is a small and dainty miss with lots of "pep." Her high school record shows good scholarship. "Bummy's" chief ambition is to have a middle name.

West Side Rd 10 Conway h 4

ISABEL EVA BUNTUN

Kansas must be a fine state if the girls are all like Isabel. She has been with us only a year and a half, but has been a pleasant addition to the class. for Isabel is everybody's friend and a mighty good one, too.

*Univ Arkansas
Fayetteville Ark*

WILLIAM BURKE, JR.

"Billie" Burke has made many friends at Central because of his magnetic personality. Wherever there is anything doing, you will find "Billie" and he will be doing it, too. After graduation he intends to go to Cornell and then to the Orient.

MARY EVELYN BURLEY

Mary is recognized by her quiet and unassuming ways. She is fond of music and French and is a conscientious worker. It is impossible to state her one and only ambition in life, but whatever it is, we are sure that she will make good.

MARJORIE DU PONT BURTON

Who around Central does not know our little Margie? Her winning smile and charming ways have captivated all of us. Her ambition is to be of some use to some one in the world, and we know that she will certainly succeed.

MARGARET FRANCES BUTLER

Margaret is the kind we all like—full of fun and always ready for a lark. Ask her why Huyler's is so prosperous! Her heart's desire is to graduate from Hollins and be a Spanish interpreter in South America. Good luck, Senorita!

GRETCHEN CAMPBELL

In her four years at Central, Gaby has plodded through classes with too much interest in teas and dances to care whether her marks were E's or D's. Her ambition is to get enough credits to enter college without studying.

RUTH WINIFRED CAPERS

Ruth's cheerful face and un-failing wit have made her known and loved among her classmates. She is a talented musician, and her ambition lies, not strangely, in that direction. It is to teach the best music class in the city.

WILLIAM EDWARD CAREY, JR.

Brecky Staff, 1920-'21
Review Staff, 1920-'21
Major, First Battalion

"Bill" has made a big success of his four years at Central. He is a hard-working, earnest fellow and has a well developed sense of humor. His favorite occupation is in argument, and he has the ability to convince his audience.

4201 Cathedral Ave

Mrs Lester C Flood
MARGERY CARRUTHERS

Captain, Basketball, 1921—"C"; 1920
Associate Editor Brecky
Vice-President Athletic Asso.

"Tats" is that sweet little girl who always passes with a hurried walk and a perplexed expression. Just now she is thinking of going to Normal School, but she may change her plans any time.

OLIVER TAYLOR CARR

Ollie has been an ardent follower of athletics throughout his high school career. He is now swinging a wicked oar with the C. H. S. crew. Ollie's hopes are turned toward Lehigh and an M. E. degree from that University. Here's to his success.

1700 Hanna Ave

WILLIAM GOLDEN CARTER, JR.

Manager, Basketball, '21
Bill is an unassuming young man who does things, not using a brass band to announce them. As a basketball manager he has not a superior. His irresistible personality gains the respect of all those who partake of his friendship.

106 11/20/21
Lambda Sigma
Jas Carruthers Best wishes for a successful year as President
LAMBDA SIGMA

"Eddie" Chase

PRESTON ANDREWS CAVE

Preston's one ambition was to "star" in baseball. However, his hopes were quickly killed by injury during his sophomore year. After being graduated he expects to spend one year at Lynchburg College preparatory to entering the University of Virginia.

ROLAND WILBUR CHARLES

"Charlie" has been with us but a comparatively short while, but he has the Central spirit. Besides attending Central, he amuses himself eight hours a day in the Postoffice Department. He hails from Missouri; you know what that means.

SARA EDNA CHASE

If any girl in Central can be called true blue, it is "Ed." She is a good sport and full of fun, but can settle down to work when the time comes. Next year she is going to Michigan University.

deceased
NORRIS BOWIE CHIPMAN

Track "C," 1919

Our Beau Brummel, after two years at Western and a few other schools, came to Central and made a track "C" with facility, in his first year. He expects to succeed David Belasco, for his ambition is to produce plays.

ALFRED HENRY CLARK

Second Lieutenant, Co. "C"
Bulletin Staff

"Al" has been a popular fellow around school. He was interested in mechanical drawing and the Cadets, also in the lunch room cashiers. Although he is undecided about his future, we all know that his winning ways will get him anywhere.

SAMUEL JAMES CLARKE

"Sam" is otherwise known as the peripatetic of Washington. His great hobby is wandering in the woods and studying nature. His highest ambition is to become an American forester, and we all know that he will prove a success in this work.

3540 Wilson Ave

Mrs. Lem T. Jarrow

Mrs. Stephen Bayne Tshy

deceased

Edith Claude

EDITH McALLISTER CLAUDE

Captain, Girls' Rifle Corps

"Claude" is an athlete, an accomplished dancer, a good sport, and the epitome of originality. She was made; then the pattern was destroyed. There is one thing about her—she can say and do things that no one else can, and get away with it.

96 Melrose

IDA COHEN

Bank Staff

There ought to be a traffic cop around when Ida's type-writing—she exceeds all speed records. Her ambition, however, does not run along this line, so ten years hence you'll probably get your stunning gowns from "Mlle. Ida" of Paris.

MARY LOUISE COCKERILLE

They say that looks are deceiving. That is so in Mary Louise's case, as she seems quiet and demure, but become acquainted with her, and "You will be surprised." Mary's greatest ambition is to be a second Padrewski. Here's luck to her!

4515 Yuma St

Mrs. Harold Kehm
DOROTHY VIRGINIA COLBURN

When Dot came here from Business last September, Central got one of the finest girls ever. She may appear bashful, but appearances do not always tell the exact truth. Her keen sense of humor and her ready wit will be missed by all.

8754 Preston
Chicago, Ill.

ALLEN CRENSHAW COE

A hearty, friendly son of the South—dangerous only in argument. He likes a good horse; "fans" all the sports including Congress; tolerates the fair sex; considers studying a necessary evil; revels in political discussion; lives in debate. Ambition? Senate.

deceased

HELEN BEATRICE COLPOYS

Helen surely is some gloom-chaser! Many of her admirers could testify to that. She positively couldn't help being popular. Her great specialty is autos, preferably Cadillacs. Her greatest ambition is to be a happily married lady in a "cottage by the sea."

deceased

RUTH COALE COLUMBUS

"Good things come in small packages," and this is particularly true of "Rufus." Sometimes Rufus fails to study, but we all know that, if dancing and being agreeable to people were included in the curriculum, she would lead them all.

Dr. ERNEST MILDURN COLVIN

"Mil" is that nice boy with the marcel wave. Yes, girls, its a natural one. He has an innocent look, but some say that you cannot judge a book by its cover. Mil is also famous for his cute and distinguished sneeze.

1726 21st NW

MARY ELAINE COLVIN

Elaine has proved that she is a good student by her four years' study of Latin. Her ambition is to become a trained nurse. If she makes as good a nurse as she has a Centralite, she will be successful.

PAUL CONKLIN

Tennis "C," 1917-1920; Captain, 1920
Football "C," 1919-'20

"Mick" is a champion. He has been the junior tennis champion of the District, and runner-up for world's championship. His headwork at quarterback on the football team brought him much honor. And last, but not least, Paul is a champion with the ladies.

LENDELL ALLEN CONNER

Although changing his mind several times, Lendell finally decided to graduate from Central. After obtaining his elusive sheep skin, he hopes to earn another from George Washington Law School and eventually practice law. His friends know that he will be a success.

Mrs. Bruce Chandler
HELEN STONE COTTER

Review Staff, 1920-'21

Helen, since coming to Central, has changed from a green little rookie to a dignified(?) Senior. As a "scribbler" in her junior year, she exhibited sufficient skill to become a literary editor of The Review. Her farm in Maryland is a favorite haunt for her many friends.

316 Stanley Ave Washington
D.C. 600

JOSEPH DONALD COTTRELL

*Bulletin Staff, 1920-'21
Major, Third Battalion
Vice-President Debate*

Joseph is a faithful student, ranking high in scholarship, devoting spare time generously to the varied activities of Central. He is a commissioned Major of Cadets because of his conspicuous record. He will always reflect credit on his Alma Mater wherever he goes in future life.

FLORENCE McMURRAY COWHERD

Her friends and enemies are going to miss Florence for she has won many of both in the Alumni Room since her arrival in 1918. Flo's eyes are regular daggers and she uses them as only real Southern girls know how.

LOIS ALLEEN COWLES

Lois' career is just beginning, for in a few years we expect to see her at the pinnacle of success as somebody's secretary. Despite all this she is an all-round sport and out for all the fun coming her way.

JOHN RUDOLPH COX

The Class of 1921 is honored by having one of the cleanest cut, sand-at-the-bottom, sugar-at-the-top type of boy ever admitted to Central. John R's humor, tender nature, and hero aspect, make him very desirable. Girls, your chance will come after he has painted Princeton red.

Mrs Charles Harth
MARY AMBER CRAMER

"Mac" is that cute little girl with straight, dark hair and the smiling, angel face. One thinks her quiet at first, but ask her friends. Her greatest ambition is to be a linguist and capture a certain object in France.

MARGARET CRANE

A charming manner and laughing brown eyes have won the black-haired Margie many friends at Central. She was born in Kansas, went to kindergarten in New York, and came to us from Pennsylvania. She plays second violin in the Orchestra. Voila.

1823 Barr

Mrs. John Conliff

HOWARD CLINTON CROSS
Second Lieutenant, Company
B, 1921

Howard is a jolly, carefree fellow. He is both a ladies' man and a scientist. As to the first, ask some of the girls. He shows his scientific tendencies in chemical laboratory. He aspires to be an A-1 chemical engineer.

KATHERYN MAE CROWDER
Bank Staff

"Above all don't call me Katheryn," and "Have you read THE BELOVED VAGABOND, by William Locke"? You will often hear "Casey" saying this. As for her ambitions—it is to attain one thousand words "per" in shorthand and to grow five inches.

MARGUERITE HAZEL CROWN

"Margie" is one of Central's attractive blondes. We have always expected to see Marguerite filling the important position of Secretary to the President, but believe that she now aspires to the terpsichorean art and will soon be a follower of Pavlova.

JOHN BURKE CULLEN
Second Lieutenant, Co. K
Football "C," 1920
Secretary, Athletic Association,
1920-'21
Review Staff

Photographic Manager, Brecky
"Johnnie," a staunch supporter of Central for four years, has two ambitions. They are, to graduate from Holy Cross and to learn how to play football. If his cheerfulness and resolution continue, we know that he will succeed.

HAROLD CRAIG CUMMINGS

"Shing," as he is known by his friends, is quite an athlete, but because of his hatred for Cicero and Caesar, or rather their dislike for him, he has encountered no little difficulty in remaining eligible. His chief hobby is partaking of Nunnally's sodas.

GEORGE MOTTER CUNNINGHAM

"Mutt" is the polished coxswain of Central's first crew. He is an enthusiast on photography and is out to capture the A. B. degree from Princeton, and B. A. Chemical Engineer, from Boston Tech. The presidency of the U. S. is none too good for him.

4/19/21 Brewster St

4725 Rodman

3514 Bradburn Rd

Paradise
Camp

HORACE VELPEAU DARLING

"Vel" is one of Central's promising oarsmen, who expects to make something for himself this summer in the shell. He intends taking up Mechanical Engineering at George Washington University. He has an outside interest with blonde hair.

662 Tallyard St
Springfield Va

WALTER EMORY DAUGHERTY

Emory is good natured and the possessor of an enviable personality. He is undecided whether or not to become a business man, a bank president or a millionaire. His friends are confident of his success, pick what he may, and wish him the best of good luck.

MALCOLM GRAHAM DAVIS

Mal is a fine chap, and very ambitious. He masters his studies as easily as he makes friends; everybody likes Mal. Boston Tech is the school which will further develop his mind; electricity is his penchant and wireless his specialty.

FRANCIS CLYDE DAWSON

"Frankie" is loved by all of her friends. Besides being pretty, she possesses a very charming manner for which every one falls. Her ambition is to be a great designer and from appearances now, she will be. Three cheers for Francis!

WALKER MYRICK DAWSON

A staunch friend, a pleasant companion, and a good worker. Walker has put in four years of hard work at Central, and expects to enter Maryland State University in September, to study Agriculture. His many sterling qualities insure him success.

AUSTIN WESLEY DAY

Four years ago saw a rookie enter the doors of Central, eager to continue in the flowery path of knowledge. Today Wesley is as seasoned a senior as could be found. He is not much of an athlete, but oh, what a student!

288 E. 10th St
Springfield
Ind

7467 die Lingham Bay

RALPH DAY

"Reds" bases his education on the "Skip Stop" system. He started with us as a rookie; but spent the intervening years away; however, he has come back to Central to graduate. We are certainly glad to have him with us again.

ANNA LOUISE DEANE

"Nan" is like a fairy princess with blue eyes and rosebud mouth. She has made a host of friends while at Central, is a splendid dancer, and believes most heartily in "A sailor's life is the life for me."

JOHN ROBERTSON DEATHERAGE

John lived fourteen years in Tennessee with a birthday almost once in every four years. Then moving to Washington, he wisely entered Central. Here his ambition leans towards tilling the soil. His greatest fault is eating; his favorite pastime—dreaming.

At 3 Box 168 Annandale Va

SAMUEL DEL VECCHIO

Football "C," 1920

A dashing young gentleman from Messina is our Sam. Although a diminutive youngster, he is quite an athlete; socially, "he's right there." He has a good scholastic record and hopes to keep it so throughout his career at the University of Pennsylvania.

deceased
LINDEN DEUTERMAN

"Deute" has a cheerful disposition and plenty of ambition. His school interest is in the cadet corps, although he is especially interested in the mechanical drawing department. He has accomplished unusual work in this department this year, and will study architecture after leaving Central.

Miss Armin Clement
GLADYS ROMAINE DICE

All good things come in little packages. That's why Gladys never grew tall. Her favorite pastime is laughing. Maybe there is a reason, else Cupid wouldn't have given her dimples. As dice are always active, Gladys lives up to her name.

1221 Clement Rd
Silver Spring Md

Mrs. Edna Brauner

Sallie T. Dold

Florence Virginia Dougherty

5321 Woodbawn Cve
DOROTHY DIGGETT

Cherry Chase
"Dig's" extreme modesty makes it awfully hard for the biographer. However, after four years at Central where she has made many friends, she has decided to go to Wilson Normal to show them how it's done. She can do it, too.

SALLIE LOZANO DOLD

Sallie is a true-blue Southerner. She talks, acts, and looks like one. She's full of pep and has a winning smile. Just ask any one what he thinks of Sallie, and he will reply: "She's a peach of a girl."

FLORENCE VIRGINIA DOUGHERTY

"Pat," who is our future dietitian, believes that true success in her line lies in a generous fund of Irish good nature. Proficient in basketball, dancing and cooking, she made her steady way through Central. We certainly envy her patients.

Mrs Ralph Curlier
FRANCES LOUISE DREW

The Washington Post aptly named "Dewey" one of Central's "Belles." Attractive and lovable—we wonder if she will be any or all of the million things she would like to be. She is not going to college—perhaps there's a reason.

4713 Alton Pl

deceased

LILLIAN ISABELL DUFF

Basketball "C," 1920

Behold, one of the prettiest, jolliest, and most vivacious girls at Central. Duffy's chief pleasure is dancing, and when she is not keeping time to the latest music, just watch her play basketball! Her highest ambition is to be a great toe dancer.

EDWARD TWISS DUNLAP

Football "C," 1920
Track "C," 1919-1920
Bank Staff
Review Staff

Eddie, the "Little Wonder," is a fine sport, and has many and various hobbies; in fact, too many to enumerate. He is one of the best and most popular athletes in Central, as well as Washington. He tackles Harvard next.

1000 Saunders Lane Belhuck

LIFE MEMBER

LIFE MEMBER

Mrs Carson

732 Wilbur St 20012
GERTRUDE ELINOR DYRE

Trudie's greatest ambition is already realized, for she teaches music during her leisure time in "one of those adorable up-town studios." As for her playing—you should hear her! She can dance, too. For reference—ASK 'EM AT BLISS!

WILLIAM ADAMS EATON

"The best goods come in small packages" is a saying which every one who knows Billy believes. Being a fine fellow, an excellent student, and a splendid athlete, he will surely make an unusual record at Annapolis and in the Navy.

4232 no vacation and Arlington Dc

KATHARINE VIRGINIA EDMONSTON

Manager, Girls' Rifle Corps
Swimming "C's," 1919-1920

Despite the "wild and woolly" prevarications with which "Eddie" deludes us, everybody likes her. In athletics as in scholarship, she leaves a record of which to be proud. Among her many splendid traits is a complete ignorance of her own good qualities.

Trudie
MARTHA LUCILLE EDMONSTON

Class Poet
Review Staff, 1920-1921

Our poet has always been noted for her sweet temper except when one mentions "vers libre." She aspires to be a second Ella Wheeler Wilcox and to write one immortal line. We think that she will realize her ambition many times.

Rev

PHILIP CORIN EDWARDS

First Lieutenant, Co. C

Here we have one of those good old Centralites who manages to be a ladies' man and a First Lieutenant in the Cadets in spite of the fact that he really hopes to be a minister in later life.

5217 Belvoir St Glen Mar Pa

Mrs Howard Eberly
CATHARINE HOWARD ENGLAND

Review Staff

For four years Central has been made a brighter place and a happier place to live in by "Kitty." It would be an endless task to enumerate all her good qualities so we will just say that she is a good Centralite.

90 14 Finner Ave Silver Spring

Martha Edmonston

Edmonston

Centralite

Alys Ewers

ESTHER GERTRUDE EVANS

After many years of effort(?) Esther has decided to graduate with us. She is a great favorite with the male sex, because of her sportsmanlike ways. Is she bashful? Well, how could she be with those big brown eyes?

*1712 Chain Bridge Rd
McLean Va*

HUGH EVERETT, JR.

Captain, Regimental Adjutant
Rifle "C," 1920

Hugh is a marksman. He is also a handsome lady-killer. In the National Matches, held at Camp Perry, Ohio, last summer, he took the highest honor ever won by a high school boy in these matches. Keep it up, Hugh!

*The Knolls Berryville
Mrs. Schlarb Va*

ALYS HELENE EWERS

Basketball "C," 1920

"Ewers truly" is the best kind of a true Centralite. She is on the Senior Basketball team, is a swimming leader, a good student, and a shy but peachy friend. Her ambition is to win "C's" in Tennis and Swimming. Here's hoping!

*18 huna St
Armond Beach Fla*

JAMES LITHGOW EWIN

"Jim" is a true optimist. His cheerful smile has been one of the many bright spots in Central since September, 1917. His sunny disposition has been seen in many activities, including football and cadets. His ambition is to succeed as an engineer.

Scholarship

In "Bess" we find an unusual combination — attractiveness, a great pal, ability, and brains, and as a rifle shot she can't be beaten. At present she is aiming at Ohio State University. We all hope that she will make a bull's-eye.

GENEVIEVE PASSETT

Genevieve is somewhat sedate, but a sincere friend and an all-round good pal. She insists that she has not decided her future career, but we are quite confident that, with her abundant experience, she will succeed in becoming an expert dietitian.

Crystal Evans

*1111 1st St
Tacoma Wash*

Mrs Ellen Chamberlain

Mrs Louise Finckel

ELLEN LYLE FAY

Scholarship

Ellen is the best friend one could have, always ready to hear your tales of woe and help you in mental difficulties. Besides four years of E's and the ambition to go to college, she appreciates the best in life.

9121 McDonald dr
Bethesda Md
THEODORE ROSS FINE

*Class Prophet
Bulletin Staff*

Here's to our Class prophet. He is equally able to read the future stars and lines behind the footlights. His chief ambition is to have his name in the bright lights of Broadway. Good luck to you, Ross.

HARRY ANDREW FELLOWS, JR.

Harry is one of Central's distinguished characters, despite the fact that he hails from the metropolis of Falls Church. Central will lose a very valued feature impersonated in this gentleman. The University of Virginia is bartering for him next year.

6412 h Wash Blvd
Falls Church Va

DALE DAVIS FISHER

Dale lives up to his last name, but he is neither a sardine nor a sunfish. His favorite occupation is diving, and he has spent much of his time in the natatorium. He is going to George Washington for an A. B. degree.

PAULINE LOUISE FINCKEL

Quiet, brown-eyed Louise has decided to become — not a "school-marm," but our future world's champion "sport." "Swim," "motor," "tennis," and, of course, "dance," are her favorite words. Next year, Central will have her as a post-graduate student.

12000 Old Town Rd
Rockville Md

WILLIS HUBBELL FISK

Big and hearty, with a smile ever present; no one could be more obliging. A top-sergency in the Cadets and a corporality in the National Guard prove him an earnest and willing worker. Next year will see Willis a Maryland "Aggie."

THEODORE ROSS FINE
A & N

LIFE MEMBER

5466 Parochotam dr
Maryland 8 Va

Mrs Frank Hunsing

Mrs M Boone

Mrs Frank Stall

REBECCA ANITA FISKE

Anita is one of the most lovable girls Central's halls have ever known. She seems to have a special gift of making and keeping friends. To go to the University of Michigan and to study vocal music are her highest ambitions.

233 No Arlington Ave
East Orange N.J.

RUTH EVERMONT FOSTER

Two years ago, Ruth, who came from the state of Ohio, entered Central for the first time. It is needless to say that we welcomed her coming heartily and that we will all be very sorry to see her leave.

Mrs John Lillepage
6711 Fairview Rd
Cherry Hill

GRACE LUCILE FLETCHER

Lu's ambition up to the present time has been to graduate from Central. Although she is very quiet, let her loose once—then look out. Her favorite sports are horseback riding, dancing, and drinking coca-colas, provided some one else pays for them.

10225 Kensington Pkwy
Kensington Md 20705
EDWARD LEE FOUTS

"Ted's" quietness makes him a mystery to those who do not know him, but his friends claim him to be one of those distinguished few who say little and do a great deal. He expects to attend George Washington University.

ROSINA MARIA FLORIA

When you want to find sweetness and loveliness in one little five-footer, just seek out Rosie. She has loads of friends and is loved by all who know her. Her one ambition is to grow tall. We all wish her success.

HOWELL WHITFIELD FOWLER

Captain of Tennis
Tennis "C," 1919
Tennis "C," 1920

Hal has achieved fame at Central for playing tennis. He is very popular with the girls and never fails to stroll around after lunch. He has a fine reputation as a Cadet Sergeant, but when it comes to dancing—just watch him.

Jac French

Mr Am P Reed

Miss Lillian Friedlander

Thelma Fryer

Thelma Fryer

808 Mangrove Ave
Phila

Jacqueline French
Basketball "C" 1919-1920
Swimming "C" 1919-'20-'21
Tennis "C" 1920
Brecky Art Committee

"Jac" is a true daughter of Neptune. She has won "C's" in swimming, as well as in basketball and tennis. Moreover, she is one of our budding artists, and the best sport we know. Her ambition is a dark secret.

Lillian Friedlander

"Lil" first hit Washington, bag and baggage, at the age of ten. The very nicest thing about her is that smile, and the very worst is a capacity for eating cheese sandwiches. Now her ambition is to become a famous artist.

3245 Ellico H St
20009

Thelma Elizabeth Fryer

Scholarship

To know Thelma is to love her. She possesses every quality of mind and heart that make life worth while. She scatters sunshine everywhere, and is a joy to her comrades. The class of 1921 would be incomplete without Thelma.

Cecilia Elizabeth Furey

"Cece" is "that sweet-faced girl with the big blue eyes." She is ambitious and expects to enter the business world, but we would not be surprised to see her come back to Central and take a course in Domestic Science.

Mrs Marshall Smith
Margaret Houseal Furse

"To know her is to love her." Margaret, our Southern belle, is a popular dramatic star. Though she has been at Central only two years, she has captured our hearts. Her ambition is to graduate from Vassar. Good luck, Margaret!

Bruce Franklin Gannaway

First Lieutenant, Company M

This is Bruce; you all know him. His motto is, "Try arguing when all other methods fail." This may, in part, account for the prevalence of good marks on his reports. He is a valued member of the Cadet Corps.

Highwood St

East on Ave
Summit h 50852

509 Riverside Dr
Armond Ave h 112

GRACE MAY GANNAWAY

Grace, one of the very diligent mathematicians of the class of 1921, has always ranked among the highest in her school averages. Whenever it is possible, whether for basketball or football, she is always there with the true Central Spirit.

1421 Mass Ave NW.

BESSIE GARBER

Bank Staff

You all know "Bessie" with the beautiful dimples and the lovely brown eyes. She is on the bank staff. Her pet ambition is to be employed in a bank, and her favorite exclamation is the well-known, "je ne sais pas."

VIRGINIA LEE GARRETT

Virginia is one of the most winsome girls of our class. She comes from the South, her father being a Congressman from Tennessee. Her ambition is to be a lady of leisure and eventually to sail upon the sea of matrimony.

HELEN KATHERINE GAYLORD

Helen's smile has won her many friends at Central. Although she is very modest about admitting it, she plays the piano wonderfully and dances equally well. Her chief ambition is to become a concert player some day.

ROBERT HENRY GIBBS

Bob is one of our midgets whose ambition is to be six feet tall. After living in many places he came to Central two years ago. When he graduates from Cornell, we expect to find him building bridges across the Potomac.

SUSAN DAWSON GIDDINGS

Susie says that her cranking days are over, so the cadets may feel at ease as they will be relieved of their arduous duties since she has a self-starter on the new Ford sedan. Her favorite pastimes are motoring and swimming.

Susan Giddings

KERMIT EMORY GIRDNER

Kermit is the youngest and smallest of the class of twenty-one. He came to Washington in nineteen-seventeen from Missouri and entered Central at the age of eleven. Kermit says that he has no ambition, but we know he wants to grow.

ESTHER ROSETTE GOMPERS

Though a Washingtonian, Esther went to New York when very young. She started to high school there but came to Central in her junior year. She has two ambitions. One is to be a novelist. The other—well, here's hoping success!

ANNA MARIE GOODALL

Anna possesses that fine quality of being a "regular ole pal," and ambitious, too! In a few years we expect to hear from her as an influential young lawyer or the sporting editor of one of the country's leading newspapers.

VESTA MARIA GOODWIN

Swimming "C," 1919
Manager Swimming, 1920-'21

"Ves" is a fish of a swimmer. She has her "C" to prove it. Her sportsmanship is the real Central kind, her disposition remarkable under trying circumstances, and her motto, "If you can't be good, be original." She follows it.

GEORGE UMBERGER GRAFF

Tall, a marcel wave, and a good dancer—that's George. He's an exceptionally good walker, too, which is the result of missing his last car so often. His future plans are a mystery to all his friends. Time will tell!

CLIFFORD PIGGOTT GRANT

About 1930 we may see Cliff towering above his fellows, declaiming, "Gentlemen of the Jury, I appeal to your tenderheartedness, your, etc." Next year he intends to enter Georgetown Law School. His personality and sense of humor should win cases.

JOHN RICHARD GREELEY

Rifle "C," 1920

Bang! There goes Greeley's rifle again and another "ten" results. He has been doing this grade of shooting since the beginning of the matches last year. When they ended, his total was found to be 1,981, second in the country.

KATHERINE MADELINE GROSS

Here we have Katie, "a wise old owl," both cautious and conservative, yet she finds time to get a lot of pleasure out of life. We are sure that she will be successful with anything she undertakes, and wish her the best of luck.

ROBERT CALHOUN GROVE

"Bob" has been with us for three years and has made a host of friends, among both boys and girls. He is a big success on the crew, and we are sure that he will be as successful when he becomes a lawyer.

MARY HAMILTON GROVER

Who could help loving Mary? Even though they say her heart is cheerfully lost, yet all of her friends have a big slice of her affection. The great question is what will we all do while she is at Wellesley!

KATHLEEN KLINE GRUVER

A sweet, lovable, little girl is Kathleen, whose two ambitions are to go to Cornell, and to get married. Judging from her studious ways at Central, she will realize the first, and from her attractiveness, she will realize the second.

KATHRYN GUNDAKER

I want to say she's got 'em—that's our Kitty. To know her is to like her. Her dancing, her ways, and her gay disposition make her beloved by all. At present her ambition is to be boss of a mechanical engineering firm.

DOROTHY SMITH HADDON

Bulletin Staff

Every one likes Dorothy, except those who knew her well—they love her. We wonder how Central High School is going to get along without her. Whenever there is anything to be done, you can count on Dorothy to do it.

DRUCILLA BOHRER HALLAM

Alert, petite, and dainty are the adjectives that describe "Dru." She graduates in three and a half years, with oceans of "excellents," too. She is a dear, and to know her is to love her. Ask "Dru" about Roanoke—she knows.

NORMAN WITHERILL HAMMETT

About four years ago this handsome youth entered Central. Since then many friends have been made by his magnetic personality. After finishing his training in finance, he will be as well known throughout Wall Street as he is at Central.

ADINE MARIE HAMPTON

This winsome maid is not very large, but she possesses a big heart which is constantly shown in her power to help others and to make all love her. In her quiet way she has crept into every one's heart.

MARGUERITE CATHARINE HANEN

Marguerite, as her friends know, is as beautiful as she appears. A lover of business and music, some day we hope to see her among the other flowers of the concert hall, for her ambition is to be a concert pianist.

EVA LORAINNE HANSEN

Eva spends much time arrayed in her golden tresses and a lavender scarf learning to be charming. She pretends to do this in order to be a vamp of the "bright lights", but we all know that poor Leslie's concerned.

MARY HARBAUGH

"Pretty little Mary" has broken the record in basketry-making as she also has in the art of making friends, and although sorry to leave Central's dear old halls she will graduate with our class leaving many pleasant impressions behind her.

GLADYS EVELYN HARLOW

Gladys has won many friends at Central because of her pleasing personality and is noted for being a good sport. Her pet hobbies are movies and music. Her playing is only surpassed by that of the great artist, Pad-crewski.

RICHARD WHITMORE HARR

"Dick" is a regular Central-ite. He has worked hard in the cadet corps, and as manager of swimming during his four years here. His hobbies are drawing and sleeping, and, when he is awake, his one ambition is to be an architect.

HELEN SCOVELL HARRAH

You don't know Helen? Why, she is one of the sweetest little blondes in Central High. She has a lovely voice, and her ambition to be an opera singer will be realized, as she always succeeds in her desires.

KATHARINE GRAHAM HAWLEY

Swimming "C," 1920

To know "Trina" is to love her. Her personality charms every one who meets her. She has so many ambitions she doesn't know which to choose, but judging from the past four years at Central, we predict a record as a mermaid.

ONO HEALY

Ono is noted for her attractiveness. She's so attractive that, owing to her extensive traveling, she resembles the proverbial captain with a sweetheart in every port. Her ambition is to wear a divided skirt and manage the cows and —?

HOWARD HEID

Howard has easily passed all exams, leaving a fine scholarship record at Central. He has been a regular attendant at basketball and baseball practice for the past two years. He is planning to study medicine when he leaves Central.

ALICE ELIZABETH HERSEY

B-E-T-T-Y spells sport. Betty says "I'll try anything once." She is equally skillful in tickling the keys and making fudge. When she isn't traveling around the globe, she collects friends, and she has a host of real ones at Central.

ELIZABETH EDNA HESSE

"Hesse" is known and loved by every one and a jolly good pal. She is a wonderful dancer and also athletically inclined. It is her greatest ambition to be an illustrator and live in Greenwich village. Good luck, Hesse!

WILLIAM ALEXANDER HIPKINS, JR

*Review, 1916-1919
Bulletin Staff, 1918-1919*

Bill has finally decided to graduate(?) He is a jolly good fellow and a hail fellow well met. He aspires to be an expert accountant and a banker and hopes some day to be a Major League Umpire. We extend to him our heartiest wishes for success.

CATHARINE ANNE HOUGH

*Swimming "C," 1919-1920
Captain, Girls' Swimming, 1921
Review Staff, 1921*

During her first two years here, Catharine perambulated the straight and narrow. But in her Junior year, to escape growing into an angel, she took physics and lessons in the art of eye-manipulation. She has been growing more Kittenish ever since.

KENDALL KING HOYT

Debate

Depicted below is a famous military leader and orator (or shall we say bull shooter?). Ken hopes to become a writer. They say that already he has been offered a position on the editorial staff of the Whiz Bang.

Catharine Hough

LIFE MEMBER

MARGARET EDITH HUGHES

"Peggy's" beaming smile has brightened the halls of "Central" for four short years. But she departs, leaving sweet memories and a perfect record. She says that she is going to college. But we foresee a long blonde reason to refute this statement.

EMMA WILLIAMS HULBERT

Emma "Billie" Hulbert is a "sure-nuff" O. K. girl. She loves to dance, is a good sport, and is always laughing. She is fair-haired, blue-eyed, and an artist. Her friends are many. Here's to our "Billie"! Make it LOUD.

HELEN LULA HUMMER

Helen has two ambitions, one to be a lawyer and the other to grow about two inches. Her hobbies are falling on the ice and losing golf balls on the bunkers. She will attend George Washington next fall. Good luck Helen!

IRVIN LELAND HUNT, JR.

Irvin came to us from Virginia to complete his high school career. He is corporal in the cadets, and proves himself to be a man of military ability. Next year will see him at West Point. "Go to it, Irvin."

THELMA HUNT

*Scholarship
Review Staff, 1921*

Thelma, in the illustrious class of "E" students, has not only impressed teachers of Central with her brilliance, but has even stimulated the gray matter of her classmates. Her ability as a student is only exceeded by her "winnin' ways."

MARY FLOREINE HURLEY

Floreine, famous for her golden voice, first descended upon a waiting world in Washington, D. C. Already pronounced an embryo genius, early in life she set out to justify the claim. Today her pet ambition is a career in Grand Operadom.

LLOYD WHALEN HYATT

"Ily-att" is known to his friends as an "E" student of Sciences. While here he has taken Physiography, Physics and Chemistry. He is also known for his argumentative abilities, so he always likes an argument. He is small, but always heard from.

MILES HOPKINS INLAY

Football "C," 1920

An important member of society, Miles holds the honor of having broken the most bones for the school. For this and other reasons, he is thoroughly respected by all. His ambition is to captain some University of Pennsylvania crew.

KATHRYNE LOUISE INGRAM

Kathryne is the happy-go-lucky sort of person that every one adores. Her bewitching smile never fails to entice the "youngsters." Though she is in the Army, she may soon belong to the Navy, judging by her frequent visits to Annapolis.

WINIFRED BOYCE ISRAEL

Winnie is from the "sunny South." During the four years of her career at Central, she has made many friends, but now she is going to Normal to make as many more. Here's good luck, Winnie, in teaching your kindergarten.

JOSEPH CHARLES JACKSON

"A million by forty and a wife by twenty." This is Joe's ambition. We cheerfully concede that Joe can get plenty of wives if he wants them, but as to the million-dollar part of it, we are a bit skeptical.

KARL ENNALS JARRELL

Manager Track, 1921

Karl, or "Lefty" as he is known by his classmates, has always been a "helping hand" to all of his teachers, but this is not the reason for his good scholastic standing. Among the Track men he stands out as a hard worker, always ready to give a new man a chance.

JAMES HYATT JEFFERY

"Jeff" has been a loyal Centralite for the past four years. He is greatly interested in athletics, especially track, and hopes to be a pole-vaulter before he leaves. Next fall he will attend George Washington to study architectural drawing.

DORIS JEFFREY

Doris' attractive personality and carefree ways make her a regular good sport and an all-round pal. These and her dramatic talent will remain as pleasant memories to innumerable Centralites, and be much more to many who will continue her companionship.

WILMA SINTON JERMAN

*Scholarship
Swimming "C," 1920*

The life of the party, a dramatic star, a "C" winner, a marvelous cook, and with it all, a scholarship student. "Billy's" favorite pastime is swimming across the Basin, her ambition, to grow strawberries on the cliff at Chain Bridge.

HARRY WISWELL JOHNSON

First Lieutenant, Company E

In athletics, studies and the Cadet Corps, Harry has been a real leader, and his record at Central is something to be proud of. We can predict a great future for any one with the strong personality by which Harry has distinguished himself.

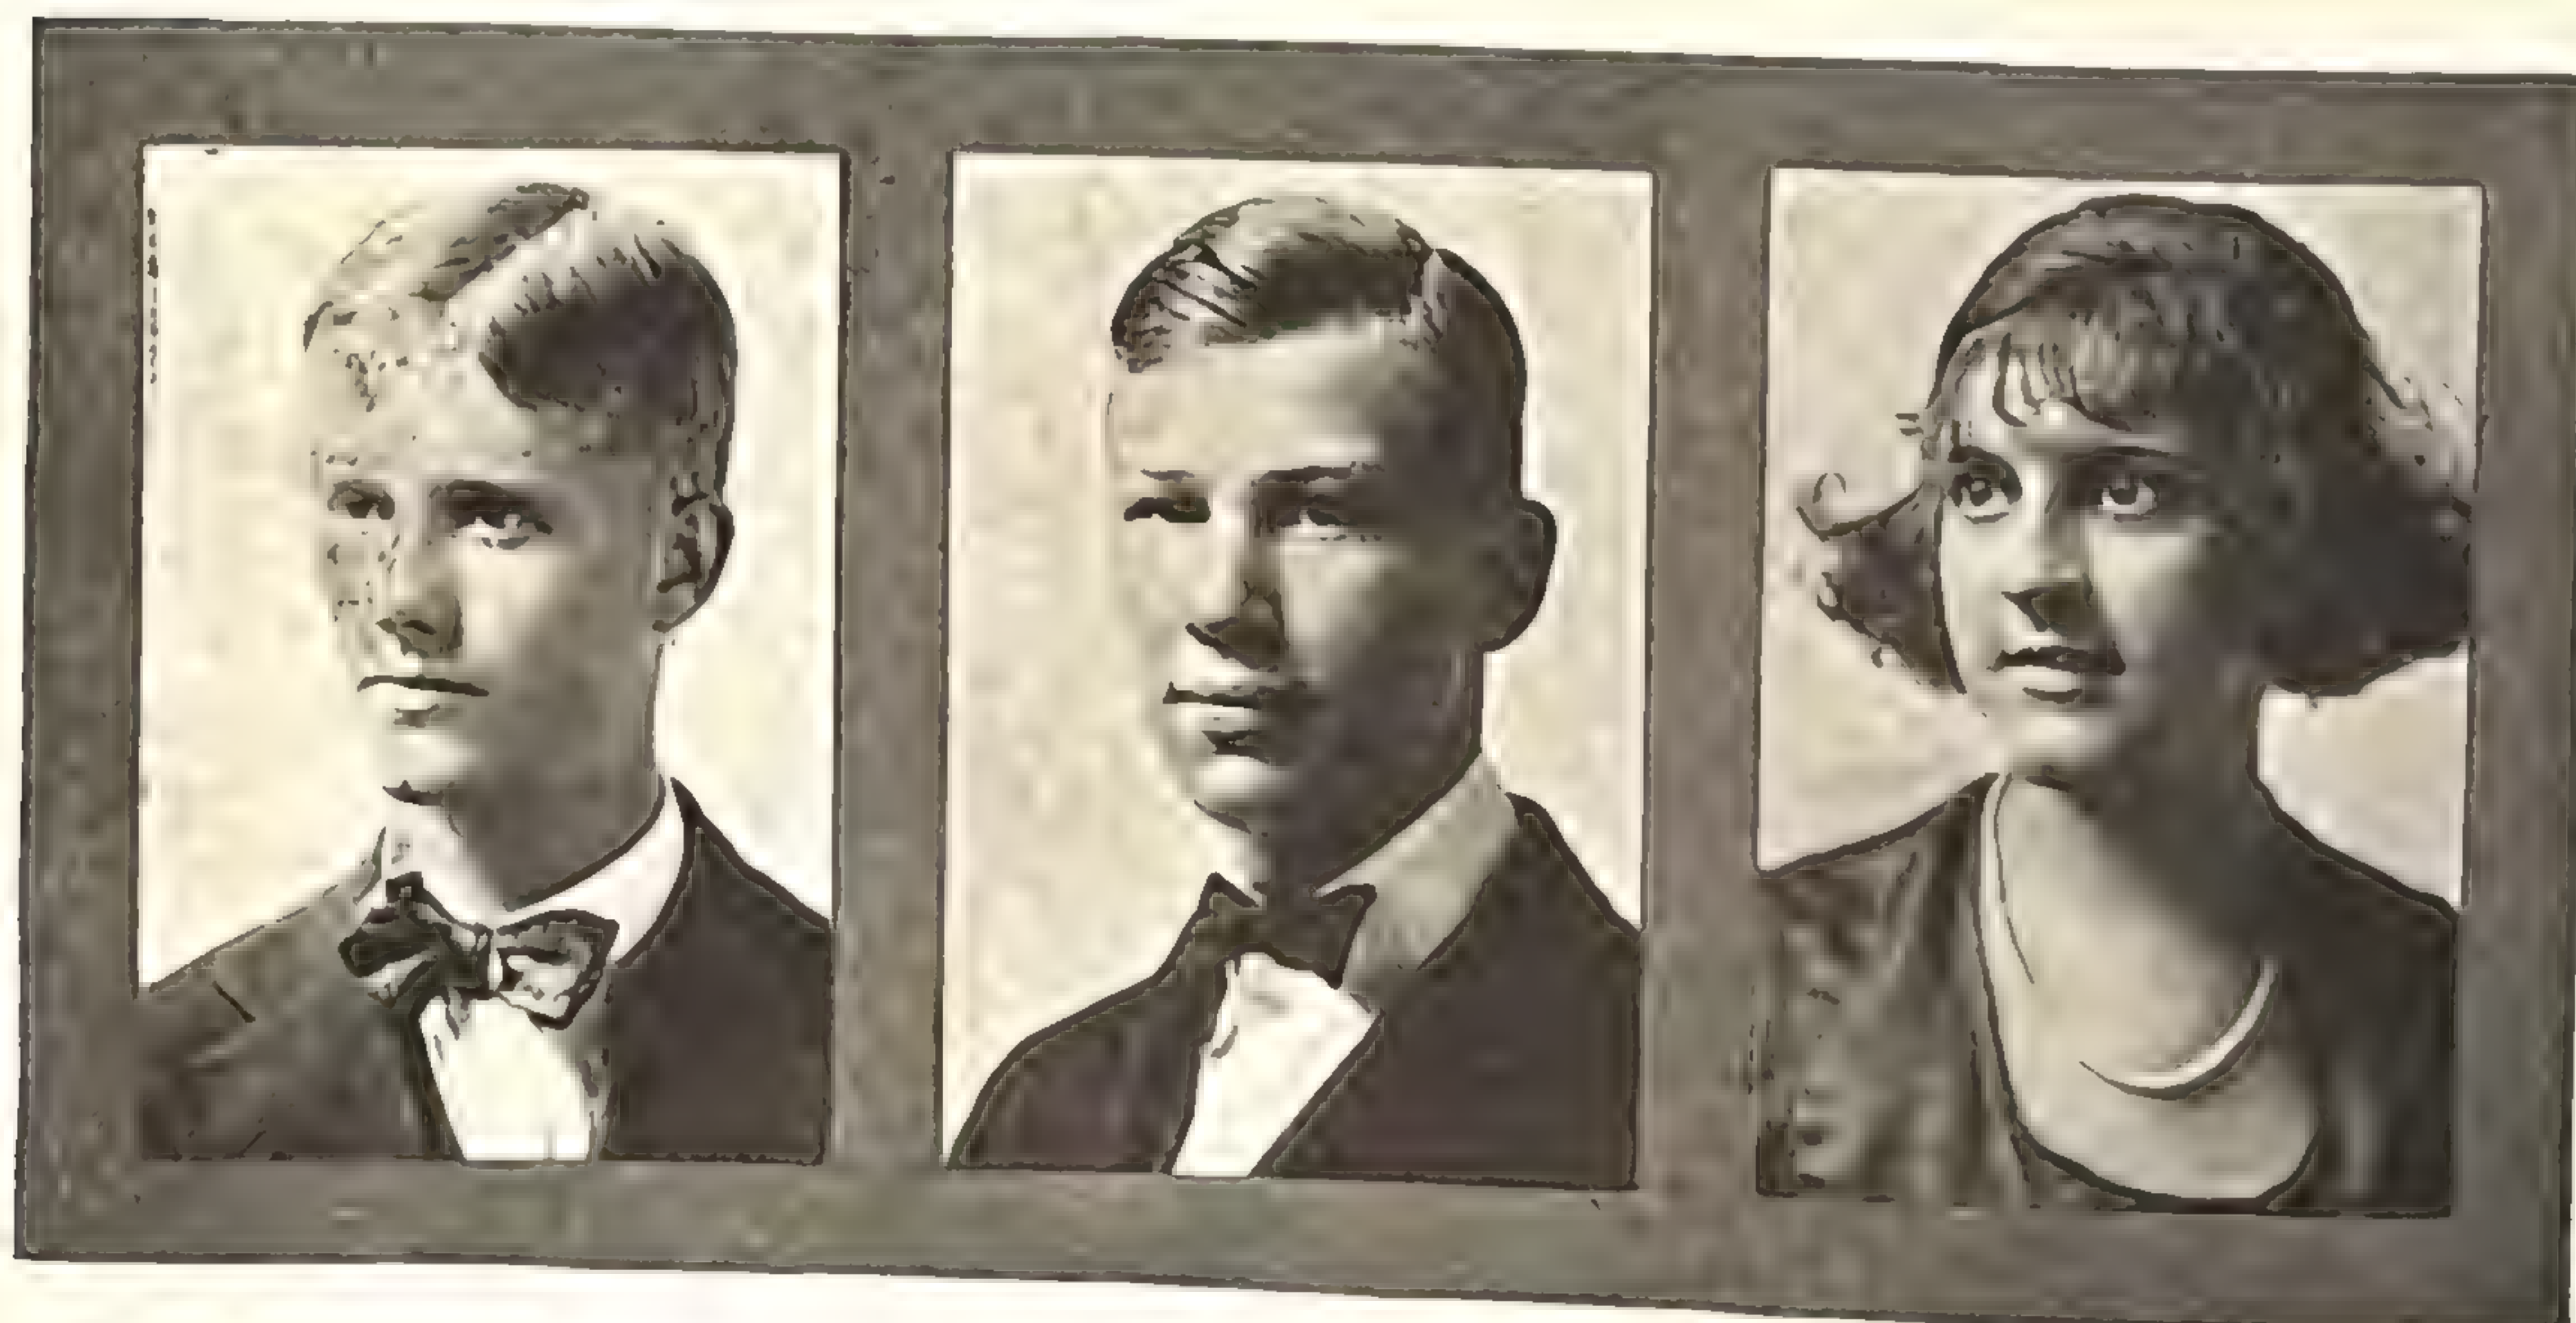

HOWARD RAVENSCRAFT JOHNSON

*Captain, Lightweight Football Team, 1920
Manager Baseball, 1921 "C," '21*

"Skeetz" is one of the most faithful and dependable all-round athletes Central has ever had. He expects to enter Annapolis after graduation, and we may expect to see his name in the sporting section, as "Navy's star left end."

MINNIE JOHNSON

She is just a regular little pal, who is leaving a trail of friends behind her. Her favorite hobbies are dancing and helping her friends have a good time. Ask her ambition—well—she is going to be a real saxophone artist!

deceased

OLGA MAE JOHNSON

A little girl with a great big smile—that's Olga. Her winning ways have made scores of friends for her at Central. She adores basketball (especially the team), and if you think she can't dance—well, just try her once.

RUDOLPH CORNELIUS JOHNSON

Johnson has the rare ability of making friends quickly. His ever-present smile seems to be contagious. Central will miss this "ray of sunshine" when he has gone. This boy is sure to make a success of everything he tries.

STUART CURTIS JOHNSON

Stuart will answer to the name of either "Shorty" or "Stu"; by this one can easily realize his popularity. His hobby is track. His favorite subject is known as queening, which he has practised diligently during his high school course.

HUGH JOHNSTON

Track "C," 1918-'19-'20-'21
Captain, Track Team

Hugh needs no introduction to us. His reputation as a track star has preceded him. His track history is just one long line of first places. We do not know what "Bill" Foley and the track squad will do without him.

EDWARD KEYSE JONES

Football "C," 1919-1920
Review Staff

Everybody knows that good-looking fellow who played on the football team. "Eddie" has won honors both for Central and himself. He is one of the most popular members of the class, and will long be remembered at Central.

GRACE ELIZABETH JONES

Although Grace has been with us but a year, she has made many friends. Her ambition is to be a domestic science teacher. She plans to attend Virginia Polytech Institute next year should it be made a Co-ed. We wish her luck.

LIFE MEMBER

LAMBDA SIGMA

LIFE MEMBER

KATHLEENE SHEPHERD JONES

Although Kathleene has lived in Washington ten years, she has not lost any of her love for good old Virginia. Next year Kathleene is going to Mary Baldwin Seminary. Her greatest ambition is to rival Kreisler. Here's wishing her luck!

NEILSON JONES

Class Treasurer
Football "C," 1919-'20
Captain Football, 1920

A good fellow in every sense is our noble captain of football. He has been as efficient and as capable a football captain as we have ever had. To the University of Wisconsin he will go to become a renowned farmer.

LAURENCE HARDER JUDSON

He has been a quiet chap through his four years here. His spice of life is chemistry and movie operating. He shines in that: "Larry" is going to Boston Tech in the fall to study civil engineering. Central's behind you, boy.

NORMA JOSEPHINE KALE

While Norma only came to us this year, she soon learned the intricate ways of Central. Although she is always studying Latin (no wonder she is a Latin star) she is never too occupied to lend a helping hand.

MARIE KATHERINE KANNARY

Although Marie has not been with us four years, she has endeared herself to the hearts of many. The greatest of her many rare qualities is her talent for making people like her at which she is quite a genius.

ISADORE KAPLAN

"Izzie," during the past four years, has proved himself a true Centralite. His scholastic record contains many hard-earned "E's." As a track man, "Kap" surely can fly over the cinders. His ever-present smile has made him a favorite among his friends.

dr

ALICE VIRGINIA KELIHER

Associate Editor Brecky

Review Staff, 1919-'20

Bulletin Staff, 1920-'21

Manager Girls' Glee Club, 1921

Blessed with an unlimited capacity for work and a desire to do everything well, Alice has achieved unusual honors. Her motto is "short and sweet"; her hobby, explosives; her recreation, tennis; and her pride, "Billy." Surely she is a real Central girl.

Mrs John H Long

KATHERINE NEVILLE KEYSER

"K. K.," one of Old Virginia's truest products, although she has only been with us three years, has, through her charming personality, won many friends by whom she will never be forgotten. By the help of her unceasing efforts, D-8 was made one of Central's best sections.

Queens Lake Va

EVA BEATRICE KELLY

Eva hasn't been at Central long, but what daughter of the "Sunny South" cannot make you think that she has been a Centralite all her life? To be a toe-dancer and rival Pavalowa is her greatest ambition. Wouldn't Annette Kellerman do?

PAUL JOHN KIEL

Captain Company A
Review Staff, 1920-'21

"Paul's" excellent qualities of leadership, combined with his straightforward manliness, is bound to bring him great success in his chosen field, the United States Navy. His many friends wish him the greatest success in his ambition to graduate from Annapolis.

lead

DOROTHY JEAN KEMBALL

"Dot," a cheery optimistic person, is brimming over with spirit which she shows by her participation in school activities. She is a swimming leader, a good student and a loyal chum. Her ambition is to graduate from New Haven Normal.

HARRISON GILL KILDARE

Scholarship—All "E's"

Class Valedictorian

Captain Company G, 1921

Brecky Staff, 1920-'21

Review Staff, 1920-'21

Bulletin Staff, 1919-'20

Harrison's four years here have been attended by faithful work for Central, many honors, and a pleasant time. A host of Central friends wish him the same success throughout college and throughout a brilliant legal career.

ROSE MARY KILLIAN

When some one said "Everybody loves her," he spoke the thought of the whole class concerning Rose. Her cheerfulness is enough to cheer any one on even the bluest of blue Mondays. Here's luck to you, Rose. We're backing you!

BARNWELL RIHETT KING

Why, yes, he is that good-natured fellow whose type the teachers like to have in their classes—a rather quiet companion until he gets hungry. Let's wish him the best of luck at Annapolis, for he will be there soon.

DOROTHY TAZEWEILL KING

Dorothy is a charming "petite fille" who comes from "way down in Virginia." Good sport? We'll say so! Her motto is, "Laugh, and the world laughs with you." Her ambition—well, the greatest one is to attend a Southern finishing school.

HENRY EMANUEL KING

Football "C," 1919-'20

Now truly, Henry is a serious, level-headed fellow—when the occasion demands it—with a great deal of spirit. His hobby is football, and he played center on the team. His ambition is to become Washington's foremost business man.

ELEANOR KATE KINGSLEY

Here's a miss who makes out our tardy slips. Even if she does refuse to write "Excused" when we just naturally oversleep, her ready smile restore our good nature. Eleanor's ambition is to indulge in winter sports at St. Moritz, Switzerland.

WILLIAM MERLE KLINE

Scholarship

"A head to contrive and a hand to execute," that's Bill. During his four years here his genial disposition and smiling countenance have made him a popular member of our class. Bill's ambition is to become a mechanical engineer.

JOHN KENDALL KNOCH

In his four years at Central "Ken" has had a very enjoyable time. Though he has not studied too hard, he has managed to get along passably with his teachers. His chief pastime is walking the corridors during lunch periods.

EMMETT BARRETT KNOCK

This charming young fellow with his blonde complexion is the hope and pride of the school. He is a good sportsman, tennis receiving his most ardent attention. Witness his ambition? He is going to Yale! Could one say more for him?

ANNA SOPHIA KNOUSE

Anna arrived at Central, in February, 1920, and has made many friends during her short stay here. If you want a thrilling story of snowballs, sleigh rides, and midnight tragedies, just ask Anna to relate some of her Pennsylvania adventures.

ADELINE MIRIAM KORMAN

All who have known Adeline during her four years at Central, will readily agree that her sweet nature and charming personality have endeared her to all. She craves to inhabit Washington Square and amaze the public with her magazine covers.

GERTRUDE LOUISE KRAUS

"Googie," a very studious girl, is finishing her high school career in three and a half years. Her ambition to become a second Angelo is no joke, as one may see if he visits her private "studio" in her dad's garage.

MINNIE KRITT

Minnie's splendid record of continuous "E's" has endeared her to the faculty, while her jolly good nature has won her many staunch friends among the students. And can she dance! First prizes for dancing are nothing new to her.

MARGARET HELEN KUDEL

Have you ever been to a game and seen a girl's head up above all the others? Well, that's Kudel, better known as "Kieb." She's an enthusiastic rooter, a dandy basketball player, and a great pal. Her ambition reaches to a "C. P. A."

ETHEL GENEVIEVE LANE

Her looks are very deceiving. Although Ethel appears to be quiet and calm, she is very jolly company. She is continually complaining about her height. Her greatest desire in this life is to shrink two or three inches.

URBAN SAUNDERS LAMBERT

President, Bank

You'll often see Lambert with a ruler and penholder in hand beating time to some popular melody. His favorite sport is counting cold cash. Ask him if Alexandria is still running. He expects to tackle the University of Virginia next.

ROBERT BEN LAMBERTON

Football: "C," 1920

Ben hails from the Wild West in general and Minnesota in particular. His life ambitions are to be a famous cartoonist and to raise side-burns. Breaking broncos is his hobby, and his famous expression is "Darn my Wild-Western soul."

ROSE MARY LAMBIASE

Rose is an attractive little Miss with a charming personality. She is an accomplished musician and always responds to the call of a good time. Her ambition since childhood has been to be a school teacher. She will enter Normal next fall.

HELENA ALBERTA LANGE

Helena came to dear old Central four years ago and entered all our hearts. She is a sweet, kind, and quiet girl, having all those qualities that a "tru-blue" Central girl should possess. We know that she will succeed.

Jane Larkin

CATHERINE MARY LANTEL

Catherine spends most of her study halls trying to believe and console "very sick" young ladies in the rest room. However, she can seldom be found during the lunch hour owing to a certain young man and a certain auto.

LILLIAN JANE LARKIN

Jane, a maid of Virginia, entered Central in 1919. She is justly famed for her liquid hazel eyes and her chocolate fudge, as well as her scholastic poise. Her private hope is to rival Annette Kellerman in the sea.

ROBERT CARY LATIMER

*Scholarship
Bulletin Staff, 1919-'20-'21*

If you want something done and done well, hunt up "Bolly." Also he is perpetually good natured. No wonder every one likes him. May he meet with the same success at college as he has had in the role of Editor.

EDWARD LLOYD LECKIE

Behold the villain of our Dramatic Society! Unlike most villains, Ned has a winning smile which will gain him many friends. Next year he intends to enter Georgetown to study law. Success has always been his, so watch his dust!

HELEN FRANCES LE HEW

For want of a nickname, Helen has at times been called, "you poke," "you genius," and sometimes just "you . . . !" She really is a darling, as all who know her will testify. Her hobbies are crafts, journalism, and the Glee Club.

JAMES HANSON LEMON

*Class President
Captain, Basketball, 1920-'21
Captain, Baseball, 1921
Football "C," 1919-'20*

We have with us our Class President, a man of letters. Jimmie has shown his school spirit and his abilities in athletics during the last four years. His ambition is to receive a sheepskin from Princeton. All success to Jimmie!

James H. Lemon

LIFE MEMBER

LAMBDA SIGMA

MAURICE LEVITAN

Maurice is a quiet fellow, but he has made a splendid scholastic record. His ambition is to become an accountant, and, judging from his work at school, we may be sure that he will succeed as one.

GOMER LEWIS, JR.

Four years of hard endeavor have reaped the reward for this ardent Centralite. Those active or interested in the social life of the school know Gomer more or less intimately, and give testimony to his strong personality and good will.

SAMUEL LEE LEWIS

Lee is that young Westerner who "breezed in" last semester from Oklahoma. Asked what his main ambition is, he replied that it was to find some one to support him in his present state of luxury. We know him better than that, however.

MYRTLE IVY LEWTON

Myrtle has acted in two spring plays, and she has as yet used no rouge. How does she do it? Well, at Central, basketball for three years, swimming leadership for two years, and tennis may have helped. Michigan's in luck!

EDGAR MARTIN LINSSENMEYER

It is rumored that Ed. has become quite attached to the Mack Sennett Comedies. Can you blame him? After seeing one of the aforesaid comedies, Ed has decided to take the advice of Horace Greeley, and "Go West."

JOHN MARSHALL LITTLEPAGE

Track "C," 1920-'21

John, a track team mainstay, is considered one of the best hurdlers in the District. His pleasing smile has made him a favorite with both faculty (?) and girls. He aspires to follow in his father's footsteps as a lawyer. Good-luck, John!

Myrtle Lewton

NINA MAE LIVINGSTON

The whole school knows her by her absolutely original pigeon-toes, by those bewitching dimples, and her odd green-and-brown eyes. That's Nina herself. She will, no doubt, through her remarkable talent, be a famous artist in the near future.

FLORENCE LOCKWOOD

Florence's jolly disposition and quick understanding have won for her many friends. Her ambition is to be a famous lawyer, and we know that if she is as proficient in arguing as in making fudge, she will be a great success.

ANTOINETTE DOROTHEA LOETSCH

"Tony" is the Paderewski of our class. Besides her fame in music, she has an excellent and good school record, and excels in popularity. The next three years will find Antoinette taking a four-year college course, specializing in music.

JOHN HARVEY LONG

Here's another Centralito bound for Annapolis, and if "Johnny" makes as fine a record there as he has done here, he will be going some! His four years at Central have been sufficient to prove that anything he attempts will be a big success.

VICTOR DISMUKES LONG

First Lieutenant, Company B

"Vic" is a lady-killer and a popular fellow. The girls all fall for his blue eyes and rosy cheeks. His work in the Cadet Corps speaks for itself. We are sure that he will make his presence felt at Annapolis in the next four years.

FREDERICK KENT LOONIS

Kent, born in Parkersburg, West Virginia, in 1904, came to Central as a "rookie." As section representative he has, on numerous occasions, served the class well. He is best known as "The Goofus." His great weakness is for strawberry blondes.

LIFE MEMBER

FRANCIS DANIEL LOWE

An ardent supporter of school interests and possessing a track and cadet record, Lowe has proved himself a Centralite of no common merit. Dartmouth beckons to him, which I suppose means a Daniel Webster or a great skier is in the making.

JOSEPH WILLIAM LUDWIG

*Scholarship
Captain, Company K
Editor-in-Chief of Brecky
Review Staff*

The secret of Joe's popularity is his pleasant, cheery manner and his businesslike preciseness. In his four years of hustling at Central he has proved himself more than worthy of the honors he has received. Joe's ambition is to attend Annapolis.

ROBERT COUMBE LUDLUM

Colonel, Cadet Corps, 1921

"Bob" has been above all an excellent military student. In 1919 he received a medal given by the Alumni Association for marked ability in the Manual of Arms. All hats off to him for bringing back the Colonelcy to Central.

MARIAN STONE McBRIDE

Brecky Art Committee, 1921

Marian is a sure cure for all blues, and a true, sincere friend. She is afflicted with "movie-itis" but we all love her in spite of that fact. Her aspiration is to study art at Skidmore and become a magazine illustrator.

HAROLD WILLIAM McCAULEY

"Mac's" chief ambition is to become a lawyer. If his ability to talk continues to be as great as it has been during his four years at Central, we predict for him immediate success in his chosen profession. He plans to attend Georgetown University.

ANITA ALICE McCORD

Anita came to us at the beginning of our Senior year, from New Jersey. Since that time she has become known as a star in both English and history. Her ambition is to be a stenographer employed by a handsome young man.

CARROLL ALONZO MCCOY

Carroll McCoy has been a real Central student who has been following the maxim: "Learn to creep before you run." He has just been creeping, and when he starts out on the run, every one surely will know it.

EVA MARIE MCCUBBIN

Eve is right there when it comes to anything she tries to do. She is contemplating taking a course at Wilson Normal, but you know that one who has black hair and blue eyes like her's was never known to teach long.

ALEXANDER STUART MCDILL

As a member of the Rifle Team, Al certainly has been hitting the high spots. February 5th he was known to reach home at 3 A. M. Although he has done nothing sensational during his two years at Central, he is one of whom the school can well be proud.

OLIVE ELIZABETH MCENALLY

"Pat" is the quiet little maid who came from Winterpock, Virginia. Although she has only been at Central one year, she has won a place in many hearts. She doesn't even mention her chief ambition, but we all wish her luck.

DONALD MCGREGOR

Look out, girls, this is McGregor. He is a railroad man, which makes him faster than the rest of the boys. All of us are familiar with his winning smile and popular jokes. His ambition is to be president of a railroad.

MARIAN VONFINCK MCKINLEY

Though Marian has been with us but two short years, she has proved herself a hard worker. She hails from West Virginia. Her one ambition is to be a musician, and knowing her, we are sure it will be realized.

CECELIA MARIE McNAMARA

"Cel" after four years of hard(?) study, leaves Central with many regrets. She contemplates going to college, but we fear that she will have to hide those bewitching dimples from the opposite sex. In social activities Cel is a wizard.

ELIZABETH MARY McNAMARA

"Mac" is always handy around school. Especially last spring she was a shining light every day in the kitchen making candy for the spring play. Her ambition is to be a school ma'am so Normal will see her next year.

WINIFRED AGNES McNIEL

Winnie's last year at Central was also her first. She has spent her time roaming from school to school, and picked the best one to get her diploma from. Accomplishment? Ask any one who has seen her swim.

VIRGINIA JANE McSORLEY

This charming senior known as "Pat" has upset the traditions of the staid city of Boston from which she hails, by her everlasting chatter and gaiety. There is one freshman at the University of Pennsylvania who is fortunate in having "Pat" greatly interested in him.

BERYL MANCHESTER

Beryl is that brown haired young lady seen sprinting down the main corridor at 8:59 every morning. We are inclined to believe that she does it just for exercise because her ambition is to be tall and willowy.

FREDA LORENA MARKS

She loves a good time, but is not afraid of work, for she expects to attend Normal next year, though I doubt very much if she ever becomes a teacher. Her favorite pastime is eating parfaits at Nunnally's — good judgment.

GLADYS ELIZABETH MARKS

Gladys, in her four years at Central, has won the hearts of many friends. She is a little roly-poly girl from "ole Virginie" and expects either to be a "math" teacher or an opera singer. Here's good luck to her.

NELSON TINDALL MEEDS

Nelson is a mighty good fellow, a hard, conscientious worker, and a friend to those that know him best. Next fall he intends entering Maryland University to study engineering. We wish Nelson the best of luck for his future career.

CLYDE BRUNELL MELVILLE

*Business Manager, Brecky
Vice-President, Bank, 1920-'21
Circulation Mgr., Review, 1920-'21*

"He hath a roguish eye and dimpled cheek." Nevertheless, Clyde has his serious moods; he might be called "The Thinker." These are necessary attributes for our future financier, for we know that Mack Sennett will be a big man some sweet day.

RUTH MARIE MENZEL

Ruth is a good sport, interested in fishing, canoeing, Annapolis, and nursing. She is a typical minister's (retired) daughter when it comes to cutting up, but otherwise she is a quiet, unassuming, true Centralite of a large family of Centralites.

VIRGINIA MERRITT

Not exactly a complete "heart-smasher," but a wonderful pal. She stands out among our "21's" as the little girl from the Middle West who simply adores dancing along with all other sports. She will long be remembered, for, to know her is to love her.

FLORENCE ELIZABETH METCALF

Her attractive manner and fine character, added to her many other charms, have won Florence a permanent place in the hearts of all her classmates. Florence intends to become a stenographer. We are sure that she will be an excellent one.

Virginia Merritt
Σ 1

LIFE MEMBER

WINIFRED MCGREGOR MICHAELSON

"Wee," like others who are the opposite of her nick-name, has a cheerful disposition. Some day we will applaud her, a famous concert pianist. "Mike" is a good friend, has talent, and "a skin you love to touch."

WILFRED HARDY MICHAUD

Wilfred, our witty New Englander, will represent Central in the law and undoubtedly become our leading politician. In his four years at Central he has already shown his legal ability and is rapidly developing the proper politician's figure.

WALTER RUSSELL MIKESSELL

Football "C," 1920

"Mike," as this energetic young man is called by his many friends, has realized one of his ideals, the football "C." No one, knowing Mike, can doubt that he will attain the other, which is to succeed in the automobile business.

COLTON FITZGERALD MONTAGUE

*Scholarship
First Lieutenant, Company A*

"Monty," our gallant Irishman of the Western appearance and Southern manners, is the envy of the boys and—well no need to mention the girls. His genial disposition and his endless repertoire of jokes make him the best friend imaginable.

CATHERINE LOIS MOOMAW

Scholarship

Good things come in small quantities and Lois is no exception. She is a fine student and a true friend to all. Math is her hobby, and her ambitions are to be an expert accountant and to learn to swim.

JESSE ALBERT MORGAN

*Scholarship
Review Staff*

Among those who have made a success of their school work, the name of Jesse Morgan is among the most prominent. His record is one which commands respect. His many friends at Central wish him the same success in all that he undertakes.

AGNES MAY MORRIS

Agnes possesses a large fund of common sense, and is a guaranteed gloom-chaser, facts which will surely carry her far on the road to success. Moreover, she is endowed with the rare faculty of appreciating a joke, even when on herself.

GRACE CHESTER MOSER

Grace is a lively little daughter of the South, who came to Central some three years ago from sunny Tennessee. Her baby star is irresistible, also her knack of shimmying and "cake-eating." Her ambition is to be a famous dancer.

CATHERINE LOUISE MULLALY

Bulletin Staff, 1920

Catherine is one of these delightful, lovable girls with a divine scholarship record, and is seldom quiet. She has made many friends everywhere and has shone in Dramatics for two years. Her ambition is to go to Trinity, but after that—?

PAULA JEANNE MULLER

She is a winsome and sweet young lady with a wonderful ability for art. Her beautiful dark complexion and sparkling eyes put one in mind of sunny France. She holds a warm place in the hearts of all who know her.

JOHN JOSEPH MURPHY

*Brigade Adjutant
Review Staff*

"Some jokes are to be endured; 'Pat's' are to be enjoyed." Those who say that "Pat" was crying when he first came into this world were mistaken, for he was telling his first original joke. It has been said that one does not need to tickle himself while "Pat" is around.

GLADYS MARY MURRAY

"Sweeter as the years go by," describes Gladys perfectly. You can't find a truer friend or a better chum anywhere. Her favorite pastimes are camping and swimming, and she declares that it is her greatest ambition to swim a mile.

MARGARET PATRICIA MURRAY

Always obliging, with her quiet, unassuming manner, "Deeta" has won her way into the hearts of her fellow-students. Her classmates can testify to her good scholarship. She is a wonderful cook and intends to specialize in that subject at college.

MILDRED MOORMAN MURRAY

*Class Prophet
Brecky Staff
Bulletin Staff, 1920*

Lovable, popular, charming—that's Mildred. No one could ever sing all her praises. They are too many. But no matter where she goes or what she does, Mildred will always be successful and loved by every one. Annapolis? Ask Mildred; she knows!

WALTER CLAUDE MYERS

One of these days Myers is going to make his mark in the world. With the record he leaves behind him at Central, he cannot help but succeed. He expects to take law and continue his track work at college.

GLADYS ELIZABETH NICHOLS

Although Gladys has only been with us at Central for a year, she has made many friends. They all wish her lots of luck as she is going to study violin at Peabody. Besides this, she is looking around for pupils!

GEORGE ARTHUR NINAS, JR.

"Christmas" is the only nickname that Arthur has won at Central. He is so-called because he is slow in coming. Being absent-minded he expects to be a college professor, though he may be his ideal of a professional tramp.

GLADYS NORWOOD

Gladys is the truest of the true. Every one who knows her—knows that she is always ready, always willing to help us less fortunate ones than herself. Her sympathy and cheery disposition have won for her a permanent place in our hearts.

Roy - June 1922

JOSEPH NOTES

Joseph Notes was born in Washington and expects to complete his education here by attending G. W. U. after he graduates. During his four years at Central he has maintained a good scholastic record and expects to do the same in college.

ROY BERNARD O'BRIEN

We will always remember Roy as a true Centralite. A better sport and as good a student are scarcely ever found together. As a cadet and as a substitute on the baseball, basketball, and football teams he has shown true school spirit.

LYLE WAYNE OILANDER

First Lieutenant, Company K

Lyle is a likeable Centralite who can use his head, hands and feet to good effect, either for sense or nonsense, music or jazz, waltz or censor. He has hitched his ambition to the brightest star of a Virginian—Law.

LILLIAN FLORENCE PADGETT

Behold one of our prettiest and most vivacious seniors. What would her friends do without Jimmy? Her favorite amusements outside of school are dancing and movies. Florence's ambition is to get a position as private secretary to an oil-magnate.

VIRGINIA MAY PARTON

Art Editor, Brecky

Speaking of art, we have here among us a coming "master-ess." Miss Virginia is a major art pupil here, and intends teaching this subject after Normal School.

DOROTHY HOWARD PEARSALL

"Dot" is one of those rare individuals whose very unobtrusiveness has won her way into all our hearts. In addition she is a clever student, good sport, and—well, look at her picture. Fortunate senator who obtains her as private secretary!

JOHN LINCOLN PEARSON

John is just another of the poor smitten ones, but such is the life of a heart-breaker. John's hopes are now turned toward Lehigh and a degree from that University in Electrical Engineering. Here's to his success.

MADEL VIRGINIA PEARSON

This diminutive lady's chief ambition in life is to be a nurse, and she surely would make a good one. The only trouble is that all the patients, when they see her, will say, "I don't want to get well."

JOSEPHINE FRANCES PECKHAM

*Scholarship
Editor, Review*

"Jo" is to Central a true-blue Centralite, to her friends "a jolly good soul," to her teachers a fine student, and to the Review a successful Editor-in-chief. Her ambition—oh, you'd be surprised! (I dare not tell). So here's for success, our best luck, and good wishes.

GERTRUDE MARIE PHILLIPS

Gertrude, a quiet and studious girl, has lovely traits and qualities which are only fully discovered by those who know her intimately. She has been successful in everything that she has undertaken at school, except—arriving at school on time.

LOUISE ELIZABETH POINDEXTER

Review Staff

Louise, who came to us from Kansas and entered in her Junior year, is one of the violinists in our school orchestra. She has many friends. She is not sure whether her ambition is to be another Annette Kellerman or Pavlowa.

CLARENCE HENRY PORTER

*Scholarship—All "E's"
Captain, Company F*

"Clare" belongs to the "go-and-get-its," whose motto is action, not words. He has proved that it is possible to get all "E's" and have a good time as well. Furthermore, Clare intends to become the world's greatest mechanical engineer.

ALICE ESTEL POWELL

Alice is just Alice. She is very hard to describe, but she's a dear. Her hobbies are musical comedies, dancing, and movies—especially when Thomas Meighan is on the screen. "Monkey" is going to be a private secretary. Good Luck!

HAZEL HOUGHTON PRICE

Our fair Patrick from Oakland, California, has had the honor of being a Centralite only a year. She is a true daughter of the State of Gold. "Pat's" plans for the future are writing and traveling. Her favorite pastime is riding horseback on a "Latin Pony."

MARGARET JEANETTE PRIMM

Scholarship

Peggy is known among her classmates as a conscientious student. She is one of those girls who is jolly, yet serious when occasion demands. She does her work because of the desire to learn and not merely for the credits.

CAREY PRESTON PROCTOR

When a boy does not strive to be different from his companions, he wins their friendship. Carey has proved this beyond a doubt. Although he has not distinguished himself in athletics, he has made a good start on his career.

EDWARD ALEXANDER PROCTOR

*Second Lieutenant Company D
Review Staff*

Here is a dashing blonde lieutenant, who is famous among the fair sex for his remarkable dancing. After completing his four years in true Central spirit, his next ambition is to graduate from Princeton. We know that he will succeed

ELBERT WENTWORTH PROCTOR

He is a good scout—always has been. He is going to Carnegie Tech to study electrical engineering and from there to the presidency of the General Electric Company. At present, his hobby is movie operating. Here's luck to you, "Wenty," boy.

VIVIAN EMMA RAGAN

Bulletin Staff, 1920-1921

Vivian is a musician, loves to dance, and is graduating in three and a half years. She is a lovable friend, an enterprising Bulletin reporter, and a dramatic star. As for her ambition, she says that she wants to whiz away to college in a red racer.

VIOLET JANE RANSOME

Violet is a very sweet and lovable girl. Her ambitions are to go to college, to Europe, and to be an Interior Decorator. Her accomplishments are not limited for she can dance, sew, cook, is a wonderful little entertainer, n'everything.

MARY CECILIA RAUDER

Our Mary is a New Yorker and continually delights those who know her by her winsome enunciations. She has a spirit of mischief, and a rare streak of humor, a combination which makes her the best sort of sport and a good chum.

MARY VIRGINIA REDDISH

One day the gods were propitious and brought "Reddy" from Pittsburgh. Although she has an inexplicable aversion to Cicero, she admits that she likes Central more than Pittsburgh. We admire her good taste, which is evident in other school matters.

RUTH REICHGUT

Because of a fondness for drawing, Ruth wishes to become an Interior Decorator. Before long, in the opinion of those who know her and know her work, she will be one of the most famous Interior Decorators in the East.

SUSIE ELIZABETH KEYNOLDS

Susie joined the class of '21 in December, 1919, and has proved a welcome addition. She is a good student and enjoys all her classes except—well, we'd better not mention Burke. We know that she will make good as a librarian.

Virginia Reddish.

COOPER BURNETT RHODES

*First Lieutenant, Company M
Business Manager, Bulletin
Circulation Manager, Brecky*

Due to Cooper's earnest work on our school publications, the last few years have seen some of the best Central work in this line. He hopes to help bring the midyear company out on top and then, off for Dartmouth!

LEONARD WALLACE RICE

After leaving Central, this embryo peddler of law expects to pursue his profession in G. W. U. and become a Philadelphia lawyer. His ambitions are, to be a wealthy bachelor and acquire the inscription on his tombstone:

"BORN A MAN—DIED A LAWYER."

EVERETT RICHARD.

*Captain, Swimming, 1921,
"C," 1920-'21*

"Evy" was born and raised in the Capital City. He has been with us four years. Father Neptune has made him Knight of the Bath, and Annette Kellerman has nothing on him. He is a "shark" in the water.

JOHN HUBERT RICHARDSON

Hubert is a native of Philadelphia, but he is not a Quaker by a long shot. His ambition is to be a civil engineer. After finishing here, he will attend Cornell, and leave for the large field of South America.

THEODORE HAROLD RIDER

Rifle "C," 1920

Harold's specialty is arguing. In fact, he would almost rather argue than eat. Some day we shall see him argue his way to success. Another of his specialties is shooting. He has shot on the United States International Rifle Team.

AGNES VIVIAN RIDGWAY

Agnes has never been known to burn the midnight oil over lessons when she can be having a good time, but who can blame her for this? Her sweet disposition and good sportsmanship have made her many close friends.

Agnes Ridgway

GUSTAVE RING

Major, Second Battalion

Every one who knows Gus knows that he is a real boy, one who is willing to help those in trouble. He is excellent in scholarship, and is a major in the cadets. He surely will be successful in later life.

FRANCES LIEBERMANN ROACH

*Scholarship
Review Staff, 1920-'21*

Frances is the kind of pal who makes life worth while. Just gaze into those starry eyes, and see why she is called "Twinkles." She's a proof that "good things come in small packages." "Twinkles" aspires to write after studying at Trinity.

ERNEST WOODWARD ROBBINS

"Erny" hopes to graduate in June and enter the University of Maine next fall, to take up mechanical drafting. He has been a quiet chap during his four years here, but he will make speed when he gets started. Central, watch his dust!

EARL ROBERTS
*Baseball "C," 1919-'20
Football "C," 1920*

"Horse" hails from Maryland. He is a typical Centralite in every respect, and is liked by all who know him. His athletic career has been a very successful one, he being one of the mainstays of football and baseball teams.

WILLIAM WILLOUGHBY ROCHE

"Roche" as he is called by all of his friends, came to Central four years ago. He served for three years in the High School Cadets and was lucky enough to get two second places. His ambition is to become a civil engineer and go to South America.

MARIE RANKIN ROCKWOOD

Marie is a favorite with every one. She is both studious and attractive, a queer combination, expecting to complete her course in three and one-half years. Her one desire is to ride in a locomotive cab! Wonder who the engineer is?

FREDERICK HELME ROGERS

In spite of his many personal attachments in the school and admiration for the school, Rogers longs to be back in the old Creole State, "the" State. He plays the mandolin and likes all the fair ones. His sideline is civil engineering.

LORRAINE SERRIN ROSE

Lorraine, with her sweet and loving ways, has won a place in the hearts of all of us. We are sure that whoever said that good things come in small packages must have had Lorraine in mind. Little, but oh my!

PHILLIP ROSENFELD

"Rosy," we are sure, refers not only to his complexion (envied by all girls), but to his future, for, besides being a swimming star, he can show an array of E's that prove he will shine in the future as in the past.

MARY ELIZABETH VIOLET RULE

"Vi" is her nickname, and she aspires, sometime in the dim future, to go to Europe in the diplomatic service, and be the private secretary of an ambassador. She cannot decide whether her favorite hobby is tennis or the movies.

DOROTHY JANE RUSSELL

Brecky Staff

Dotty is one of our prettiest and most popular seniors. She has the magic art of combining good times and lessons, and coming out top-notch in both. How does she do it? Get to know her, if you don't already, and she'll show you.

IDA ELIZABETH SADIN

Art Editor, Review

What's the matter with Elizabeth? She's all right! Our art department will sustain a great loss when Elizabeth graduates. She says, "They say I'm going to be an artist, but I don't know." We know, don't we? Good luck, Elizabeth!

WARRINGTON RAPHAEL SANDERS

Second Lieutenant, Company A

"Warnie" is not the quiet and peaceful angel that he appears to be when adorning our midst, but is in reality a very vociferous young man. In fact, he has the reputation among his friends as being a lion among ladies.

JOHN MARSHALL SAUNDERS

Like most of us, Johnny came into Central with a light heart that has rippled all through his stay here. He is graduating in three and a half years. His ambition after he leaves Central is to become a doctor. Here's luck to you, "Johnny."

ELIZABETH SHERIFF SCHARY

During her four years at Central, "Lee" has made many warm friends. Although they will have come to the parting of the ways in June, she will always live in their memories as "the girl with the ready smile."

CARLTON GUSTAV SCHENKEN

Second Lieutenant, Company G

"Shanks" shines at getting "E's" without working for them. The "Gift of Gab" and a lasting grin are his chief assets. As a "Looney" he is a good fog-horn. Georgetown is mighty liable to make him become Chief Justice Schenken.

GERTRUDE MARIE SCHMIDT

Gertrude's bright and winning smile, and her sweet disposition have won for her innumerable friends. You can be sure of a fine time around Gertrude for she is always bubbling over with humor. Normal School will surely welcome her.

SYLVIA TERESA SCHWARTZ

Sylvia is the quiet, demure little girl who always knows her lessons. She is bright, too. Her ambition is to become a great musician. If she studies her music as she does her lessons, she will be sure to succeed.

LOUIS EDWARD SEIBOLD

Our most talented character actor intends to make a name for himself as a lawyer, which will deprive the stage of a shining light. "Never trouble trouble till trouble troubles you" accouts for his happy disposition. We wish him luck.

FRANK ALCERNON SEVERANCE

Captain, Company M

Frank, one of the most diligent working and best liked of our Senior Class, will always be remembered for his cheerful smile on all occasions. Although at a disadvantage with the midyear cadet company, he is showing others what real spirit is.

GRACE SHEPPARD

Grace came to us from New Jersey, in her second year of high school. She has a charming personality. Her greatest ambition is to pass her college entrance examinations for Smith College. Good luck, Grace! Her favorite pastime is eating.

SIBYL SHEWMAKER

This is the best marksman of the Girls' Rifle Corps. Steadfast of purpose, loyal to friends and studies, Sibyl holds a place among us singular to herself. She is sweet, lovable and thoroughly appreciated by all—except by Sibyl.

LOIS EVELYN SHIPMAN

Lois's reputation was won chiefly by virtue of her dancing at which she is a "whiz." As for her ambition she says she has none, but we all know that it is her secret desire to outdress and outstyle Elsie Ferguson.

FRANCES MAY SHOENAKER

Mae is the ideal friend, steadfast in her likes, almost impossible to anger, reliable through hard times and good; and with a dry sense of humor that makes her company delightful. Once one really makes her acquaintance she realizes what a friend is.

Sibyl Shewmaker

LIFE MEMBER
Mrs Emerson Smider

JOE MELVIN SILVERMAN

Joe came to Central four years ago, and has made Central swim with his vivacity. He has distinguished himself in basketball and other Central activities. After he leaves Central, he will become a lawyer. We all wish him good luck.

ALICE ANNA SKEELS

We needed some one to jolly us up so we introduced ourselves to "Skeets," who manages to be bright and cheery, and study Burke at the same time. Alice is a fine student and a great asset to the class of '21.

DOROTHY MAY SMALLWOOD

Jolly "Dot" is every one's friend. For four years she has helped see the candy sale through. Her ambition is to be a nurse, and with her smiling face, sunny nature, sympathy, and perseverance we know that her success is sure.

ELEANOR ELIZABETH SMITH

The taciturnity of this sweet-tempered Centralite is merely a mask for her numerous enviable qualities. She is a fine example of the old adage, "Still waters run deep." Her greatest desire is—Sh—You'd be surprised!

ELIZABETH PEPPER SMITH

"Teety," lovely army lass, has wandered widely, but adores Kentucky. Four years at Central are filled with "E's." Her ambition? To find a Perfect Man in the Service. Meanwhile she will graduate from Goucher, write poems and novels and illustrate both.

FRANK DELARME SMITH

Review Staff 1920-'21
Bulletin Staff, 1920-'21

Some day Frank will have a prominent position in the scientific world. He is a hard worker and has a splendid scholastic average. We are sure that he will make a success in his chosen field, that of chemist.

HELENA MASK SMITH

Swimming "C," 1920

"Smithy," our sixteen-year-old Senior, is a true blue Centralite, starring in swimming and studies. She received the "C" in swimming last year. Her ambitions are in the business line; to be a private secretary, or a Spanish interpreter.

HOMER JACKSON SMITH

Among the bright and shining lights of our class, "Jaybird's" smile outshines them all. Being of a sunny disposition and an optimistic mood, he has always been a favorite among the fair sex. Why shouldn't he smile!

HELEN ELIZABETH SOMMERS

*Class Vice-President
Manager, Tennis, 1920-'21*

You can't get Helen ruffled because—well, just because she's Helen. Perhaps her sweet disposition, her generous good nature, and her smile are the reasons for her hosts of friends. We are sure of it! Her ambition—here's to its early realization—is a "C."

FREDERICK KROEBER SPARROW, JR.

Fred is a good fellow. His friendship is prized by all, and it is said that he is a "bird" with the fair sex. We have all heard and appreciated the music of this accomplished artist on our great organ.

REBECCA ANITA SPRUCE

She is that "Virginia Maid" with the charming Southern accent, whose friendly smiles and sweet disposition have won her many friends. She loves to eat, write letters, answer long-distance calls, but best of all—dance. Can she? Just ask Ken!

WILLIAM HENRY STANTON

Willie is an adept at many and varied sports, if you believe the sweater he wears. He writes poetry merely as an indoor sport, and has been known to talk to a girl without trembling. His present ambition is to be a lady-killer.

Martha

ETHEL RANDEL STEADMAN

"Steady," one of the most popular girls at Central, has charmed the hearts of many Centralites by her sunny disposition. Her captives aren't limited to school, either, as Andy will tell you. However, "Steady" goes by "Variety is the Spice of Life."

ELSIE MARVETTE STEARNS

Many Centralites as well as others have succumbed to Elsie's charm and pleasing personality. Beside being a good student and athlete she is a real sport. We feel sure that she will make a success of whatever she undertakes.

MARTIJA ELIZABETH STOKES

"Stokey's" art of gauging the time for her arrival at school is remarkable. Never early, rarely late, she's usually on the dot. Whatever she undertakes is sure to be well done. We wish her the best of success in the future.

MARCELLUS HENRY STOW

Captain Rifle Team, "C," 1919-'20

The past three years "Mar" has been a member of our Rifle Team, of which he is at present captain. He has ably distinguished himself, having been high man of all high schools in 1920 with the score of 1982.

BERNICE STUART

Bernie greets every one with a smile, and her sweetness will get her what we wish, a bright future. Her one ambition is to go to college; we know that she will succeed. Her only failing is second lieutenants.

"Twinnie"
Bernice Stuart

JOSEPH CARMELO SURACI

Coming to Central in 1917, Joe settled down to his studies with a will. He joined the cadet corps, and stayed by it for three years. After completing the engineering course at Central, he hopes to continue his studies at the Catholic University.

Marcellus

DECEASED
LAMBDA SIGMA

LIFE MEMBER

Edith Taff.

JAMES FRANK SURFACE

Football "C," 1920

Frank came to Central last year from a Virginia military school. Besides making a "C" he has collected a remarkable number of My Lady's handkerchiefs. Frank's frank way has made him popular in the school. His ambition has bobbed hair.

COMFORT SYLVESTER

Comfort is all that her name suggests. She may not have a large number of friends, but, among those she has, she is always a favorite. A successful musical career is assured, and we all wish her a blissful future.

EDITH CRUIT TAFF

Her personality is like her hair, bright and attractive, though "Edie" says that her hair isn't red; it's Titian. Her favorite indoor sport is dancing, while her other hobbies are "burning up" P street in a Ford Sedan, and eating sundaes.

VIRGINIA MARION TAGGART

The majority of Centralites are acquainted with Virginia, who has created a fondness among her friends at Central. She has always been very studious during her term at Central, and we hope that after her graduation good fortune will attend her.

MARGARET CLEVINGER TAYLOR

Although Margaret's name has never shone as one of the bright stars in Central's athletic or scholastic sky, her cheerful smile and sunny disposition have won for her a warm corner in the hearts of many of its students.

HELEN MARGARET TEW

Helen is the essence of youth and firmly believes in that old adage, "Variety is the spice of life." The evidence of this is her many love affairs. Everybody likes her, especially the stronger sex. How could they help it?

MARGARETE AGNES THOM

Peggy is a demure and winsome lassie from the Middle West. She is shy, but when you get to know her you will see what has won her a place in many hearts at Central. Here's to the West if it's like Peggy!

MARGARET JEANETTE THOMSON

If you are looking for some one who is full of fun, lively and a good sport, who can accomplish what she starts out to do, just hunt up "Tommy." For she's a mighty good fellow and a dandy girl.

RUTH FRANLYN THORNE

Style reigns supreme with Ruth. But, alas! she intends to cast aside all this to don the plain costume of a nurse. Her remarkable ability in this field, coupled with her bright disposition, will make her a wonderful success. Here's to humanity!

DORIS CALTON THORNETT

Doris is our ready-smile girl—smiles with her blue eyes, too. She can make you smile, though everything goes wrong. She is a true Centralite, an Old Dominion girl. And, oh, if you want to be entertained, call on Doris!

FLORENCE HARTLEY TRUNDLE

Here is a true-blue Southern lady, who has a wonderful disposition and a winning personality. Florence is devoted to horseback riding and enjoys many other sports. An A. B. is her desire. It may well be said that to know her is to love her.

EVA VIRGINIA TUCKER

Little Eva has been a true CENTRALITE ever since she was a true "Rookie." Eve tempted man to do wrong. Eva, the auditor, may have deterred men from "doing" the bank. We predict for her the management of some large bank.

Harry Tyler SEP

GEORGE TUCKER

George is a boy of brains and one who uses them. But the fact that he has brains does not prevent him from being a good fellow. One thing we hope is that his habitual lateness will not always follow him.

HARRY FRANKLIN TYLER, JR.

Manager of Swimming, 1921

For four years Harry has roamed around Central's corridors in search of an education. When he graduates, he hopes to be an adventurer and search for romance. His greatest ambition is to go to Monte Carlo and break the bank.

DAVID MERRILL TYREE

*Scholarship
Captain, Company E
Track "C"*

Merrill, Captain of a first-class company and a "C" man, spent four years working for Central in both track and the cadet corps. He has many friends at Central, who will miss him in June, when he leaves Central for Annapolis.

SARAH MADELINE VAUGHAN

During Mazzine's four years at Central she has won many friends. Next year she is going to Normal school to study to be a first-grade teacher. If she doesn't teach, I am sure that the musical world will be graced by her presence.

ANNA LUCILLE VEACH

Lucille is a very quiet and pleasant young lady who has won many friends at high school with her winning smile and charming disposition. She expects to take up the art of short-story writing. Here's good luck to you, Lucille!

ALBERT HERTZER VEITCH

Rifle "C," 1920

Albert is second sergeant in Company B. He entered Central in his second year, coming from Ohio. His prowess last year as a shot gained him a "C." Albert would rather be on the range with a rifle than anything else.

GEORGE BAKER VEITCH

George hails from Ohio. Since his entrance at Central last fall he has made many friends, for he is a good sport and likes a good time. We hear that he expects to "undertake" difficult undertakings after he leaves school.

HENRY ALAN VIRTIS

In "Al" we find three outstanding features: one, he is a born leader; two, he is a hard worker; three, he is a good friend, willing to help you at all times. Great things await him in life.

JOHN VLAHAKIS

Vlahakis is a name with a puzzle. Born in the original "Home of Liberty," Greece, he emigrated to this country seven years ago. Three years later he came to Central. His ambition is to enter college next year and uphold Central's traditions.

DOROTHY LOUISE WAITE

Dotty, popular with all, hails from New England. Though she has been with us but two short years, every one is sure that her hopes of competing with Chaminade will be realized. Ask any one about her hair and eyes. Oh, Boys!

CHANNING SMITH WALKER

Basketball "C," 1920
Baseball "C," 1920
Review Staff

Channing's smile and good humor are irresistible. His many friends, and even those who don't know him, will testify that he is a genuine success, not only in Basketball and Baseball, but as a good fellow and friend.

MANNIX WALKER

Although Mannix is very quiet, he is well known to us because of his great work in our school dramatics. We have heard that, besides being an actor, he writes books and poems. Success is assured to such a talented person.

ANNA FRANCES WARING

Bulletin Staff

Anna is an all-round Central girl. She has gone out for many sports, and makes good marks in her studies, too. Her sweet disposition and bright smile win for her many true friends. Her ambition remains a dark secret.

GWENDOLEN WARREN

Gwendolen's quiet and sympathetic manner has won for her many friends among the students and teachers. Shortly after graduating, she expects to begin her career in the business world. She aspires to be a magazine illustrator. Good luck to Gwen!

Mrs Winkler
GRACE ELIZABETH WEEKS

Everybody knows the little, red-haired, vivacious Gracie. She is always the life of the party. Her favorite "hobbies" are dancing and having a good time. Her ambition is to be a noted writer. Best of luck to you, Betty!

MARGARET WEEKS

Peggy's greatest accomplishment is her giggle. But how she can swim and dance! This is a deep, dark secret, but it is rumored that her greatest ambition is to be a real housewife. Boys, Stop! Look! Listen!

FREDERICK AUGUST WEIHR, JR.

Does everybody like Fred? I'll say they do! Fred's one of these boys who is very quiet, but always pleasant, and in a good humor. He gets along very well in his studies, and I am sure that every one will miss him when he leaves.

GEORGE CALVIN WENTZEL

Bulletin Staff

George won many friends at Central. He was not once tardy during his high school career. "Math." and mechanical drawing are of great interest to him, and he expects to take up engineering at college. We wish him great success.

HAROLD ALDEN WHEELER

*Scholarship
Regimental Quartermaster
(Captain)*

This North Dakota boy is the only present member of the Cadet Corps who can claim the honor of having been in three placing companies. His industry has won him many friends who are confident of his success as a radio-engineer.

RICHARD MARKS WICK

Lead
*First Lieutenant, Company C
Review Staff*

"Dick," as he is known to his friends, is a real example of a true Centralite. He has worked hard for Old Central and has made many friends. His greatest ambition is to study Engineering at Boston Tech, and then, who knows?

DANIEL BECKETT WHITE

President Debate

Dan has traveled extensively, visiting Panama twice. His favorite pastime is borrowing; his highest ambition is to tell the speed cops to sit on a tack. However, he will probably be a soap-box orator.

HELEN CHARLOTTE WILDER

Scholarship

Helen entered Central in her junior year from Mobile. She is well loved here for her vivacity, her kindness, and her ever-present smile. Although her ambition is to be a second Rachmaninoff, she is going to George Washington to study psychology.

ALFRED WILLAMY WHITTAKER

While Alfred has not been prominent in the ever-popular Central athletics, he is a true Centralite and has a host of friends. He expects to keep studying after graduating this June, although he is not going to college immediately.

THOMAS ALBERT WILDMAN

"Al" was born in Washington, D. C. In 1919 he saw the error of his ways and came to Central. During his two years here, his cheerful nature has made him a host of friends who will regret his departure from Central.

WINIFRED MAY WILLIAMS

"Fred," as she is known to her friends, is a true Central girl. She has studied earnestly and yet has always found time to attend the games. She has three hobbies: Math., books, and "Dad," who was a former Central student.

KENNETH THEODORE WILLIAMSON

He is a boy. He is witty. He is an actor. He is always smiling. He is "A Happy Man." He likes girls. He is very interesting. He is known for his ability to bring forth mirth. We like him a lot.

WOODRURY WILLOUGHBY

Willoughby was born in Virginia, and Central is honored by having such a fine young fellow as one of her students. He has shown the school spirit to the best of his ability. He considers going to college when he finishes here.

GEORGE HILTON WILSON

*Scholarship
Captain Company D
Bulletin Staff*

Girls—he loves them; cadets—he leads them; dances—he's always there; studies—he sharks. If you don't know him, meet him, but don't loan him money; borrowing is his specialty. George is a swell friend and Centralite, all in all.

VIOLET CUTTING WINSLOW

This attractive young lady is one of the most lovable of loyal Centralites. Useful brown eyes (she uses them to the best advantage), a cheerful, often-present smile, and a friendly manner are some of the many qualities for which she is much loved.

MARSHALL WISEHEART

From that southern portion of Illinois called Egypt, in the heart of the farming district, comes our congenial friend, Wiseheart. He is a man of few words and a rare wit. His ambition is to become a lawyer, and we believe that he will make a good one.

dead

list

ELIZABETH ROBERTA WITHERS

Betty is one of the cutest and most popular seniors, owing to her love of fun and mischief, which has gathered friends of both sexes. Her hobby is French.(?) As to her ambition, she has never found time to state it.

BEALL MAGRUDER WOODWARD

B-E-A-L-L, her greatest care is that you both spell and pronounce it correctly. All those hearing her harangue a stubborn class or attempting to evade her guard in basketball with testify that her strongest virtue is tenacity. Stick to it, Beall!

KATHERINE VAUGHAN WRIGHT

Bulletin Staff

Katherine is one of those fine, true girls on whose friendship one can always depend, and whose friendship every one desires. Besides being a very good student, her undisputed athletic ability has been shown in the fine basketball which she plays.

EDWIN LANGHORNE YATES

*Scholarship
Class Historian
Captain, Company B
Review Staff*

"Eddie" is one of those rare persons who can always find a silver lining in the darkest cloud. Despite his successful military and his unusual scholastic records, "Eddie" always has time to say a good word for every one.

GRACE YOUNG

During her sojourn at Central, Grace has endeared herself to the hearts of many, both as a jolly comrade and a good student. Her hobby is the collection of Ks. This collection is quite large, and, we hear, is still growing.

WILLIAM NELSON YOUNG

We are sure that "Nelly's" Southern drawl has had something to do with his successful course at Central. After his graduation from Johns Hopkins we expect Dr. Young to perfect the long sought and greatly valued formula for eternal youth.

WOODRUFF YOUNGS

"Woody," as our curly-head friend is known to many of us, is a true blue friend, with sterling character. He has, as all his teachers say, a very good brain, and we predict a great future for him.

EMILE FRANCIS ZALESAK

Basketball "C," 1920-'21

"Ame" won many friends at school with his broad smile and winning ways; not only was he a devoted student, but also an athlete, making the 1921 Basketball Team. He had the distinction of being Central's best cheer leader.

FRANCES GERTRUDE ZAONTZ

Sparkling eyes and saucy smile has Fransy. Her pleasing manner and willingness to enter into any lessons or good time have gained her numerous friends among her teachers and chums. Traveling is her hobby, and as to motoring—oh, my!

CARL DRESSLER ZIMMERMAN

Two years ago an unknown boy from a high school in Utah penetrated the halls of Central. Ever since, he has proved himself a true Centralite. To make a success in the field of foreign trade seems to be his ambition.

In Memoriam

MARY LOUISE LANDGRAF

Died November 28, 1920

"Yet not unmeet was it that one,
Like that young friend of ours,
So gentle and so beautiful,
Should perish with the flowers."

MAURICE CHARLES SHAPIRO

Well, we have him here. "Shappie" is famed for his unfailing good nature and his ever-present smile. He joined the cadets in '17 and picked out Company E. Can you beat that for luck? He is working for an M. D.

June Class Directory

- | | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Abramson, Bertha Anne, 801 Fern Place
 Adams, Jessica Chambers, 808 Taylor St.
 Alden, Leland Milton, 121 Bryant St.
 Allen, Margaret Isabel, 2034 First St.
 Alpher, Isadore Meyer, 20 New York Ave.
 Anderson, Audrey Joanna,
 345 Ridgely St., Clarendon, Va.
 Anderson, Lillian Marie,
 Twin Oaks, Cleveland Park
 Apple, Mary Salome, 1633 Harvard St.
 Archibald, Elizabeth Katherine, 21 U St.
 Argent, Mary Amelia, Forest Glen, Md.
 Artois, Frederick William, 6105 Third St.
 Austermuhl, Edith Lavinia,
 The Marne Apt., Thirteenth and Belmont Sts.
 Austin, Bliss, 1824 Kilbourne Place Bagby, Suzanne, 1644 Park Rd.
 Baltzell, George Franklin, Jr.,
 Chatham Courts, Columbia Rd.
 Barr, Mary Frances, 1817 First St.
 Bassler, Robert Stein, 66 Bryant St.
 Bauer, David Ferdinand Henry,
 1342 Girard St.
 Bean, Lucille Underwood,
 1246 Evarts St., N. E.
 Beck, Albert Eugene, 26 Bryant St.
 Begg, Frances Eleanor, Fontanet Courts
 Bergstrom, Hazel Matilda,
 947 Shepherd St.
 Bernsten, Sarah Edith, 1204 Irving St.
 Berry, Helen Dorothea, 507 Kenyon St.
 Bickford, Elizabeth, Berwyn, Md.
 Birch, Florence Wright, 1635 R St.
 Bird, Joseph Lenoir, 1228 M St.
 Blanz, Carolyn,
 711 Lawrence St., N. E., Brookland, D. C.
 Bliss, Charles Mitchell, 1363 Columbia Rd.
 Bliss, Donald Stickney,
 209 Takoma Ave., Takoma Park
 Bloom, Zelda Hinda, 1008 Kenyon St.
 Boardman, Margaret Earle,
 2702 Ontario Rd.
 Bock, Ruth, Conduit Road, D. C.
 Boettcher, Allen McFarland,
 1203 New Jersey Ave.
 Boger, Corinne Morehead, 1217 L St. | Bonner, Eleanor, 3220 Seventeenth St.
 Bonnet, Arthur Edward, 16 Adams St.
 Bowen, James Harfield, 1654 Hobart St.
 Bowie, Margaret Lowndes, 3702 Keokuk St.
 Bradford, Elizabeth Hughes,
 140 Rhode Island Ave.
 Brinkman, Ralph, 1025 Eighth St.
 Brodsky, Harry, 810 North Capitol St.
 Brooks, Caroline Elizabeth, 631 F St.
 Buchler, Milton, 1116 East Capitol St.
 Buckman, Horace Dilworth, Accotink, Va.
 Bumstead, Evelyn,
 2930 Carlton Ave., Woodridge, D. C.
 Bunten, Isabel Eva,
 53 Cedar St., Takoma Park
 Burke, William, Jr., 1447 Belmont St.
 Burley, Mary Evelyn, 401 Shepherd St.
 Burton, Marjorie du Pont,
 1812 Vernon St., Apt. No. 42
 Butler, Margaret Frances, Aurora Hills, Va. Campbell, Gretchen, 5611 Fourteenth St.
 Capers, Ruth Winifred, 1225 Girard St.
 Carey, William Edward, Jr.,
 1436 Meridian St.
 Carr, Oliver Taylor, 3212 Wisconsin Ave.
 Carruthers, Margery,
 Thirtieth St. and Gates Rd., Chevy Chase, D. C.
 Carter, William Golden, Jr.,
 16 Taylor St., Chevy Chase, Md.
 Cave, Preston Andrews,
 1110 Virginia Ave., S. W.
 Charles, Roland Wilbur, 453 C St.
 Chase, Sara Edna, Mount Rainier, Md.
 Chipman, Norris Bowie,
 1319 Nineteenth St.
 Clark, Alfred Henry, 242 Eighth St., S. E.
 Clarke, Samuel James, 141 T St.
 Claude, Edith McAllister,
 102 East Melrose St., Chevy Chase, Md.
 Cockerille, Mary Louise,
 3649 Thirteenth St.
 Coe, Allen Crenshaw,
 912 Massachusetts Ave.
 Cohen, Ida, 1107 S St.
 Colburn, Dorothy Virginia,
 627 Seventh St., N. E. |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Colpoys, Helen Beatrice, 1222 Decatur St.
Columbus, Ruth Coale, 107 Maryland Ave., N. E.
Colvin, Ernest Milburn, 926 B St., S. W.
Colvin, Mary Elaine, 923 Virginia Ave., S. W.
Conklin, Paul, 3100 Twentieth St., N. E.
Conner, Lendell Allen, 6317 Maple Ave., Chevy Chase, Md.
Cotter, Helen Stone, Mitchellville, Md.
Cottrell, Joseph Donald, 7218 Blair Rd., Takoma Park, D. C.
Cowherd, Florence McMurray, 509 Rock Creek Church Rd.
Cowles, Lois Alleen, 2428 Irving St.
Cox, John Rudolph, 3307 Newark St.
Cramer, Mary Amber, 2036 First St.
Crane, Margaret, 3732 Kanawha St., Chevy Chase, D. C.
Cross, Howard Clinton, 1222 Eighth St.
Crowder, Katheryn Mae, 1820 Kenyon St.
Crown, Marguerite Hazel, 1307 Kennedy St.
Cullen, John Burke, 1755 Kilbourne Place
Cummings, Harold Greig, 1333 Valley Place, S. E.
Cunningham, George Motter, 2927 Ordway St., Cleveland Park

Darling, Horace Velpeau, 408 Eleventh St., N. E.
Daugherty, Walter Emory, 2229 First St.
Davis, Malcolm Grahame, 1241 Girard St.
Dawson, Francis Clyde, R. D. No. 2, Chevy Chase Br., D. C.
Dawson, Walker Myrick, R. D. No. 2, Chevy Chase Br., D. C.
Day, Austin Wesley, 2014 North Capitol St.
Day, Ralph, Alta Vista, Bethesda, Md.
Deane, Anna Louise, 1266 Columbia Rd.
Deatherage, John Robertson, 1101 Euclid St.
Del Vecchio, Samuel, Hyattsville, Md.
Deuterman, Linden, Arlington, Va.
Dice, Gladys Romaine, 1219 Jackson St., N. E.
Diggett, Dorothy, 3305 Brown St.
Dold, Sallie Lozano, R. F. D. No. 1, Alexandria, Va.
Dougherty, Florence Virginia, 2126 Flagler Place
Drew, Frances Louise, 2805 Eleventh St.
Duff, Lillian Isabell, 1412 Chapin St., Apt. 41, Berkshire
Dunlap, Edward Twiss, 2629 Garfield St.
Dyre, Gertrude Eleanor, 516 Butternut St.

Eaton, William, 1759 Columbia Rd.
Edmonston, Katharine Virginia, 4817 Conduit Rd., D. C.
Edmonston, Martha, 3205 Nineteenth St.
Edwards, Philip Corin, 4403 Iowa Ave.
England, Catharine Howard, Anacostia Station, D. C., Route 9
Evans, Esther Gertrude, 3439 Holmead Place
Everett, Hugh, Jr., 161 Adams St.
Ewers, Alys Helene, 629 Keefer Place
Ewin, James Lithgow, 1821 Newton St.

Faris, Elizabeth Rawlings, 1346 Harvard St.
Fassett, Genevieve, 1408 Emerson St.
Fay, Ellen Lyle, 3 Kendall Green
Fellows, Harry Andrew, Jr., East Falls Church, Va.
Finckel, Pauline Louise, 4418 Georgia Ave.
Fink, Theodore Ross, 1826 Fifteenth St.
Fisher, Dale, 6103 Fourth St.
Fisk, Willis, Kensington, Md.
Fiske, Anita, 1378 Harvard St.
Fletcher, Grace Lucile, 7217 Blair Rd., Takoma Park, D. C.
Floria, Rosina Maria, 732 Longfellow St.
Foster, Ruth Vermont, 1851 Columbia Rd., The Woodley
Fouts, Edward Lee, 730 Quebec St.
Fowler, Howell, 1346 Irving St.
French, Jacqueline Theodora, 2339 Eighteenth St.
Friedlander, Lillian, 1821 Irving St.
Fryer, Thelma Elizabeth, 4416 Illinois Ave.
Furey, Cecilia Elizabeth, 43 Rhode Island Ave.
Furse, Margaret Houseal, 1931 Kenyon St.

Gannaway, Bruce Franklin, 1131 Fourth St., N. E.
Gannaway, Grace May, 1131 Fourth St., N. E.
Garber, Bessie Stewart, 1480 Harvard St.
Garrett, Virginia Lee, 1519 Webster St.
Gaylord, Helen Katherine, Takoma Park, D. C.
Gibbs, Robert, 2801 Eighteenth St.
Giddings, Susan Dawson, Silver Springs, Md.
Girdner, Kermit Emory, 6812 Laurel Ave., Takoma Park, D. C.
Gompers, Esther, 3500 Thirty-fifth St.
Goodall, Anna Marie, 1824 Ingleside Terrace
Goodwin, Vesta Maria, 1784 Lanier Place
Graff, George, 3323 Fourteenth St.

Grant, Clifford Piggott, 62 Bryant St.
 Greeley, John Richard, 2632 Garfield St.
 Gross, Katherine Madeline, 1312 Florida Ave., N. E.
 Grove, Robert, 5603 Sixteenth St.
 Grover, Mary Hamilton, The Northumberland
 Gruver, Kathleen Kline, 1407 Shepherd St.
 Gundaker, Kathryn Elizabeth, 4401 Iowa Ave.

 Haddox, Dorothy Smith, 1503 Rhode Island Ave.
 Hallam, Drucilla Bohrer, 813 Vermont Ave.
 Hammett, Norman Wethirill, 3218 Morrison St.
 Hampton, Adine Marie, 21 T St.
 Hanen, Marguerite Catharine, 1383 F St., N. E.
 Hansen, Eva Lorainne, 1712 Euclid St.
 Harbaugh, Mary, 2800 Thirteenth St., Brookland, D. C.
 Harlow, Gladys Evelyn, 1320 Ninth St.
 Harr, Richard Whitmore, 36 Primrose St., Chevy Chase, Md.
 Harrah, Helen, 1653 Newton St.
 Hawley, Katherine Graham, 1735 Kenyon St.
 Healy, Ono, Fontanet Courts
 Heid, Howard, 1740 Lanier Place
 Hersey, Alice Elizabeth, The Northumberland
 Hesse, Elizabeth Edna, 710 A St., S. E.
 Hipkins, William Alexander, Jr., 1106 Columbia Rd.
 Hough, Catherine Anne, 1423 Monroe St.
 Hoyt, Kendall King, 1446 Belmont St.
 Hughes, Margaret Edith, 201 Eighth St., N. E.
 Hulbrit, Emma Williams, 25 Seaton Place
 Hummer, Helen, 1237 Kenyon St.
 Hunt, Irvin Leland, Jr., 1649 Fuller St.
 Hunt, Thelma, Berwyn, Md.
 Hurley, Mary Floreine, 676 Fourth St., N. E.
 Hyatt, Lloyd Whalen, Kensington, Md.

 Inlay, Miles Hopkins, 106 Raymond St., Chevy Chase, Md.
 Ingram, Kathryne Louise, 1647 Harvard St.
 Israel, Winifred Boyce, 2111 Flagler Place

 Jackson, Joseph Charles, 3014 Thirteenth St.
 Jarrell, Karl Ennals, 1420 Ingraham St.

 Jeffery, James Hyatt, 1606 Lawrence St., N. E.
 Jeffrey, Doris, 1133 Columbia Rd.
 Jerman, Wilma Sinton, 2717 Thirteenth St.
 Johnson, Harry Wiswell, 831 Rittenhouse St.
 Johnson, Howard, 106 Third St., N. E.
 Johnson, Minnie, 416 Shepherd St.
 Johnson, Olga Mae, 908 Tenth St.
 Johnson, Rudolph Cornelius, 1021 Ninth St.
 Johnson, Stuart Curtis, 5214 Fourteenth St.
 Johnston, Hugh, 1411 Kennedy St.
 Jones, Edward, Beverley Courts, Ontario and Columbia Rds.
 Jones, Grace Elizabeth, 1533 Eighth St.
 Jones, Kathleene Shepherd, 3320 Mt. Pleasant St.
 Jones, Neilson, 1462 Clifton St.
 Judson, Lawrence Harder, 1332 Irving St.

 Kale, Norma Josephine, 1111 Sixth St.
 Kannary, Marie Katherine, 943 Fifteenth St., S. E.
 Kaplan, Isadore, 439 Seventh St., S. W.
 Keliher, Alice Virginia, Chevy Chase, Md.
 Kelly, Evra, 1104 M St.
 Kemball, Dorothy Jean, 619 Quebec Place
 Keyser, Katherine Neville, 4421 Iowa Ave.
 Kiel, Paul John, 522 Harvard St.
 Kildare, Harrison Gill, 719 Varnum St.
 Killian, Rose Mary, 1733 First St.
 King, Barnwell Rhett, Branchville, Md.
 King, Dorothy Tazewell, 815 Prince St., Alexandria, Va.
 King, Henry Emanuel, 2629 Lanier Place
 Kingsley, Eleanor Kate, 3522 Eleventh St.
 Kline, William Merle, 1430 Montague St.
 Knock, John Kendall, 660 E St., N. E.
 Knock, Emmett Barrett, 3423 Fourteenth St.
 Knouse, Anna, 3619 Thirteenth St.
 Korman, Adeline Miriam, 2844 Twenty-eighth St.
 Krans, Gertrude Louise, 1250 Florida Ave., N. E.
 Kritt, Minnie Mary, 2147 P St.
 Kubel, Margaret, 3107 Eighteenth St.

 Lamb, Ethel Genevieve, 2614 University Place
 Lambert, Urban Saunders, Jr., Alexandria, Va.
 Lambiase, Rose Mary, 723 Quebec St.
 Lamberton, Robert Ben, Florence Courts

Lange, Helena Alberta, 1116 Girard St.
 Lantel, Catherine Mary, 810 Massachusetts Ave., N. E.
 Larkin, Lillian Jane, 1721 Corcoran St.
 Latimer, Robert Cary, 1414 Buchanan St.
 Leckie, Ned Lloyd, 1208 Florida Ave., N. E.
 Le Hew, Helen Frances, 629 Quincy St.
 Lemon, James Hanson, 1847 Kalorama Rd.
 Levitan, Maurice, 3044 Fourteenth St.
 Lewis, Gomer, 29 Adams St.
 Lewis, Samuel Lee, 1439 T St.
 Lewton, Myrtle Ivy, 113 Chestnut Ave., Takoma Park, D. C.
 Linsenmeyer, Edgar Martin, 1225 E St., N. E.
 Littlepage, John Marshall, 1260 Columbia Rd.
 Livingston, Nina Mae, 1102 Jefferson St.
 Lockwood, Florence, 1121 Euclid St.
 Loetsch, Antoinette Dorothea, 1337 Fairmont St.
 Long, John Harvey, 5425 Ninth St.
 Long, Victor Dismukes, 5425 Ninth St.
 Loomis, Frederick Kent, The Hadleigh, Sixteenth and V Sts.
 Lowe, Francis Daniel, 1004 B St., N. E.
 Ludlum, Robert Coumbe, 6 West Virgilia St., Chevy Chase, Md.
 Ludewig, Joseph William, 4609 Thirtieth St.
 McBride, Marian Stone, 123 The Ontario Apts.
 McCavley, Harold, 221a Bates St.
 McCord, Anita Alice, 1711 Euclid St.
 McCoy, Carroll Alonzo, 2407 Twelfth St., N. E.
 McCubbin, Eva Marie, 3105 Sixteenth St.
 McDill, Alexander Stuart, 1834 Belmont Rd.
 McEnally, Olive Elizabeth, Winterpock, Va.
 McGregar, Donald, 1303 Florida Ave.
 McKinley, Marian Von Ferick, 1250 Columbia Rd.
 McNamara, Cecelia Marie, 37 Michigan Ave., N. E.
 McNamara, Elizabeth Mary, 1316 H St., N. E.
 McNeil, Winifred Agnes, 1377 Irving St.
 McSorley, Virginia Jane, 1836 Monroe St.
 Manchester, Beryl, 3745 Kanawha St., Chevy Chase, D. C.
 Marks, Freda Lorena, 619 L St., N. E.
 Marks, Gladys Elizabeth, 204 Rhode Island Ave.
 Meeds, Nelson Tindall, Silver Spring, Md.
 Melville, Clyde Brunell, 452 Park Rd.
 Menzel, Ruth Marie, 2951 Tilden St.
 Merritt, Virginia, 5101 Thirteenth St.
 Metcalf, Florence Elizabeth, 901 Ingraham St.
 Michaelson, Winifred McGregor, 1234 Girard St.
 Michaud, Wilfrid Hardy, 432 Manor Place
 Mikesell, Walter Russell, 3540 Tenth St.
 Montague, Colton Fitz Gerald, 1939 Seventeenth St.
 Moomaw, Catherine Lois, 11 Williams Lane, Chevy Chase, Md.
 Morgan, Jesse Albert, 47 Seaton Place
 Morris, Agnes May, 730 Twenty-first St.
 Moser, Grace Chester, 151 U St., N. E.
 Mullaly, Catherine, 1303 Columbia Rd.
 Muller, Paula Jeanne, 5110 Fourteenth St.
 Murphy, John Joseph, 41 The Dupont
 Murray, Gladys Mary, 5625 Rock Creek Ford Rd., Chevy Chase, D. C.
 Murray, Margaret Patricia, 1317 Farragut St.
 Murray, Mildred Moorman, 1709 Q St.
 Myers, Walter Claude, 3226 Warder St.
 Nichols, Gladys Elizabeth, 4217 Seventh St.
 Ninas, George Arthur, Jr., 3513 Center St.
 Norwood, Gladys, 1231 Franklin St., N. E.
 Notes, Joseph, 2925 Ordway St.
 O'Brien, Roy Bernard, 15 Seaton Pl., N. E.
 Ohlander, Lyle Wayne, 21 Randolph Pl.
 Padgett, Lillian Florence, 923 K St., N. E.
 Parton, Virginia May, 417 Tenth St., S. W.
 Pearsall, Dorothy Howard, 3308 New Hampshire Ave.
 Pearson, John Lincoln, 2813 Twenty-seventh St.
 Pearson, Mabel Virginia, 1455 Girard St.
 Peckham, Josephine Francis, 640 Princeton St.
 Phillips, Gertrude Marie, 105 R St., N. E.
 Poindexter, Louise Elizabeth, 1400 M St.
 Porter, Clarence Henry, 1428 Madison St.
 Powell, Alice Estel, 1605 Rhode Island Ave., N. E.
 Price, Hazel Haughton, 1736 Columbia Rd.
 Primm, Margaret Jeanette, 1337 Lawrence St., N. E.
 Proctor, Carey Preston, 712 Twentieth St.
 Proctor, Edward Alexander, 3129 Nineteenth St.
 Proctor, Elbert Wentworth, 2605 Eleventh St.

Ragan, Vivian, 213 S St.
 Ransome, Violet Jane, 1455 Belmont St.
 Rauber, Mary Cevilia, 2025 Kalorama Rd.
 Reddish, Mary Virginia, 408 Adams St., N. E.
 Reichgut, Ruth, 1350 Fairmont St.
 Reynolds, Susie Elizabeth, 217 Park Ave., Takoma Park
 Rhodes, Cooper Burnett, 3000 Albemarle St.
 Rice, Leonard Wallace, 1658 Hobart St.
 Richard, Everett, 1919 Nineteenth St.
 Richardson, John Hubert, 435 Eleventh St., N. E.
 Rider, Theodore Harold, 255 The Portner
 Ridgway, Agnes, The Hadleigh, Apt. 316
 Ring, Gustave, 5521 Potomac Ave.
 Roach, Frances Liebermann, 1639 R St.
 Robbins, Ernest Woodward, 429 Kenyon St.
 Roberts, Earl, Seat Pleasant, Md.
 Roche, William Willoughby, 338 Adams St., N. E.
 Rockwood, Marie Rankin, 3004 Seventeenth St., N. E.
 Rogers, Frederick Hilme, 1886 Newton St.
 Rose, Lorraine Serrin, 3709 Fourteenth St.
 Rosenfeld, Philip, 1419 Columbia Rd.
 Rule, Mary Elizabeth Violet, 3220 Thirteenth St.
 Russell, Dorothy Jane, 123 W St.
 Sabin, Ida Elizabeth, Fourteenth St. and Military Rd.
 Sanders, Warrington Raphael, 328 Ninth St., N. E.
 Saunders, John, 3510 Macomb St.
 Scharf, Elizabeth Sheriff, 3411 Brown St.
 Schenken, Carlton Gustav, 618 D St., N. E.
 Schmidt, Gertrude Marie, 508 P St.
 Schwartz, Sylvia Teresa, 920 F St.
 Seibold, Louis Edward, 756 Rock Creek Church Rd.
 Severance, Frank Algernon, Gaithersburg, Md.
 Sheppard, Grace, 1342 Perry Place
 Shewmaker, Sibyl, 500 Rhode Island Ave., N. E.
 Shipman, Lois Evelyn, 1499 Irving St.
 Shoemaker, Frances May, 5310 Belt Rd.
 Silverman, Joe M., 1212 Union St., S. W.
 Skeels, Alice Anna, 210 Holly Ave., Takoma Park, D. C.
 Smallwood, Dorothy May, 1137 Fourth St., N. E.
 Smith, Eleanor Elizabeth, 2846 Twenty-eighth St.
 Smith, Elizabeth Pepper, 305 The Ontario Apts.
 Smith, Frank DeLarme, 1304 Fairmont St.
 Smith, Helena Mask, 227 B St.
 Smith, Homer Jackson, 606 Longfellow St.
 Sommers, Helen Elizabeth, 211 Elm St., Chevy Chase, Md.
 Sparrow, Frederick Kroeber, Jr., 1106 East Capitol St., N. E.
 Spruce, Rebecca, 6308 Brookville Rd., Chevy Chase, Md.
 Stanton, William Henry, 1427 Newton St.
 Steadman, Ethel, 943 Longfellow St.
 Stearns, Elsie Maryette, 1425 Rhode Island Ave.
 Stokes, Martha Elizabeth, 1436 W St.
 Stow, Marcellus Henry, 1403 L St.
 Stuart, Bernice, 212 Carroll St., Takoma Park, D. C.
 Suraci, Joseph Carmelo, 1223 H St., N. E.
 Surface, James Frank, 1345 Perry Place
 Sylvester, Comfort, 7301 Blair Rd., Takoma Park, D. C.
 Taff, Edith Cruik, 115 Maple St., Takoma Park, D. C.
 Taggart, Virginia Marion, 1277 New Hampshire Ave.
 Taylor, Margaret Clevenger, 5006 Piney Branch Rd.
 Tew, Helen Margaret, 33 Bryant St.
 Thom, Margarete Agnes, 2112 F St.
 Thomson, Margaret Jeanette, 1357 Oak St.
 Thorne, Ruth Franklyn, 1242 W St., S. E.
 Thornett, Doris, Ballston, Va.
 Trundle, Florence Hartley, 72 R St.
 Tucker, Eva Virginia, 1900 Jackson St., N. E.
 Tucker, George C., 3800 Fourteenth St.
 Tyler, Harry Franklin, 1918 Calvert St.
 Tyree, David Merrill, 1225 Crittenden St.
 Vaughan, Sarah Madeleine, 3118 Eighteenth St.
 Veach, Anna Lucille, 1203 Sixth St., N. E.
 Veitch, Albert Hertzner, 1312 Florida Ave.
 Veitch, George, 1814 Jackson St., N. E.
 Virts, Henry Alan, 1409 L St.
 Vlahakis, John, 1742 Kalorama Rd.
 Waite, Dorothy Louise, Fourteenth and Clifton Sts., The Victoria
 Walker, Channing Smith, 1760 Park Rd.
 Walker, Mannix, 2112 S St.
 Waring, Anna Frances, 616 Quebec Place

Warren, Gwendolen Evelyn,	Silver Spring, Md.	Wilson, George Hilton,	1346 Monroe St., N. E.
Weeks, Grace Elizabeth,	723 Varnum St.	Winslow, Violet,	1358 Perry Place
Weeks, Margaret,	614 Randolph St.	Wischeart, Marshall C.,	Y. M. C. A., 1736 G St.
Weihe, Frederick,	4000 Marlboro Place	Withers, Elizabeth Roberta,	119 Bates St.
Wentzel, George Calvin,	3537 New Hampshire Ave.	Woodward, Beall Magruder,	723 Twentieth St.
Wheeler, Harold Alden,	5503 Thirty-third St.	Wright, Katherine Vaughan,	1501 Lamont St.
White, Daniel Beckett,	2311 Connecticut Ave.	Yates, Edwin Langehorne,	1006 Monroe St.
Whittaker, Alfred,	726 Taylor St.	Young, Grace,	2565 Tunlaw Rd.
Wick, Richard Marks,	Bethesda, Md., R. F. D. No. 1	Young, William Nelson,	1018 East Capitol St., N. E.
Wilder, Helen,	625 Rock Creek Church Rd.	Youngs, Woodruff,	1800 Tenth St.
Wildman, Thomas Albert,	1232 Euclid St.	Zalesak, Emile Francis,	1834 K St.
Williams, Winifred,	4432 Kansas Ave.	Zaontz, Frances Gertrude,	1447 Monroe St.
Williamson, Kenneth Theodore,	3308 Eighth St., N. E., Brookland, D. C.	Zimmerman, Carl,	2311 North Capitol St.
Willoughby, Woodbury,	1841 Lamont St.

June Valedictory

FOUR years ago our class entered the doors of Central with hopes and ambitions high. To-night we stand where countless other graduating classes have stood, those hopes for the most part fulfilled, and those ambitions realized. Soon the past four years will be but a memory, one which will ever be cherished in our hearts.

This is a joyous occasion, as our various representatives have so ably shown you, but through it all there is a strain of sadness, the solemn spirit of the farewell which we must say. For, fellow-graduates, in securing our coveted diplomas, not only will our goal be reached, but we will be expected to take our place in the world of affairs and help "carry on." Each of us has his sphere, each his duty to perform, and our training in this great school of ours will be the stepping-stone to achievement. We separate, never again to meet in the classroom. Some will go on to college, others will at once take up their duties in the business world, but whichever way we go, the foundation of our Temple of Success has been laid in Central.

Our achievement henceforth depends solely upon ourselves. We stand, fellow-graduates, at the threshold of our active lives, with our high school years behind us, looking out upon the world that we must enter. We see there vast fields of grain, great cities bustling with activity, each offering a useful place for the wide-awake American. We see before us, too, the soft light from a million homes, radiating content and prosperity. These are gifts that have been placed before us, and it is the spirit of happiness, content, and loyalty that we must "carry on." But let us look more closely. Suddenly under the calm surface of the land before us we notice a rumbling, a tremor. The voices of a few attempt to turn the spirit of loyalty to one of treachery, and the content to dissatisfaction. This we must fight with our hearts as we would fight an armed invader with our physical powers. America is ours. Her welfare will always be our own.

Our vision of the future grows brighter, for it is the dawn of a new day in the history of the world as well as in our lives. The war-worn world awaits young hands and minds to put it once more upon its feet. America will demand the best in each one of us, and this we will freely give. The age in which we shall hold the reins of government will be an age of opportunity. The doctrine of selfishness in our national and private affairs has given way to the creed of Service.

What better example of this could we have than our faculty? Their untiring efforts and limitless patience in preparing us for the parts we are soon to take makes a farewell to them exceptionally hard.

To you, Mr. Maurer, we wish to extend our heartfelt appreciation of your labors for us, and for this school that has become so much a part of us all. To you, and in no less measure to Miss Coolidge and Mr. Miller, has the success of our class been due. To you, and to all the teachers who have so capably instilled in us not only the branches of study to which they were assigned, but the fundamentals of sound character, do we give the assurance that we shall never forget you nor the good you have done.

Let us, then, fellow-graduates, take our leave of Central with the lessons she has taught us uppermost in our minds, the memories of our stay here ever with us, and our present relations as a common bond among us forever. Thus, with firm resolve to lift our lives to the highest standards for school and country, we say, "Farewell!"

HARRISON G. KILDARE.

The Central Crew

MILES IMLAY Acting Captain.
 ROBERT GROVE Manager.

EVERY year since the date of its establishment, the Central High School has been living up to her slogan of steadfastly marching onward. This year has seen her march onward into a new field of sport, the development of a crew.

In December of 1920 a number of boys of the school met to discuss the possibilities of starting a crew at Central. The main objection raised was the expense of using a shell and the renting a boat house. This objection was answered by asking the men who were interested to join a club which had kindly offered the use of their boats and house. This was, of course, expensive, but twenty-two men felt interested enough to give their money and time that this sport might gain a foothold in the school.

These men started work in January under the direction of Mr. Clarence Hecox, a well known oarsman and a member of the faculty. The work was first started on a set of rowing machines which were secured through Mr. Hecox, but later was changed to shell work when the weather became warmer. The work in the shells was very hard, and progress appeared to be slow. However, the men have stuck to the grind and are now beginning to see open water ahead.

By this hard work the crew proved to Mr. Maurer its determination to maintain crew work at Central, and for this reason a shell has been ordered for the use of the Central Crew. This step has put crew work on the list of school activities as one of the major sports. It is for future generations to make crew work the major sport.

There is an old saying among the seniors in this sport, that an oarsman can not be made in a year. This year Central is going to prove to the world that eight or more landlubbers can smash this theory.

MILES D. IMLAY.

Autographs

Florence Hill Schuch
Genevieve Cudde,
Josephine Crawford.
W. H. Smith
Mildred H. Merrill
Margaret B. Evans
Katherine S. Summy.
Florence M. Jones

Autographs

Autographs

Sophia F. Waldman '22

Elizabeth Phillips '22

Louisa P. Whelpley '22

Gertrude Gordon '22

Rose Lundan '22

Elizabeth Handley '23

Janice Milne '24

Regina Malone '22

Frances Christie $\Sigma \Lambda$

Emily Brown '22?

Dorothy Latimer "Goat" $\Sigma \Lambda$

Dorothy Young '22

Margaret Callan T ϕ '22

Charlotte Engel '23

Margaret Collins '22

Virginia $\Sigma \Lambda$

Mary-Louise Burns $\Sigma \Lambda$

Margaret Sutherland $\Sigma \Lambda$

Olive Wallace '22

Marjorie Graham - '22

Ruth Finckel '24

Evelyn L. Smith '24

Helen B. Bodwell '24

Esther Woodworth '23

Virginia $\Sigma \Lambda$

Thelma Castle '23

Virginia Woodward $\Sigma \Lambda$

Gertrude Skinner (24)

Edith $\Sigma \Lambda$

Thelma $\Sigma \Lambda$

Glady. $\Sigma \Lambda$

Catherine Pearson '23

Barab Lynch '23

Geneva Luit '22?

W. C. McKinnis, $\Sigma T M$, '21.

Marie $\Sigma \Lambda$

Elise Wildman '22

Pauline Blakeslee

SA '22

WHY DO PEOPLE FAIL?

SUCCESS is the result of the positive application of certain laws and principles. FAILURE is the penalty of neglecting to apply those same principles. The Washington Business College by means of its thoroughly practical courses shows you how to make success not only possible, but absolutely sure.

Our students now in school and their parents are enthusiastic about the merits of our school; the many former graduates now holding responsible and high-salaried positions, and their employers, recognize the superior quality of our instruction.

We put earnest effort into our work because we know that only a good school can succeed. We know too that only a good student can succeed.

We maintain a capable faculty with thorough practical courses, and place every graduate in a desirable position.

Personal attention to your inquiry at any time.

DAY AND NIGHT SCHOOL ALL THE YEAR

Special Summer Sessions. Start in at any time

Call, write or telephone, Main 4959

Washington Business College

1321 G. Street N. W.

Business Courses—Secretarial Training—Civil Service

THE SPIRIT OF SERVICE

True Success is measured by the Golden Rule—NOT by the rule of gold. He who thinks not of his brothers toiling on Life's Highway is a FAILURE no less than the human wreck cast up on Life's Shore.

Through the passing years of a quarter of a century, STRAYER'S BUSINESS COLLEGE has translated this spirit of service into practice by educating thousands of young men and women for useful and honorable positions in the business world and Government Service. Proud of this heritage, with the changing times, STRAYER'S pledges anew its unswerving allegiance to this ideal of public service.

STRAYER'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

Ninth and F Streets

NATIONALLY ACCREDITED

Main 3430

UNIVERSITY COURSE

For High School Students

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS have the educational requisites necessary to pursue the study of higher accountancy.

The LaSalle University Course is recognized by National and International Accountants as having unsurpassed merit.

A combination of class and individual instruction prevail throughout the entire course in our school which paves the way to a C. P. A. degree in a comparatively short time.

This course is taught under C. P. A. Supervision.

DAY AND NIGHT SESSIONS

Enter any time

Send for Comprehensive Booklet

STEWART SCHOOL OF HIGHER ACCOUNTANCY

1202 F Street

Main 8671

THE EDMONSTON STUDIO

F STREET

Opposite the New Willard

Made the pictures in this book

They have made a permanent file of the negatives and prints may be obtained at any time

“While you’re about it, get a good photograph”

United States Savings Bank

Fourteenth and You Streets Northwest

Resources over $2,000,000

Three Per Cent Paid on Savings Accounts

Open Daily until 5.30 P. M.

Goldheim's

"Pledged to Quality"

14th St. at New York Ave.

Store Hours: 8.30 A. M. to 6 P. M.

Mr. Goldheim Talks :

Emphasizing clothes of MERIT, not phrases.

Most young men are interested in the style and service of garments rather than in a dissertation of carefully selected words detailing why they are so good.

You can expect quality and correct style in Goldheim clothing —and this is particularly true of the spring and summer models.

Telephone, Main 820

H. L. & J. B. McQueen, Inc.

PRINTING

520 Tenth Street N. W.

Printers of Annual Publications, 1921

for

National Park Seminary

Georgetown College

Trinity College

Central High School

JACOB REED'S SONS
PHILADELPHIA

FOUNDED 1824 BY JACOB REED

Oldest Uniform Manufacturing House in the United States

Students of the Leading Military Schools and Colleges in this country are outfitted in

REED'S UNIFORMS

The Uniforms worn by the Washington High School Cadets are examples of the quality, finish and Workmanship of Reed's productions.

The Washington Photo Co.

Believes "in getting a good photograph"—but also a large one. Central High School's last year's group graduating class photograph and this year's (1921) were both made by the Washington Photo Company, also the large photograph of the Central High School Cadets, 1921.

Group photographs, outside or inside, Class, Banquet, Party, Costume Ball group photographs, are our specialty. Automobile and other high-grade commercial photography solicited and made in large and extra large sizes. "As near as your telephone."

Telephone, Franklin 1815

Washington Photo Company

J. M. NAIMAN, President

607 Pennsylvania Ave. N. W.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

The Printing Plant for the New Central High School was supplied by

Barnhart Bros.
& Spindler

Type Founders

1224 H Street Northwest
Washington, D. C.

Geo. F. Muth & Co.

Draftsmen's and Artists' Supplies

House Paints and Painters' Supplies

Paasche Air Brushes

710 Thirteenth Street N. W.

Parker-Bridget Co.

"If it's made of paper—you can get it at Andrews'"

School and College Supplies

Of every description—rightly priced

Get them at Andrews'

R. P. Andrews Paper Co.

Branches in Norfolk, Va., and York, Pa.

727-731 Thirteenth St.

Washington, D. C.

REEVES CHOCOLATES

Fresh Every Day

1209 F Street Northwest

H. COLODNY & CO.

In medicine—QUALITY—that's the Point

School Supplies
Sodas, Films

S. E. Cor. 14th and Clifton Sts. N. W.
4203 Georgia Avenue N. W.

Headquarters for Interwoven Hose and Munsingwear

*The Haberdashers of
"The Hill"*

For Men and Young Men

M. LEVITAN & CO.

3044 14th Street N. W.
Corner Irving Street

What am I going to do after Graduation?

This is a question many young women ask themselves about this time every year.

Why not become a telephone operator? It is an interesting profession and offers a splendid opportunity to intelligent, ambitious young women who wish to enter a profitable and useful vocation.

An operator's salary starts the day she enrolls in our training department and increases just as soon as the training period is over.

Bright, cheerful recreation rooms are furnished for her enjoyment and comfort. A lunch room is provided where clean, wholesome food is served at cost.

She has an opportunity to qualify for positions of rank and responsibility, is surrounded by ideal working conditions and companions of refinement.

For further information, communicate with

Employment Office

First Floor, 722 Twelfth Street N. W.

The Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co.

A Shop for Misses—and their Mothers!

JELLEFF'S

A Shop for Quality—and Moderate Cost!

In our Misses Shop particularly we limit the number of any one style, so that the Miss secures the individual style she so greatly desires.

*SUITS, COATS, FROCKS
CENTEMERI KID GLOVES
GOLD STRIPE SILK STOCKINGS*

Frank R. Jelleff, Inc.
1216 F Street N. W.

MILITARY

CIVILIAN

F. J. Heiberger & Son, Inc.

TAILORS

1419 F Street Northwest

ESTABLISHED 1851

PHONE, MAIN 1418

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Phone, Franklin 6640

J. V. Mulligan
Manufacturing Jeweller

Badges, Medals
Trophies
Class Pins
Fraternity Pins

1110 F Street Northwest

BALL PROGRAMS
MENUS
ENGRAVED
INVITATIONS FRATERNITY
STATIONERY

BREWOOD

Engravers and Stationers

519 Thirteenth Street N. W.

ENGRAVED
VISITING CARDS

ENGROSSED
RESOLUTIONS

CRESTS AND COATS-OF-ARMS

Compliments of a Friend

COLUMBIA 1708

OPEN EVENINGS

B. A. Hopkins

2926 14th St. N. W.

Columbia Grafonolas and Records

AND

The Singer Sewing Machine Company

NEW AND USED MACHINES

Renting Expert Repairing All Makes Hemstitching Picot Edging
Buttons Made to Order

"Eat a Plate of Ice Cream Every Day"

BUT BE SURE IT IS

Carry's Delicious Ice Cream

Served Exclusively in the Lunch Room of the Central High School

The Carry Ice Cream Company
1337-53 D Street S.E. Phone, Lincoln 5900

Central High School Bank

Depository for School Funds

Interest 3%

Compounded Quarterly on Savings Accounts

CENTRAL

On the corner of Ninth and F Streets

Everything for the Kollege Fellow

CLOTHING, HATS, FURNISHINGS, SHOES

SOL HERZOG & CO., Inc.

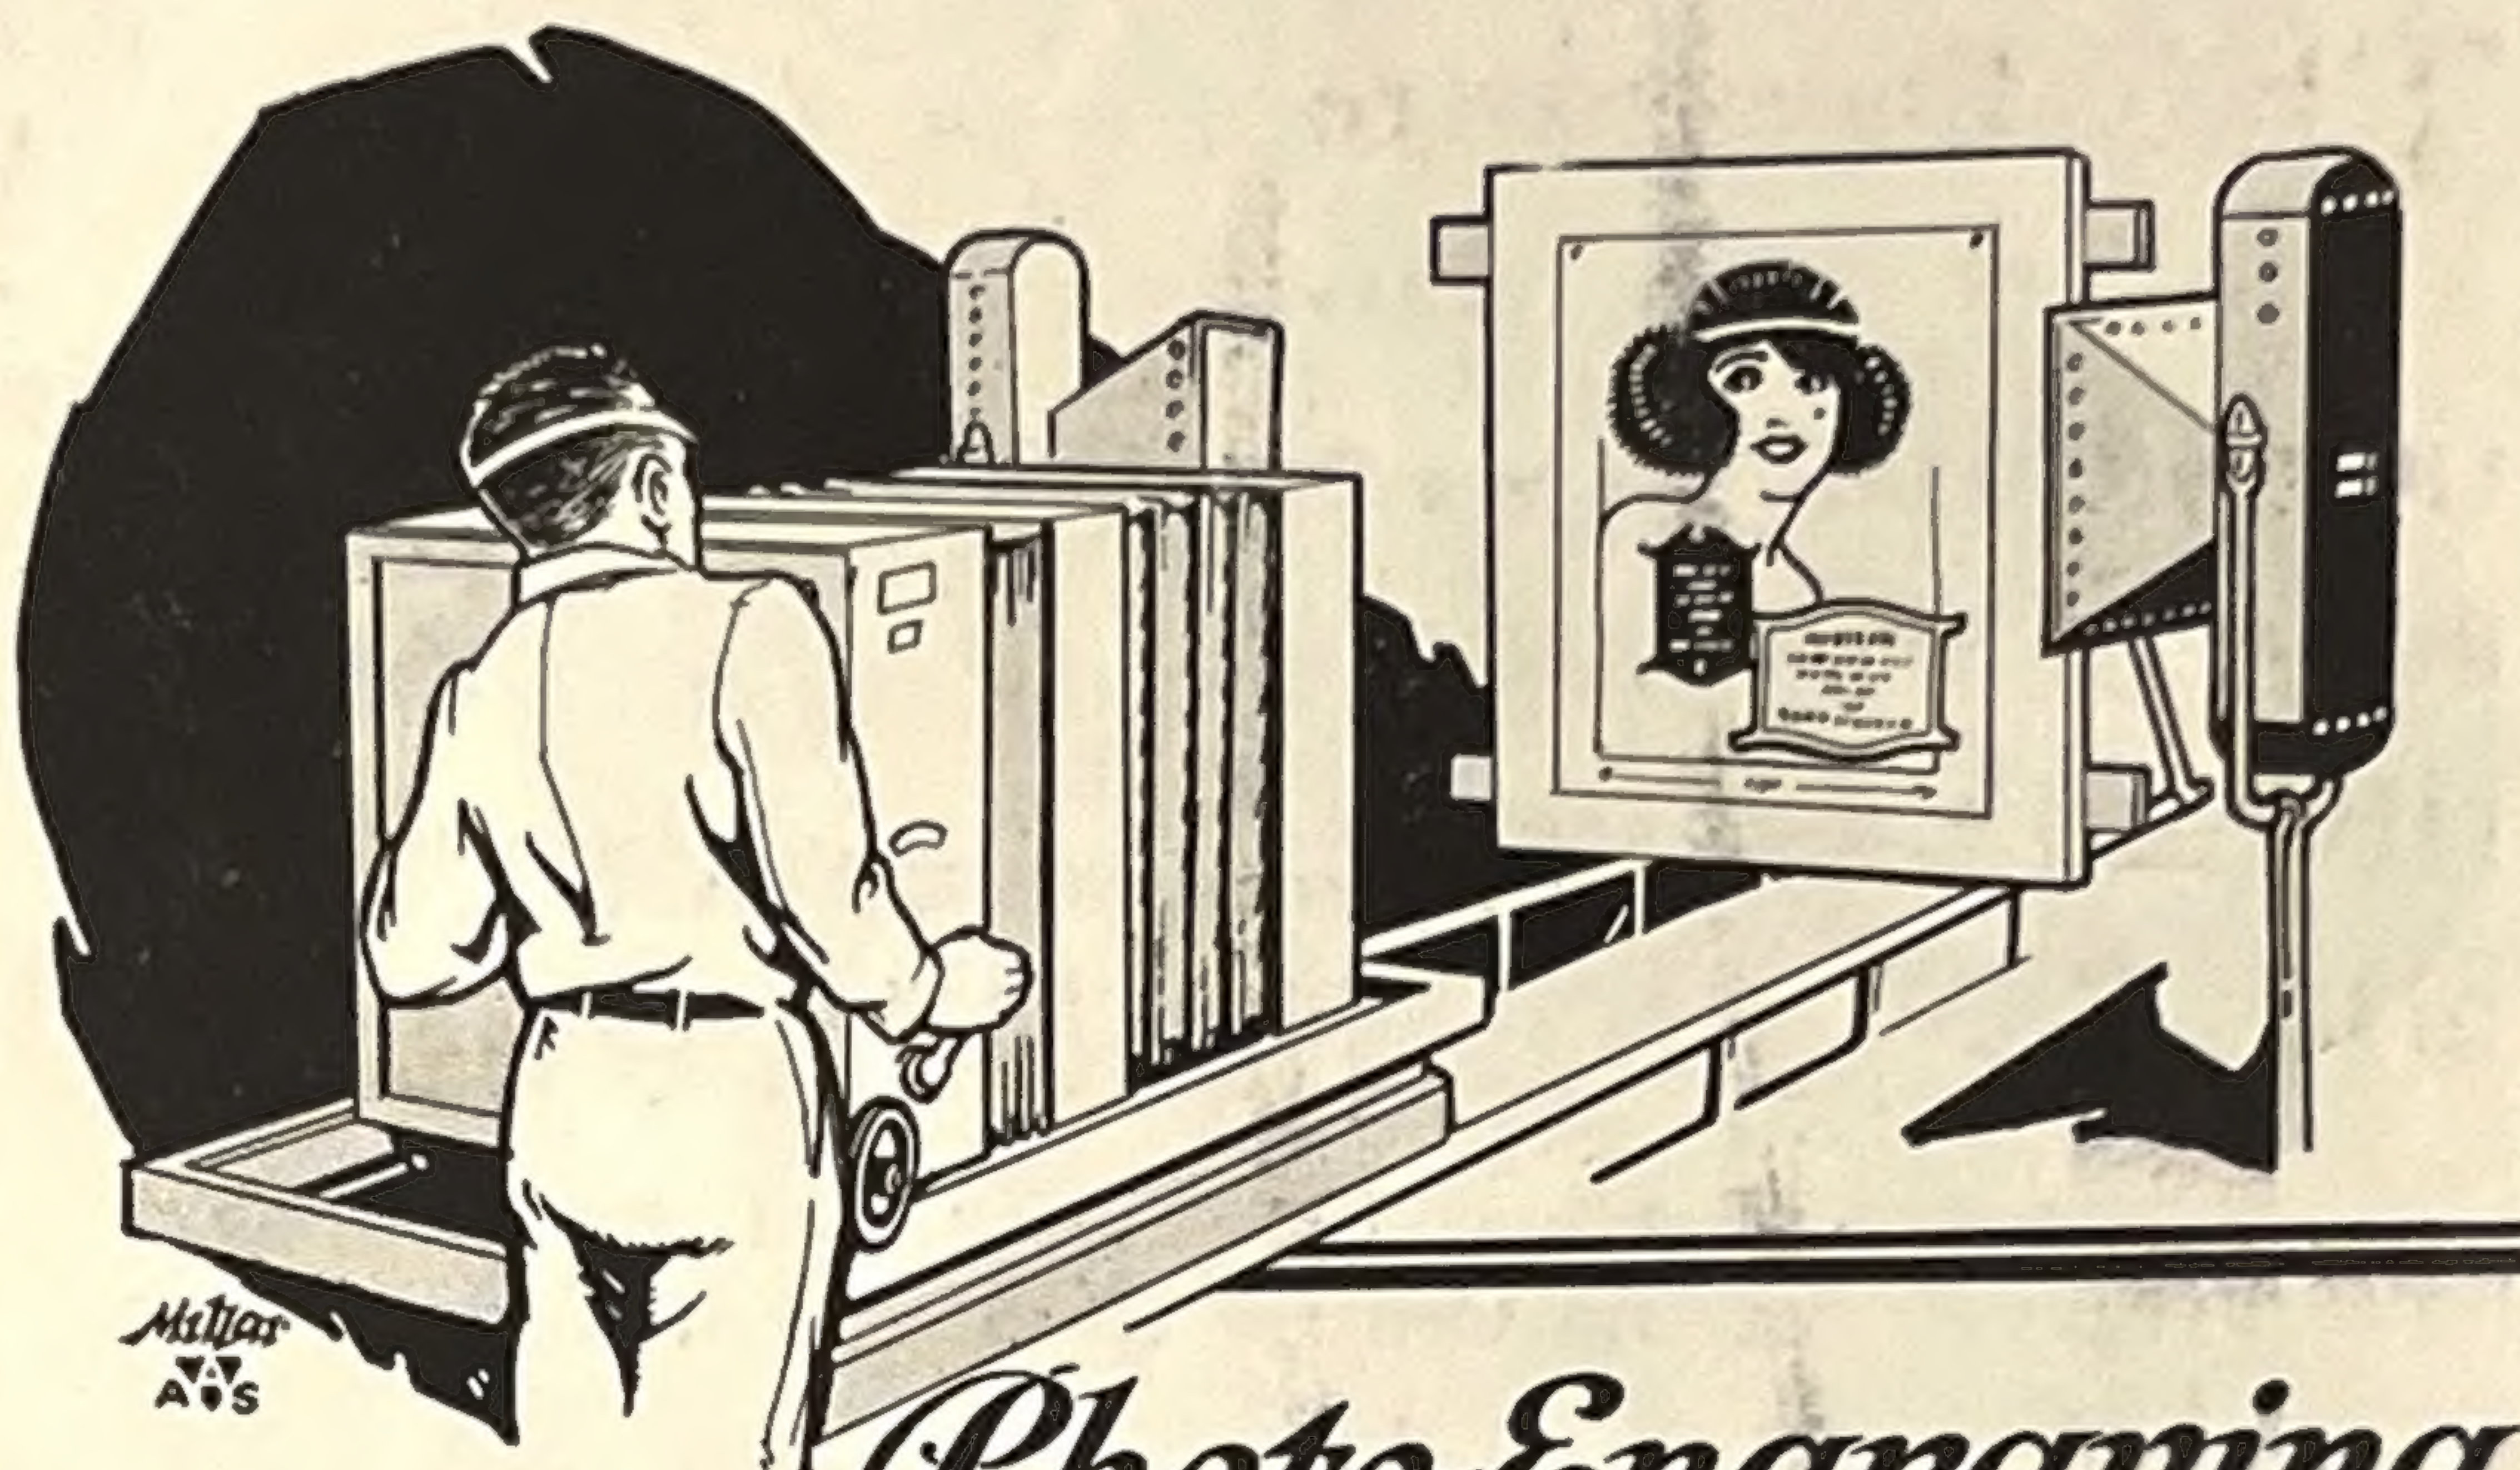

Photo-Engraving

The illustrations in this issue of BRECKY were all made by the Photo-Engraving Process and are specimens of the work turned out by this establishment. The older processes of reproduction, such as wood engraving and steel engraving, have become nearly obsolete, so that practically every illustration now seen in magazines, newspapers, catalogues, etc., is produced by the photo-mechanical method known as Photo-Engraving.

The Maurice Joyce Engraving Co.

operates the largest establishment for the production of this class of work south of Philadelphia.

Students or graduates from the high schools of Washington will always be welcome visitors at our plant. It will be a pleasure to explain the interesting methods in use.

Maurice Joyce Engraving Co.

H. C. C. STILES, General Manager

Evening Star Building

Washington, D. C.

THE Directorate of this institution constitutes an assurance of integrity and high standards.

DR. RICHARD T. ELY,
A. B., A. M., Ph. D., LL. D.

DR. PAUL S. REINSCH,
A. B., LL. B., Ph. D.

COL. F. T. A. JUNKIN,
A. B., A. M., LL. B., LL. D.

MR. CHARLES A. LYMAN,
A. B.

MR. LAWRENCE H. CAKE,
LL. B.

CAPT. JOHN T. A. ELY
MISS E. VIRGINIA GRANT
MISS A. R. HASSE

The Washington School for Secretaries
Washington, D. C.

